

The Daily Review.

JOSH. T. JAMES, Editor & Prop. WILMINGTON, N. C. FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 1883.

Entered at the Postoffice at Wilmington, N. C., as second-class matter.

An able New York correspondent of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat describes the celebration of Paine's birthday in that city.

As a matter of fact, his religion is simple and assertive. It is the religion of Herbert Spencer, George Eliot, Frederic Harrison, Auguste Comte, Goethe, Harriet Martineau and Leon Gambetta.

The people of Louisville, Ky., having determined to hold a great industrial exhibition in their city, went about the necessary preparations with an energy and independence which command admiration and deserve success.

The different States are almost as eager to get a good share of each year's immigration as job politicians are to get official plunder, and the record of the destination of the immigrants who land at Castle Garden is studied with peculiar interest.

Among the many very able speeches made in Congress by the opponents of a high protective tariff, the New York Herald claims that the speech of Senator Lamar is the most masterly yet made on the tariff question.

people. Senator Lamar's statesman-like views ought to be and doubtless will be read by the masses, and particularly by every laboring man throughout the country.

We have seen a synopsis of the speech alluded to, but have not seen it in its entirety as it has not yet appeared in the Congressional Record; but from extracts we have seen, we have no doubt that the Herald is very nearly correct.

As to the next Presidency the New York Sun sagaciously observes: "A great opportunity is offered to the Democracy, if they know how to improve it."

"Best of All." Dr. R. V. PIERCE, Buffalo, N. Y. Dear Sir:—My family has used your "Favorite Prescription" and it has done all that is claimed for it.

Fallieres is but forty-one, the youngest premier France ever had. Peter Cooper will celebrate his ninety fifth birthday on the 12th inst.

President Arthur is now credited with being in love with Miss Beckwith, of New York.

Senator Anthony, of Rhode Island, is rather expected to succeed Mr Davis as President of the Senate.

Mrs Sarah Forrest, of Sherman, Texas, a sister-in-law of the late Gen N B Forrest of the Confederate army, is dead.

February 5th (yesterday) marked General Sherman's practical retirement from his high office and the entry upon the sixty-third year of his age.

Senator Tabor has reached Washington, where he will tarry just about long enough to get his new honorary handle fastened to his name.

A national convention of swine breeders is to be held in Indiana.

The 217 native newspapers in India are trying to form a press association.

In 1880 and 1881 there were 400 collisions of steamships on the North Atlantic alone.

A pithy telegram from one point in Minnesota thus summed up the storm: "Hell is loose, and contents have coagulated. Railroads blocked in every direction."

The propriety of restoring the death penalty for murder in the first degree is agitated in the State of Maine and favored by a majority of the people.

The Orleans princes can retain their French citizenship by the sufferance of the President of the Republic in case the Senate approves the bill which has passed the Chamber of Deputies.
