News and Observer. THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

SENATE. NIGHT SESSION.

February 28. Bill against free passes came up as unfinished business of this morning. Mr. Watson's was the first amendment pending. There was another amendment of Mr. Watson's making it untawful tor any legislative, judicial orexecutive officer, etc., to receive a pass.

Mr Payne sent forward a substitute to strike out all after the enacting clause and insert: That hereafter all judges of the necessity for the appropriation, and the hereafter all judges of the necessity for the appropriation, and the hall were sent for. From the Supreme and Superior Courts in the bill passed its third reading. the Supreme and Superior Courts in this State, solicitors, State officers and members of the General Assembly shall in addition to their oath of office take consciidate the insurance laws of North talked freely to his pastor. Rev. Mr. List of Vessels in port March 2; the following: I-do solemnly swear | Carolina. that I will not receive any gift, gratuity or free pass over any railroad, steamboat, etc., etc.

Mr Toon considered the bill an assault on the virtue, honesty and patriotism of the best citizens in the Statethe leaders in society and politics. But he blamed no man if he felt himself weak enough to be influenced by a railroad pass for voting for such a bill. So far as a Senator's . constituents can trust him he may be able to trust himself. The title of the bill ought to be the bill, as he was informed, had been changed to that of an "act for the bene- agreed upon. Bill passed second readfit of railroads and their attorneys"-he ingconsidered it as demagoguery in an had his price

Mr Dortch said it was generally charged throughout the United States and believed by a great many persons, and he was one who believed that railroad monopolies were governing this Amendments adopted and bill passed country. He never wanted to see North Carolina controlled and corrupted again by railroads as she was in 1868. He believed every judge on the bench in North Carolina was pure now, and every member of the Legislature swamp lands in Duplin and Bladen the same, and now let us keep them caused much discussion. pure.
