THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VII. WILMINGTON, N. C. THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 1883. NO. 41

PLEASE NOTICE. We will be glad to receive communications from our friends on any and all subjects of general interest but the name of the writer must always be published to the Editor. Communications must be written on only one side of the paper. Personalities must be avoided. And it is especially and particularly understood that the Editor does not always endorse the views of correspondents unless so stated in the editorial columns.

The Daily Review has the largest bona fide circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

Raleigh has about 2,500 pupils at school.

Baltimore is to have a new Presbyterian church to cost $35,000.

At the last accounts Archbishop McCabe was slightly better.

Ex-Gov. Morgan died at his home in New York yesterday morning.

Prince Napoleon has gone to Farnborough to visit the ex-Empress Eugenie.

Rabbit hunting by moonlight is now a fashionable sport in various parts of Illinois.

Mr. Peter Cooper celebrated his 93d birthday on Monday. His is indeed a green old age.

Dora Wheeler, the artist, is described as a tall, willowy girl with dark hair and eyes, and a face full of animation.

We publish a long report taken from yesterday's New York Sun, relative to the terrible floods out West, which will be found on the fourth page of this issue.

M. Clemenceau, the successor of Gambetta, has a New England wife, a very charming woman who married him for love. They have three beautiful children.

Eighty thousand packages of tea were refused a landing in England under the Adulteration act during 1881 and 1882, and it is said much of it found its way into the "gift" tea stores of the United States.

Maj. Gen. Morrell, a graduate of West Point and commander of the Second Division of the First Army Corps in the late war, died at Scarborough, on the Hudson, on Sunday last.

A ruby of five carats is worth twice as much as a diamond of the same size, and one of ten carats three times as much as a diamond of a corresponding size. A perfect ruby is the rarest of all stones.

A chemist in Germany has introduced a new system of preserving butter by covering it with a layer an inch in thickness of a strong solution of sulphate of lime, which he also uses to preserve cider.

The Central Council of the Irish National Land League, at Buffalo, has issued a proclamation to Irish Americans to prepare to receive Mr. Parnell at the Home League Convention on the 17th of March next.

Mr. Dodge, the youngest son of William E. Dodge, saw his father die in New York on Friday and arrived in Hartford on Saturday barely in time to close the eyes of his dying father-in-law, ex-Governor Marshall Jewell.

Ex-Governor Wm E. Smith, of Wisconsin, died at Milwaukee Tuesday night. He was twice elected Governor of Wisconsin, first in 1877, and was re-elected in 1879. He had previously served as State Treasurer, and had held other offices.

The death is just announced at Blackheath, a residential suburb of London, of Ellen, the eldest daughter of Daniel O'Connell, whom she has survived thirty-six years. She was the widow of Christopher Fitz Simon, an Irish barrister once an M P for Dublin.

The ranch of the Pawnee Valley Stock-Breeders' Association is now considered the finest in Kansas. They own 2,700 acres, of which 1,100 are fenced, and have five miles frontage on the Pawnee and two miles on the Fort Larned Military Reservation.

The proposal to forbid by law the ringing of "rousing bells" in the morning, in New England manufacturing towns, is opposed by the mill hands, who argue that the alarm is a great convenience to the majority, and not much of a nuisance to the minority.

It is said that Tom Ochiltree, Republican, a member of Congress from Texas, cannot draw his salary until a little account due by him to the government, which was the result of some awkward crookedness while he was Marshal of Eastern Texas, and amounting to $13,000, has been settled. How a man with a record like that was admitted to Congress is not made plain.

Mr F C Vaughan, Warrington, N. C., says: "Brown's Iron Bitters is a first-class tonic; it cured me of chills."

The preparations for the coronation of the Czar of Russia have progressed so far as to the ordering of the throne, which is to be an esthetic affair, costing $8,000.

When Wayne MacVeagh was Attorney General he decided that Apollinaris water was an artificial water, and therefore dutiable. Secretary Folger says it is natural water and must come in free of duty. Moreover, he has refunded $90,000 of duties paid under Mr MacVeagh's decision.

Col. Austen, of the 13th Regiment, who entertained Gen. Lee and staff a few days since, is evidently a bellicose individual, as witness the following, which we clip from yesterday's World:

Col. David E. Austen, of the 13th Regiment, was a passenger in a crowded Flatbush avenue car last evening, when a young man entered and sat down beside him. Col. Austen objected to being crowded, and finally after a few words pushed him off the seat.

The young man attempted to sit down again and Col. Austen struck him a violent blow on the back of the head, remarking: "Well, sir, who will be crowded?" The sudden blow partially staggered the young man, who turned suddenly around as though to return it, when some of the passengers interfered and prevented further violence. Several ladies hurriedly left the car and the conductor was called in, but he refused to interfere, remarking that "If men are hoggish enough to prevent others from sitting down I can't help it." Quiet was restored and the car proceeded.

The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 535 bales.

Silver Plated Spoons and Forks, low prices, at JACOBI'S.

No News and Observer received this morning and hence we are without a report of yesterday's Legislative proceedings.

To-day has been more like Spring than any of its predecessors this year. One could almost feel the sap in the earth stirring beneath the feet.

We acknowledge the courtesy of a call yesterday—two calls, in fact—from our good friend and brother-in-arms, Julius A. Bonitz, of the Goldsboro Messenger, who has been in attendance on the meeting of the Knights of Pythias. We regret that we were absent on both occasions.

The Church Troubles.
We understand that the troubles in Ebenezer Church, (colored) have all been settled. The cases in Court were compromised by a withdrawal of the suits instituted, the parties paying the costs of the Court. The minority, the Devane faction, withdrew altogether from the Church, leaving it in the hands of Preacher White and his supporters. It is said that the seceders will organize a new church organization.

Interesting Figures.
For the information of any of our citizens who may have invested in the February drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery, we publish the lucky numbers drawing the principal prizes. Look at your tickets and see if you held any of the following: No. 57,012, drew the capital prize, $75,000; No. 61,996 drew $25,000; No. 25,605 drew $10,000; Nos. 49,778 and 99,023 drew $6,000; Nos. 6,051, 37,653, 65,986, 81,440 and 83,974 $2,000 each.

A fine assortment of Guns and Pistols at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

Criminal Court.
The following cases were called and disposed of to-day:
Jesse Lanier, embezzlement. The defendant submitted and was sentenced to pay a fine of $15 and costs.

Levi McKay and Kitty Moore, larceny. The defendants in this case submitted and judgment was suspended.

Robert Moore, larceny. Defendant submitted.

Thomas Randall, larceny. Guilty. Three years in the penitentiary.

William Cotton, larceny. Not guilty.

Outrageous.

The conduct of some of the youngsters in this city last night was worse in many respects than we have ever known before. It was not attempted to annoy people by sending scandalous valentines, but their malicious work consisted in throwing large rocks at the different buildings, and in some instances breaking windows, blinds and sashlights, by which many dollars' worth of property was destroyed aside from the annoyance and disturbance to the owners. The offense cannot be charged solely to the colored boys, for in a majority of instances it was the work of white boys, some of whom were old enough, large enough and ugly enough to know better, and who would feel terribly insulted if any one should dare to say they were not gentlemen. The nuisance last night was intolerable, yet we saw no effort made to put a stop to it.

Knights of Pythias.

At yesterday's session of the Grand Lodge memorial resolutions in memory of Joseph Dowdall, of Ohio, Supreme Keeper of Records and Seals, and of Past Chancellors W. B. Orr and W. F. Wenzel, of the city, were submitted and adopted. The Lodge then received and accepted an invitation tendered by Germania Lodge No. 4, to attend a banquet at the Parcell House at 9 o'clock P. M.

The following officers were elected to serve during the ensuing year:
Past Grand Chancellor—John L. H. Missillier, of Lodge No. 8, New Berne.
Grand Chancellor—E. G. Harrell, Lodge No. 3, Raleigh.
Grand Vice Chancellor—W. T. Hollowell, Lodge No. 6, Gold-boro.

Grand Prelate—James W. Moore, Lodge No. 8, New Berne.
Grand Master of Exchequer—R. T. Scannin, Lodge No. 5, Fayetteville.
Grand Keeper of Records and Seals—John L. Dudley, Lodge No. 1, Wilmington.

Grand Master at Arms—J. C. Brewster, Lodge No. 3, Raleigh.
Grand Inner Guard—M. E. Byed—Lodge No. 22, Aversboro.
Grand Outer Guard—J. E. Underwood, Lodge No. 26, Newton Grove.
Supreme Representative for four years—J. A. Bonitz, Lodge No. 6, Goldsboro.

A special order was made for the installation of officers at 10 o'clock this morning, after which the Lodge took a recess until that hour.

The Lodge met according to adjournment at 10 o'clock this morning, and proceeded at once to the installation of the several officers after which it adjourned to meet again at Raleigh on the 2nd Tuesday in February, 1884.

A Celestial Beauty.

Venus is morning star, the brightest and fairest of the throng that grace the morning sky during February. She rises now three hours before the sun, shining with the serene radiance that distinguishes her, and continues to be visible long after the lesser stars have melted away. On the 16th, (to-morrow) at two o'clock in the morning she reaches her grandest western elongation: Here her western course ends. She is 46 degrees 52 minutes west of the sun, and can go no further from him. The inexorable laws that ruler her movements compel her to retrace her steps. It is easy to keep the run of their paths, especially in the case of Venus. No planet in the system presents so many points of interest, or is so closely allied to the planet on which we dwell as Venus. She is our nearest neighbor except the moon, is nearly like the earth in dimensions, in the length of her day and night, in the possession of an atmosphere, and in the probable mountainous condition of her surface. Besides she gratifies our esthetic perceptions, being the most beautiful star the eye beholds, and she is the only planet that is visible in the presence of the noontday sun. She is therefore a most interesting planetary study. Those who were eye-witnesses of her recent transit a hayectangle point at which to commence observation. They saw for themselves the inferior conjunction when Venus passed between the earth and the sun, the transit when, passing over the sun's disc, she changed from an evening to a morning star, deserting the sun's eastern side and appearing upon his western side. Since that time she has been moving westward, rising earlier every morning, passing her period of the greatest brilliancy and turning more of her illuminated surface towards us.

A change occurs to-morrow. She is stationary for a few days and then commences to make her way back towards the sun, for she has passed her western elongation, one of the four prominent points in her path. She will move slowly, retracing her steps towards the sun, until she reaches superior conjunction in September and completes her course as morning star and also completes half her synodic period.

A young girl in Philadelphia who for three years has been a patient sufferer with sore-throat, has been effectually cured by using Dr Bull's Cough Syrup.

Last Night's Banquet.

At 9 o'clock last night the members of the Grand Lodge, K. of P., together with invited guests, the whole numbering nearly or quite 200 persons, sat down to an elegant banquet prepared by "mine host" Perry at the Parcell House under the direction of Germania Lodge K. of P., and at once proceeded to the important duties of the occasion—eating and drinking. After the supper toasts came in order, and the following were offered:

The American Union.—A confederation of States, one and inseparable; may no discordant jars evermore arise to disturb its peace and prosperity. Responded to by H. E. Scott, by letter.

The Old North State.—Heaven's blessings attend her. While we live we will cherish, protect and defend her.

Responded to by Hon. George Davis in a most eloquent and able manner. The City of Wilmington.—May its prosperity in the future even exceed that of the past. Responded to by Hon. W. L. Smith, by letter.

The Masonic Fraternity.—The mother of all secret societies. We respect and honor it as such. Responded to by W. H. Chadbourn by letter.

The Odd Fellows.—Their Motto, Friendship, Love and Truth, may its links never be broken. Responded to by Mr. R. J. Jones, by letter.

The Knights of Honor.—Worthy collaborators in dispensing substantial aid to the widow and orphan. Responded to by Dr. W. J. H. Bellamy in a most eloquent manner.

The Supreme Lodge.—The fountain-head of our beloved Order, may she be as lasting as her principles, dissolving only with eternity's dawn. Responded to by Sup. Rep. O. H. Blocker.

The Grand Lodge.—May its actions ever be such as to increase and strengthen the Order in the Good Old Mother State. Responded to by the Grand Chancellor, J. S. H. Missillier.

The Press.—The mightiest of the mighty means On which the arm of progress leans, Man's noblest mission to advance, His woe assuage, his woe enhance, His rights enforce, his wrongs redress.

Mightiest of the mighty, is the Press Responded to by W. H. Bernard, by letter.

Our German Citizens.—While ever ready to protect the flag of their country and obey its laws, they cannot forget the Fatherland. Responded to by P. C. Jno. Meyer and E. Peschau, Esq, in German.

The Fair Sex.—The only enduring aristocracy—who elect without votes, govern without laws, decide without appeal, and who are never in the wrong, Responded to by Hon. Geo. Davis.
