THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VII. WILMINGTON, N. C., SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 1883. NO. 37

The Daily Review has the largest bona fide circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

Plan Plan has been released from prison.

West Virginia has 52,000 persons over ten years old who cannot read.

Birmingham, Alabama, will shortly add to her other industries a glass factory.

Gov. Ireland, of Texas, has advised in a message to the Legislature that vaccination be made compulsory in that State.

Bowen, United States Senator elect from Colorado, is said to be worth $5,000,000.

Col. Dockery has decided not to contest Judge Bennett's election and has so notified Bennett.

The fattest thing now on 'Change is Bell Telephone stock, which has recently skipped from $250 to $285.

Hon. Judah P. Benjamin has been compelled by the state of his health to give up the practice of his profession.

The high dividends paid by America to land and cattle companies have begun to attract attention to Europe.

The Comte de Paris says that the only true republic is found in the United States. Well, who said it wasn't?

Last Thursday was the Chinese New Year's day, and it was celebrated at their joss house at Passaic, N. J., the only one on the Atlantic coast.

It is now believed by his friends—in fact, even asserted in Congressional circles—that Senator Windom can take care of himself.

Thirty thousand tons of new shipping have been ordered on the Clyde during the past fortnight, including two steamers for the North German Lloyds Company.

Congress has passed a bill lending the authority of the government to the Cotton Exposition to be held next year, and admitting articles for exhibition free of duty; but no financial aid is given.

There is a man in New York by the name of Henry Bowie, who has determined to see Walcott, the quail-eater, and go him two better by eating two brace of quails a day for thirty days. He began on Thursday of last week.

Illinois now has at Washington the acting vice-president, the secretary of war, the assistant secretary of the interior, the commissioner of Internal Revenue, the director of the mint, the public printer and the chief examiner of patents.

The sale of Sarah Bernhardt's jewels took place Tuesday. Those in attendance were principally dealers and representatives of the demi-monde. A necklace of rose diamonds sold for 24,000 francs, and two bracelets fetched 8,000 francs each.

A bill is before the Pennsylvania legislature, and is received with favor, proposing a constitutional amendment reducing the number of State Senators from 50 to 30, and of representatives from 210 to 50, and to elect Senators for six years and Representatives for four years.

More than 26,000 English soldiers were stationed in Ireland in 1881, or an army as large as that of the United States, in a territory about four times as large as that of Massachusetts. One man in every two hundred was a British soldier, fully armed. Add the Irish Constabulary, and the measure of Irish discontent can be readily approximated.

Petersburg Index-Appell. Messrs. Beck, Vest and Vance in the Senate have done more than any three Congressmen to expose the iniquities of certain tariff legislation proposed by Republican Senators, and to secure modification of the rates or extension of the free list. They and equally able Democrats in the House are determined that, so far as the minority can accomplish it, the tariff bill be made a law shall be beneficial to the many instead of the few. And this is genuine Statesmanship.

Great Inducements In the way of Clothing are now being offered at the old establishment of A. & I. SHREER, Reliable Clothing House, No. 24 Market St.

Quadragesima Sunday to-morrow.

Day's length 10 hours and 47 minutes.

No interments this week in Oakdale.

Sunset to-morrow afternoon at 37 minutes past 5 o'clock.

Silver Plated Spoons and Forks, low prices, at JACOBI'S.

But one interment this week in Bellevue, that of an adult.

The Register of Deeds issued marriage licenses this week for two couples, both white.

The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 732 bales.

The early gardener is now making arrangements for the young worms.

We trust the fruit trees will not allow themselves to be too venturesome this year.

Some New Year resolutions are now more than a month old and but few of them are still vigorous.

There have been four interments this week in Pine Forest, of whom one was a child and three were adults.

The Wilmington district Conference of the Methodist E. Church South convenes in Whiteville on the 24th day of May.

A box-car should be fitted up on all railroads, with suitable accommodations, as a pig pen for the benefit of some of those who travel now-a-days. There are lots of hogs to be found abroad now.

The District stewards of the Wilmington District of the Methodist E. Church will meet at 11 o'clock a. m. at the parsonage of the Front Street Church in Wilmington on the 21st day of February.

The first issue of the Fayetteville Observer, under the management of Mr. E. J. Hale, has been received. In make-up it very much resembles the old Observer, if our recollection is correct. Mr. Hale has our very best wishes for an abundant success.

Mr F C Vaughan, Warrenton, N. C., says: "Brown's Iron Bitters is a first-class tonic; it cured me of chills."

Sick in Clinton.

Mr. Owen D. Holmes, of this city, who has been on a visit to Clinton for some weeks past, was taken very sick there a few days ago. So grievous did his illness appear that some of the members of the family here were telegraphed to come to his bedside. We are glad to learn, however, from late advices received here that Mr. Holmes' condition has improved somewhat.

The Street Lamps.

We don't know who has the contract for lighting the street lamps, but we do know that the business is only imperfectly attended to. Those who may be going homeward now in the evening, sometimes half an hour after dark, and sometimes an hour, will frequently be compelled to plod their way in the dark. It was some time after dark last night before the lights on North Second street were attended to.

The celebrated 'Fish Brand' Gills Twine is sold only at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

Personal.

We acknowledge the courtesy of a call yesterday afternoon from Adjutant General Johnstone Jones, whose arrival in the city on Wednesday was chronicled by us. Gen. Jones is practicing law at Asheville but is devoting much of his time now to the editorial columns of the Asheville Citizen, the two editors of that paper, Messrs Furman and Cameron, having legislative duties at Raleigh. Gen. Jones proposes to leave here on Tuesday next, with his wife, on the return to Asheville.

Mr. Charles Burr Todd, of Cincinnati, a connection of Col. James G. Burr's and an author of reputation, was in the city a day or two ago, as the guest of Col. Burr. Mr. Todd was then on his return from a sojourn in Florida. He has now in preparation a book for the press and it was relative to some matters connected therewith that he wished to confer with Col. Burr. Some few years ago he published an extended sketch of the Burr family.

The Roll of Honor.

We doubt if there was a volunteer organization in the South prior to the war, not even excepting the famous Washington Light Artillery, which furnished as many officers to the Confederate armies as did that gallant company, the pride and boast of our town in the old days, the Wilmington Light Infantry. One of the old members, a gentleman now resident here, has compiled a list of these on the old muster-roll who were afterwards commissioned into the service, and we have been permitted to make a copy of the names. They are as follows:

- D C Allen, Captain; John B Brown, Capt 3d Infantry; Edward Cantwell, Lt-Col of Cavalry; A D Cazaux, Capt and A Q M, 18th Inf; Cicero Craig, 1st Lt 3d Inf; Thos Cowan, 1st Lt 3d Inf; R H Drysdale, Capt 3d Inf; W L DeRosset, Col 3d Inf; A L DeRosset, Capt N C T; Z Ellis, Lt Art; W C Ferguson, Lt Col; E D Hall, Col 46 Inf; M M Hankins, Capt; J W Howard, Lt Cav; T Calhoun James, Adjutant 3d Inf; Thos B Lippitt, Lt; A D Lippitt, Lt; C D Myers, Capt and A A G; J C McIlhenny, Capt Art; R B McRae, Major 7th Inf; T H McKoy, Capt 7th Inf; Jas A Miller, Surgeon 18th Inf; Wm McRae, Brig-Gen; F J Moore, Capt 18th Inf; D R Murchison, Capt 7th Inf; R Moore, Lt-Col Cav; W H McRae, Capt 7th Inf; W H Northrop, Capt and A Q M; J J Poisson, Capt 18th Inf; Jos Price, Commander C S N; I J Pickett, Lt 3rd Inf; Wm Quince, Lt 3rd Inf; Richard Quince, Lt 7th Inf; Henry Savage, Capt 18th Inf; W M Swann, Capt C S A; C W Styron, Capt and A Q M; Edward Savage, Lt-Col 3rd Inf; H B Willis, Capt and A C S; A E Wright, Surgeon; A M Waddell, Lt-Col Cav; Julius W Wright, Lt; R H Cowan, Col 18th Inf; S J Person, Lt-Col and A D C; R G Rankin, Capt Art; J L Cantwell, Col Inf; J D Radcliffe, Col 18th Inf; Jas D Cumming, Major Art. Hon Jefferson Davis and Hon George Davis were both honorary members of this organization.

The total is a very handsome one indeed. The Wilmington Light Infantry furnished to the service 1 general officer, 12 field officers, 9 staff officers, 21 line officers, 3 artillery officers and 1 naval officer, a total of 47 in all, enough in themselves to make up a very respectable company. But 96 of the 47 are now alive.

The Dizzies.

There was quite a large and a very good natured audience at the Opera House last night to witness the performance of the RentzSantley Combination. It seemed as if those who attended were bound to enjoy themselves to the utmost, whether the performance was meritorious or not. No ladies were present, but there was nothing more objectionable in the performance than is always seen in the popular comic operas which have been presented to our citizens, neither in dress nor language. The singing was very fair and the arrangements of the choruses to some of the songs were fine and produced a happy and pleasing effect. The comicities of Jake and Pete, as the "merry servants," were quite good, but some of their sayings were old and the dialogue was too prolonged. The imitations given by Barney Reynolds were good, and in some instances very excellent. The skipping rope performance was nicely done, and was received with rapturous applause by the audience. The best feature of the evening was the speech in Dutch dialect by Dutch Daly, and his performance on the futina was simply wonderful. We have never heard it equaled. "The Daughter of the Banker" appeared to us as a very tame, rapid and silly affair and we were glad when the curtain rang down at its close. There certainly was nothing objectionable in the performance and, with the exceptions we have noted, nothing very interesting or artistic, although a good-natured audience were in that happy mood that looked over imperfections, and gave the actresses hearty applause.

Shut the Gate.

We heard a young man (making use last night) of several very forcible and much broken remarks; and to our inquiry as to the cause he replied that he had run against a blank blank gate that some blank galoot had left open and the blank thing stuck out across the sidewalk, and it was so blank dark he couldn't see it. We sympathized with him. A gate sticking out across the sidewalk is a nuisance at any time and on a dark night it becomes intolerable and dangerous.

A minister in Lowell, Mass., has been obliged to give up preaching on account of trouble in his throat. If this reverend gentleman had taken Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, he would have still been a useful member of his profession.

A Gall Accepted.

Some weeks since the Vestry of St. John's Church extended a call to Rev. John Percival, D. D., of the Church of the Annunciation, at New Orleans, to take charge of the Church here, and after duly considering the matter, Dr. Percival has accepted. In a letter received from him to-day, conveying his acceptance, Dr. Percival states that he will leave New Orleans for Wilmington as soon as the necessary arrangements can be perfected, but does not mention any date, either near or remote.

Dr. Percival has been located at New Orleans for seventeen years, during all of which time, if we understand it correctly, he has been in charge of his present parish, which numbers 105 communicants. He is said to be a gentleman of excellent theological attainments, a good preacher and a good worker.

Fayetteville Observer.

ON THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 8th, 1883, the undersigned will revise the publication of the FAYETTEVILLE OBSERVER. The OBSERVER will be a large 28 column weekly newspaper, and will be mailed to subscribers, postage paid, at $2 per annum in advance. It will give the news of the day in as ample form as its space will permit, and both regular and occasional correspondents will contribute letters from the Capital on State politics and affairs. Democratic in politics, the OBSERVER will labor, first of all, to assure the prosperity of the Town of Fayetteville, to develop the vast agricultural resources of its own and the neighboring counties, and to promote all that concerns the welfare of the people of North Carolina. Opposed to such innovations on the homely ways of our fathers as, in the guise of progress, harm society, the OBSERVER will be found in full sympathy with the new things born of the changed condition of the South which sound judgment or enlightened experience find to be also good. As to the rest, it will strive to deserve the reputation of the name it inherits. Feb 10 E. J. HALE, JR., Attorney.
