News and Observer. THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY. SENATE.

TWENTY-EIGHTH DAY.

FRIDAY, January 2.

Mr Watson, petition from citizens of Winston for an appropriation for the benefit of his creditors. --- A series of State Guard.

Mr Lyon, bill to protect rice planters on Eagle's Island.

Bill by Mr Scott, of New Hanover, to amend chapter 23 of Battle's Revisal; several overcoats, half a dozen pairs of section second provides that the consta- boots, a case of shoes and several pairs bles shall reside in the townships where elected or appointed. He read a list of prominet Democrats in Wilmington who wished it passed The bill takes away the right of Wilmington magis. trates to appoint special constables. Mr Boykin said for the committee, that they looked on the bill as class legislation. One gentleman said to him that the bill was meant for political effect; he hoped it would be tabled.

Mr Strayhorn thought a man should only be deputized in special cases. There is no responsibility behind depu-tized constables, and if the merchants and citizens of Wilmington wished it, it was as little as we could do to pass it.

Mr Scott, of New Hanover, said it seemed impossible for a Republican to get a bill through unless it was charged by the other side as a political measure. He urged the passage of the bill. .It would be the greatest blessing in the world, if instead of these magistrates in Township, was found dead in his yard Wilmington, sitting in their offices preying on the people by their special runners, they could have two good magistrates for the city who were paid a good salary. This is why the best men in Wilmington signed that petition to get rid of this curse; there is no politics in it.

Mr Watson said the statement of the ### STATE NEWS.

Chatham Record: On last Thursday deputy collector Walter D. Moore captured an illicit whiskey still near Sanford. The still was in full blast, but One night last week Mr. J. H. Ilims, of Cape Fear Township, died very sud denly. He went to bed in his usual health. The deceased was one of our oldest audimost respected citizens, and his death will be much regretted by all who knew him. .

Monroe Express: There are no cw 1ings of any description in Monroe for lector for this district, has made an assignment to Dr Jno II McAden, for the revival meetings are in progress in the the Pastor at 11 a. m., and 75 p. m. Sabbath Baptist church this week conducted by School 3 p. m. Prayer Meeting Wednesday at Mr Dortch, bill to incorporate the Baptist church this week conducted by colored orphan asylum of Eastern the pastor and Rev J E King. Much interest is being manifested. --We learn that the store of Mr. Crowder, in Wadesboro, was entered throzh the window on last Saturday night, and of pants stolen therefrom.

> Wilson Advance: We learn that there is a great deal of cotton still ungathered in the fields in this county. Bad weather and scarcity of labor caused it. --- Prof. Hargrove of the Wilson Collegiate Institute, has, we learn, accepted a position in a South Carolina institution, and leave us next week, for his new field of labor. --- In Old Fields Township, an aged white woman tell into the fire and was dreadfully burned last week. It is thought that she will lose the sight of one, if not both of her eyes. ---- It is our painful duty to announce the death of Mr. Edward Waters, who departed this life on Wednesday last at his residence in Wilson. Mr. Waters had been a great sufferer for the last six months from a cancer on his tongue. --- An old colored man by the name of Ayers, of industrious habits, living in Spring Hill one day last week. As there were no signs of violence, his death is supposed to have resulted from natural causes.

> Walter S. Nelson, Esq., Monroe. N. C., says: "In one week Brown's Iron Bitters cured me of indigestion and sick stomach.
