

The Daily Review.

JOSH. T. JAMES, Editor & Prop. WILMINGTON, N. C. TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 20, 1883.

The Southern Telegraph Company, which was organized under the laws of the State of New York a year ago, with a capital of $5,000,000, has completed lines from Washington to Richmond, Norfolk and Lynchburg, and according to one of its directors, expects to have its lines completed between Washington and New Orleans by September 1, 1883.

The increase in the prosperity of the country is indicated by the New York savings banks, whose aggregate holdings have been augmented during the last three years in the sum of $236,307,784. This is an increase of wealth. The savings banks of the United States now hold $971,070,000 on deposit—representing, as an aggregate, the amount of earnings of labor over and above expenses of living.

The London Times publishes an authoritative statement regarding the interview on Tuesday at Farnborough between the ex-Empress Eugenie and the Prince Jerome Napoleon, which, it says, has cleared up some private misunderstandings existing between the ex-Empress and the Prince, and has led to the formal recognition of the latter as the head of the Bonaparte family.

A French chemist says he can resuscitate a human body after it has been frozen solid for six months. If he can make the thing work it will become fashionable to freeze stiff in December and he thawed out in March. It will save fuel, and one can pass a hard winter and not know that coal has gone up to four dollars a ton.

"I have come to kill you," said a man entering an Arkansas newspaper office, drawing a pistol and confronting the editor. "You published an article derogatory to my character, and it is my duty as a husband and father to kill you."

THE TERRORISTS. What will be the result within twenty years from this time, or even previous to the close of the nineteenth century, of the socialistic agitations in Europe it is hard to forecast.

THE Nihilists, it is said, have given place to the Terrorists; the former were philosophical while the latter are practical. The Nihilists disappeared from Russia in 1875 and these "dreamers," as they have been called, have given place to workers.

It is worth knowing the opinions of the Anglo-Saxon branch of this interesting family on the delicate subjects of the pistol and the knife and the explosive. These are set forth by one Charles W. Oldham, an Englishman and an intimate and devoted friend of the French female fanatic, Louise Michel. He says:

"We aim at revolutionizing the present condition of society. We intend to upset existing institutions and forms of government which do not give expression to the will and are opposed to the welfare of the people; and to bring about a new and happier condition of society, where monarchs, priests and thrones will be no more, where crime and tyranny no more shall live, and where an ennobled and enlightened humanity will work together for the general welfare and the public good, in place of an unknown deity and a useless king. Kings and priests, altars and thrones, crowns and mitres, we regard as the emblem of tyranny and force and fraud in every land and every clime; and we look forward to the time when they shall be swept away never more to torment and tyrannize over human kind."

Mr J C Hester, of Kirtell, N. C., says: "I have found Brown's Iron Bitters to be fully as good a tonic as represented."

PERSONAL. Archbishop McCabe, of Dublin, is slightly better. Gen Grant and wife will sail for Europe next May. Mrs Harriet Lane Johnston's only son is dying in Nice.

M Damala (Sarah Bernhardt's husband) will retire from the stage. He is arranging for the formation of a foreign legion to serve in Africa. Clearly what is one man's meat is another man's poison. Oliver Wendell Holmes said bad air, bad whiskey and irregular habits keep the doctors alive.

Moonshine. Where did the gas man meter? In the cellar, of course. The good baby has his rock early in life; he takes his rye later.

SHORTS. Nashville has ten faro banks, five national banks and three daily papers. "No kiss," he said pleadingly, "no kiss from my darling to night!" "No," she said, emphatically; "no kiss. I hear there's mumps in your family!"

THE BAD AND WORTHLESS. are never emulated or counterfeited. This is especially true of a medicine, and it is positive proof that the remedy imitated is of the highest value.

Answer This. Can you find a case of Bright's Disease of the Kidneys, Diabetes, Urinary or Liver Complaints that is curable, that Hop Bitters has not or cannot cure? Ask your neighbors if they can.

What Seven Could not do. NASHVILLE, Tenn., April 6, 1881. H H WARNER & Co. Sirs—Seven physicians could not do for me what your Safe Kidney and Liver Cure accomplished. Hopelessly sick with kidney diseases, it restored me to perfect health.

MISCELLANEOUS. NOTED MEN! DR. JOHN F. HANCOCK, late President of the National Ph. & M. Association of the United States, says: "Brown's Iron Bitters has a heavy sale, is conceded to be a fine tonic; the character of the manufacturer is a voucher for its purity and medicinal excellence."

DR. JOSEPH ROBERTS, President Baltimore Pharmaceutical College, says: "I endorse it as a fine medicine, reliable as a strengthening tonic, free from alcoholic poisons."

DR. J. FARIS MOORE, PH. D., Professor of Pharmacy, Baltimore Pharmaceutical College, says: "Brown's Iron Bitters is a safe and reliable medicine, positively free from alcoholic poisons, and can be recommended as a tonic for use among those who oppose alcohol."

DR. EDWARD EARICKSON, Secretary Baltimore College of Pharmacy, says: "I endorse it as an excellent medicine, a good digestive agent, and a non-intoxicant in the fullest sense."

Dr. RICHARD SAPIINGTON, one of Baltimore's oldest and most reliable physicians, says: "All who have used it praise its standard virtues, and the well-known character of the house which makes it a sufficient guarantee of its being all that is claimed, for they are men who could not be induced to offer anything else but a reliable medicine for public use."

A Druggist Cured. Boonsboro, Md., Oct. 22, 1880. Gentlemen: Brown's Iron Bitters cured me of a bad attack of indigestion and fullness in the stomach. Having tested it, I take pleasure in recommending it to my customers, and am glad to say it gives entire satisfaction to all.

MISCELLANEOUS. THE SUN. NEW YORK, 1883. More people have read THE SUN during the year just now passing than ever before. It was first printed, and no other newspaper published on this side of the earth has been bought and read in any year by so many men and women.

We are credibly informed that people buy, read, and like THE SUN for the following reasons, among others: Because its news columns present in attractive form and with the greatest possible accuracy whatever has interest for humankind—the events, the deeds and misdeeds, the wisdom, the philosophy, the notable folly, the wit in sense, the improving nonsense—all the news of the busiest world at present revolving in space.

Because people have learned that in its remarks concerning persons and affairs THE SUN makes a practice of telling them the exact truth to the best of its ability three hundred and sixty-five days in the year, before election as well as after, about the whales as well as about the small fish, in the case of a dissent as plainly and fearlessly as when supported by general approval. THE SUN has absolutely no purpose to serve, save the information of the readers and the furtherance of the common good.

Because it is everybody's newspaper. No man is so humble that THE SUN is indifferent to his welfare and his rights. No man is so rich that it can allow injustice to be done to him. No man, no association of men, is powerful enough to be exempt from the strict application of its principles of right and wrong. Because in politics it has fought for a dozen years, without intermission and sometimes all alone among newspapers, the right that is required in the recent overthrow of the popular verdict against Robesonian and other corrupt government. No matter what party is in power, THE SUN stands and will continue to stand like a rock for the interests of the people against the ambition of bores of the church, against the ambition of monopolists, and the dishonest schemes of public robbers.

TERMS TO MAIL SUBSCRIBERS. The several editions of THE SUN are sent by mail, postpaid, as follows: DAILY—56 cents a month, $6.50 a year; with Sunday edition, $1.00 a month, $12.00 a year. WEEKLY—$1 a year. Eight pages of the best matter of the daily issues; an Agricultural Department, with all the latest market reports, and literary, scientific, and domestic intelligence make THE WEEKLY SUN the newspaper for the farmer's household.
