THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

EVENING SESSION

February 26, 1883.

To amend chapter 191, laws 1881, also chapter 216, laws of 1881.

Mr Green, of New Hanover, to amend as follows: "Provided that the country wagons and carts shall not be required at the city of Wilmington later than 11 o'clock, a. m., after which time the said wagons and carts may be driven through the streets of Wilmington for the purpose of selling the remaining marketable products.

Mr Green said that the carts and wagons had heretofore been permitted to take the perishable articles through the city to sell to families and he hoped this old privilege would not now be taken away.

Mr Stanford opposed the amendment. He had seen numbers of carts and wagons on the streets of Wilmington at all hours with perishable produce in them. Everyone knew this would tend to breed disease.

To incorporate Mt. St. Joseph Academy at Hickory, Catawba county. Third reading.

SENATE.

FORTY-EIGHTH DAY.

Mr Alexander, petition from citizens of New Hanover, in regard to the no fence law.

Mr Woodhouse, to amend law relative to the compensation of servants of the various State departments.

Mr Alexander, to prevent live stock from running at large in the county of New Hanover.

Mr Graham, to authorize the commissioners of Richmond county to pay certain school claims.

Mr Payne, to amend laws of 1846 '47, relative to Richmond Academy, at Rockingham, N. C.

Mr Womack, to amend private laws of 1880, chapter 34, changing fish commission to the commission of agriculture.

Bill to amend the charter of the town of Shoe Heel came up on its third reading.

Mr McLean offered an amendment requiring sixty days' residence continuously in the town before a man could vote, and sent forward two memorials against the bill, which were read.

The amendment was adopted and the bill passed third reading.

House resolution asking the Chief Justice and the Associate Justices of the Supreme Court to give the General Assembly their opinion as to the day in March, 1883, on which the sixty days' session, specified in section 28, article 2, of the constitution, will expire, came up for concurrence.

Mr Dortch said that this resolution amounted to asking the Supreme Court to say that we were entitled to pay for Sunday. It was not a matter of public interest. We were entitled to pay for sixty days, and if we did not get through it was the duty of every Senator here to remain longer, as was done two and four years ago. Any member unwilling to do this was unworthy of his seat. He moved to table the resolution. It was tabled.

Bill to provide for the levying and collection of taxes—the machinery act. Mr Alexander said the most material changes were that it made three assessors instead of one, and prevented the uses of public money for private purposes.

The finance committee offered amendments preventing the sheriff and county treasurers from using the public money for private purposes.

Mr Pinnix suggested to consider the amendments "seriatim." This was done. These amendments, more or less, all applied to the sheriff and county treasurers. Another amendment provides to indict that class of able bodied persons able to work but won't, and who won't pay their taxes, making it a misdemeanor to be fined double their tax and allowing them to work it out on the roads if they fail for six months after they are returned on the insolvent lists, and an amendment from Mr Womack to this, making the chairman of the Board of county commissioners a prosecutor before the justice of the peace.

The amendments were adopted and the bill then passed its third reading.

Bill to repeal the local prohibition law in certain localities and to prohibit the sale of intoxicating liquors in certain other localities (the omnibus bill) passed third reading.

Bill to authorize the establishment of graded schools in the State. Passed second reading—ayes 31; nays 1.

Bill concerning the inspection of timber in Wilmington. Passed second reading.

Bill to prevent the running at large of live stock in the county of New Hanover. Passed third reading.

Mr Scott, of New Hanover, moved to recommit.

Mr Payne said that the motion of the Senator from New Hanover to refer the bill to the committee on propositions and grievances evidently showed a purpose to antagonize this bill. Such a course would work delay, and end in a defeat. He was assured by large petitions received from landmen of New Hanover, that the passage of such a law was necessary, and was demanded by the people of that county. He hoped the bill would pass its second reading.

Mr Scott, of New Hanover, asked the yeas and nays. Ordered.

Bill to appropriate fifty dollars a year for the penitentiary Sunday School passed third reading.

Bill to relieve the sureties of John McArthur, late treasurer of Duplin county passed third reading.

Bill making appropriation to the insane asylum came up, and was discussed at length. An amendment to reduce the amount for the completion of the asylum at Morganton from $35,000 per year to $25,000, was discussed by Messrs Pemberton, Boykin, Battle, Linney, Watson, Payne, Clark, Webb, Womack, Pinnix. It was lost. The bill then passed.

Mr Hill offered an amendment redacing the appropriation for the asylum at Raleigh from $58,000 to $50,000. Pending argument, the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

The gentlemen from Alamance and Pender were granted leave of absence on account of sickness.

Bill to protect fish in Lane's Creek, in Anson and Union counties.

To submit to a majority of the justices of Bladen county the working of the roads in said county by taxation.

To incorporate the Carolina Central Railroad Company.

The unfinished business of last night's session was resumed, being the bill providing for working the roads by taxation. It passed its second reading.

The House went into committee of the whole for the consideration of the bill to raise revenue, which was read by sections.

Section 25 (relating to the merchants' tax) produced much debate, several amendments thereto being offered looking to the reduction of the tax.

During the discussion the hour of adjournment was announced; the committee arose and reported progress.

The special order, the Parker-Peoples election case, was taken up, and discussed by Messrs McLou, Simmons and Peoples. A vote was not had until nearly midnight and Mr Parker was seated.

Mr Henry McLowhorn, Vanceburg, N. C. says: "I have used Brown's Iron Bitters and was greatly pleased with it."
