

The Daily Review.

JOSH. T. JAMES, Editor & Prop. WILMINGTON, N. C. FRIDAY, MARCH 9, 1883.

An analysis of the final vote on the revenue tariff bill as reported by the committee of conference shows that of the 152 affirmative votes 17 were Democrats, 2 Greenbackers and the remainder Republicans.

Recent investigations into the density of population of Paris, as published in the Globe, of that city, develops the fact that there are 68,126 houses, with a population of 2,269,000 inhabitants, giving an average of thirty-three persons to each house.

The sum of $13,000,000 voted for the reconstruction of the fortresses of Strasburg and Metz, according to the Cologne Gazette, has all been expended and a further sum of $150,000 will be asked for soon.

Ex-Senator Ferry is probably the dearest duck in the political mud-hole. Cassius M. Clay attributes sunstoks as well as the floods to the destruction of forests.

A New York letter says: "Democratic members of Congress are already, on arrival home, giving notice that the new tariff bill 'settles nothing,' and that 'the whole thing will have to be gone over again' at the next session, when, with an undisputed Democratic majority in the House the Protectionists, as such, will have to stand aside and make way for a larger measure of free trade."

It is evident that the Charleston News and Courier, one of the most prominent newspapers in the entire Union, does not believe that a good field hand is spoiled when you educate the negro.

The fools are not all dead yet. A week or two ago he editor of the Baton Rouge Chronicle, an obscure Georgia paper, bearing a queer resemblance, in name at least, to the Baton Rouge Gazette, immortalized in Pickwick, published a grave "leader" on the question whether it is right to allow a negro to subscribe to a newspaper.

On a tombstone in the Isle of Wight is inscribed: To the memory of Miss Bertha Grin; She was so pure within, She cracked the shell of her earthly skin And hatched herself a cherubim.

Devonshire furnishes another equally good: Here lies John Meadow. Who passed away like a shadow, N. B.—His name was Field, but it would not rhyme.

Best ever made, Emory's Little Cathartic Pills, pleasant to take, sugar coated, no griping; only 15 cents a box of Druggists or by mail, Standard Cure Co., 114 Nassau Street, New York.

SHORTS.

There was a young lady in Worcester Who could crow quite as well as rooster. She could whistle and sing, Do most anything That boys can, except That she wasn't adept At climbing with no one to bolster.

The State of Colorado is in condition now to pay off its indebtedness, which at most did not exceed a few hundred thousand.

Three Senatorial excursions are getting ready to travel. One will investigate the Mississippi river, the second will inquire further into the relations between capital and labor, and the third wants to examine into the condition of the Yellowstone Park.

Quick complete cure, all annoying Kidney, Bladder and Urinary Diseases. $1. Druggists.
