THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VII. WILMINGTON, N. C. SATURDAY, MARCH 3, 1883. NO. 55

The report of the Bureau of Statistics shows that 70,759,584 gallons of whiskey were consumed in this country last year. The prohibition publications assert that all this whiskey is taken down by men who love it as a beverage. The Louisville Courier-Journal asserts that this is an error. Two-fifths of the amount are used in the arts and manufactures, leaving about 45,000,000 gallons for the drinking purposes of 11,000,000 males over twenty-one years old. Allowing for all the moonshine whiskey made, the average consumption per head is only four gallons, which is not half the quantity consumed in many European countries. Americans, however, are heavy consumers of beer. Last year they drank 525,000,000 gallons, which gives them each about fifty gallons a year.

Good style is good sense, good health, good energy and good will, but a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is a good benediction that suffering humanity has already learned to appreciate.

We submit that the forenoon of Saturday, on a blustering March day, is not the best time in the world to set the street brigade to sweeping up the dust on prominent thoroughfares. Before or after business hours would be better.

Mr. B. W. Cobb, representing the Goldsboro Messenger, arrived in the city this morning on the steamer D. B. Murchison from Fayetteville, where he has been in attendance at Cumberland County Superior Court, in the interest of his paper. His is in rather feeble health and very much emaciated, weighing now only about 240 pounds.

Personal.

We had a very pleasant call to-day from Revs. Frank H. Wood, of the Front Street M. E. Church, and J. C. Crisp, of the M. E. Church, who is stationed on the Topical Circuit during the present conference year. The latter gentleman will occupy the pulpit of the Front Street Church at the usual hours to-morrow.

Returned.
 Mr. Julius Hahn returned from the Northern markets yesterday whether he had been in the interest of his customers. He is now busy opening the new goods and the sidewalk in front of his store is piled high with dry goods cases. He will talk through the Review in a few days.

For Pocket Knives or Table Cutlery, go to JACOB'S Hardware Depot.

Our Lawyers.

Hon. D. L. Russell returned from Raleigh yesterday, where he had been in attendance on the Supreme Court. Maj. D. J. Devane returned Thursday, and Hon. George Davis, Hon. D. K. McRae, Maj. C. M. Stedman and Mr. T. W. Strange are still in Raleigh, but may all return to-night.

Supreme Court.

In this court yesterday appeals from the third judicial district were called and causes disposed of as follows:

John London, administrator, vs. Wilmington & Weldon Railroad Company, from New Hanover; argued by McRae & Strange for the plaintiff, and George Davis and Stedman & Latimer for the defendant.

Dr. Patterson.

We notice in the Galveston News that Rev. Dr. Patterson, formerly of this city, but now Rector of the Episcopal Church in Tyler, Smith county, Texas, has been called to the charge of Grace Church, Galveston. It is not stated whether he will accept or decline, but if he does accept, he will be as the News says, socially and religiously an acquisition to the Island City.

Hare and Hounds.

A countryman brought a rabbit here this forenoon for sale and a number of colored boys "chimed in" and bought it. It was then turned loose at the corner of Front and Market and several dogs set on it. Three or four tussels were had with the hare which finally escaped the dogs but was recaptured and was at last claimed by Louis Le Grand who proposes to add it to his menagerie. There was big fun on the streets for a while.

Capt. Bunting's Injuries.

We are glad to learn that the injuries sustained by Capt. J. M. Bunting, who was so badly injured at Thomasville, Ga., by the sudden moving of the train of which he was conductor, are not so serious as was at first feared. It is the right foot which was crushed, and it was not amputated, as was at first stated, and there are hopes now of being able to save it. Mr. Jos. Bunting, of this city, received a postal this morning from his brother, written by himself, which was of a more hopeful tone than any previous information received here. Capt. Bunting will be removed to Wilmington as soon as his condition will permit of it.

The Lecture Last Night.

Prof. Henry E. Shepherd, President of Charleston (S. C.) College, lectured last night to a large audience in Tilden Hall, the use of which had been kindly tendered by Miss Amy M. Bradley for the purpose. The speaker was introduced to the audience by Col. James G. Barr, President of the Wilmington Historical and Scientific Society, in a neat, appropriate and happy conceived speech. The subject selected for the occasion was "Language," which was treated in an original, entertaining and instructive manner. Those who anticipated a rather dry dissertation upon the science of language were happily disappointed, for it was a highly agreeable discussion of the English language from the days of Queen Elizabeth to the present time. He manifested an intimacy with all of the most prominent authors which could only be attained by close, thorough and earnest study.

Prof. Shepherd is a North Carolinian by birth. He has a fine presence, is above the medium height, has a frank expression of countenance and a decidedly intellectual head. He was at perfect ease with his subject and showed that he had kept up with the literary thought of the times, by which he was enabled to furnish a rare intellectual treat.

The Wadesboro Times estimates that there are 106 newspapers published in North Carolina, or, one paper to every 14,000 people. He credits Wilmington with but four, when there are seven in reality published here, the Morning Star, the Weekly Star, the DAILY REVIEW, the WILMINGTON JOURNAL, the Presbyterian, the Afro-American, the Presbyterian and the Post.

Dr. Percival.
 It seems to be uncertain, after all, whether Dr. Percival will come to Wilmington. At the last accounts his physician had advised him against removing to the "malarial climate of the Cape Fear" with the assurance that his health would not permit of a residence here, and his church had also refused to accept his resignation for the same reason. This is both cool and clever, coming as it does from a city built mostly on made ground, with a cypress swamp in the rear and with a river in front several feet higher than the level of the streets. Of course the facts as regards the healthfulness of our city by the sea, which challenges comparison with any town of its size in the United States, have been transmitted and it is hoped and believed that Dr. Percival will yet come to Wilmington.

Getting Ready.
 The saw mill of Mr. J. W. Taylor is being pushed as rapidly towards completion as circumstances will permit. All the machinery except the saw carriage, which is expected in a few days, has arrived and is being placed in position under the directions of Capt. F. A. McMillan, who has long experience as a practical machinist well fitted for the task. The building and woodwork connected with the machinery is being constructed under the supervision of Mr. G. M. Altfer. The main portion of the mill is 120 feet long, 25 feet wide and two stories in height, with a one story shed attached which is 60 feet long and 20 feet wide. There are two engines, the largest of which is of 60 horse power and will be used in sawing lumber, and the other is of 35 horse power, which will be used in running the planing mill. When completed the mill in all its appointments will be one of the best in this section. It is expected that it will be ready for operation by the first of April, or very soon after that time.

Bishop Northrop.
 The Right Reverend Bishop Northrop arrived here this morning on the train from Charleston, S. C., and will remain here for several days. He has received the official announcement, from Cardinal Simeoni, President of the Propaganda College, and of the Bureau of American Affairs, of his appointment to the See of Charleston, S. C., and of his retention of the Vicariate of North Carolina. The papal briefs, or official papers, have not as yet been received, but are expected by post daily. No arrangements as to his installation in Charleston can be made until the papal briefs shall have arrived. The ceremony of his introduction to the See of Charleston will very likely not take place until after Easter Sunday. The Most Reverend Archbishop of Baltimore, with several other Bishops of this ecclesiastical province, will grace the ceremony of introduction. We understand that this appointment was made at the very earnest entreaty of the late Rt. Rev. Bishop Lynch, before his death.

The two Carolina will be thus under the administration of the one Bishop, who will hold the See of Charleston and the Vicariate of North Carolina. Whilst the people of the North Carolina feel gratified at his appointment to the See of Charleston, they no doubt feel a little jealous at the division of his labors between the two States.

The Bishop has been suffering for some days with a severe bilious attack, and has not fully recovered, although we are happy to learn that he is rapidly improving, and with a few days rest he will be fully restored to health.

A Chase and an Escape.
 There was quite an excitement on the wharf to-day caused by an attempt of Sheriff W. J. Sutton, of Bladen county, to capture a prisoner who had escaped from jail at Elizabethtown some four or five years ago. Although the sheriff had had an idea where the culprit was, to-day was the first time when they were near enough together to make an attempt at re-capture a probable success. Seeing him to-day on the wharf, however, the sheriff went for him and succeeded in catching him by the coat-tail, but this article of apparel was not strong enough to stand the struggles of the culprit to get clear, and it parted company with the rest of the coat and its wearer, who left that locality with amazing celerity. Unfortunately for the sheriff, his watch fell from his pocket in the struggle, and stopping to secure that, gave the culprit the advantage, and he was out of sight in a moment. He had not been captured at the last accounts, and there was no clue as to where he had hidden himself.

Death of Capt. James Lynch.
 We regret to learn of the death of Capt. James Lynch, for a number of years connected with the W. & W. Railroad, which occurred at the residence of his father, Judge Lynch, at Weldon, yesterday. His disease was consumption, with which he had been afflicted for a number of years. Mr. Lynch was for a considerable time a telegraphist in the employ of the railroad and was also ticket agent at the Front Street Depot for awhile, after which he was a conductor on a through freight train for some months, a position which he was compelled to resign on account of his feeble health and the inroads of disease. He has two brothers now in railroad employ; one stationed at Florence, S. C., and the other in the railroad office in this city. The deceased was about 22 years of age, and was a man of excellent principles, was highly esteemed by his many acquaintances and associates, and had the entire trust and confidence of the railroad authorities whom he faithfully served.
