will prove a humbug and nuisance. Especially will this be so if the commission is made up of politicians and members of the legislature. Will you the Constitution that no member of the legislature shall hold a profitable office? The Democratic party cannot quicker or more effectually dig its own grave than to go on making fat offices for its own members and then filling them with prominent members of the legislature. These men are no more fit for such business than an alligator is to run a steamboat. Experts, scientific engineers, experienced railroad men, such as that able and useful man, Col. S. L. Fremont, are those to make up a Railroad Commission. Is our own Frement to be set aside by W. T. Dortch, James L Robinson, or any small fry politicians of the prominent fined. legislature?
