

The Daily Review.

FRIDAY, MARCH 9, 1883.

The Daily Review has the largest bona fide circulation, of any newspaper published, in the city of Wilmington.

News and Observer.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

SENATE.

NIGHT SESSION.

TUESDAY, March 6, 1883.

Bill to raise revenue up as special order.

One of the committee amendments provides that the county commissioners shall levy no tax upon the liquor merchant, (leaving the license tax, retailers less than a quart, $30, from a quart to give gallons, $50 over five gallons, $500, sufficiently high, and that the revenue raised from this system would be greater than by the last.

Bill passed second reading. The Senate concurred in the House amendments to the bill as to voting places in Wilmington, requiring the lots to be laid off and the blocks numbered in large letters and advertised in the papers.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

NIGHT SESSION.

WEDNESDAY, March 7, 1883.

To regulate the partition of real estate between tenants in common, third reading.

To protect the farmers of this State, third reading.

To prohibit the sale of liquors within one mile of Mt. Tabor church, Columbus county, third reading.

To prohibit taking oysters from Myrtle Grove Sound, in New Hanover county, third reading.

Relative to fishing in White Oak and New rivers, in Onslow county, third reading.

To establish a public ferry across Waccamaw river, in Columbus county, near Fireway, third reading.

To incorporate the Israel and Priscilla Benevolent Society of Wilmington, third reading.

To authorize the commissioners of Richmond county to pay certain school orders, third reading.

To amend the charter of the town of Laurinburg, Richmond county, third reading.

To change the time of holding court in the fourth judicial district, third reading.

To provide for the levying and collection of taxes. Referred to the finance committee.

Bill to raise revenue.

SENATE.

FIFTY-FIFTH DAY.

WEDNESDAY, March 7, 1883.

Bill passed third reading. Bill to establish graded school in Magnolia, Duplin county, passed second reading—yeas 26, nays none.

Bill to incorporate the Yanceyville Grand United Order of Benevolent Number Tens, passed third reading.

Bill to change the time of holding the courts of the fourth judicial district. It gives additional terms to Cumberland, Robeson and Bladen counties.

Mr McLean called the previous question, and the bill passed second reading.

The bill passed its third reading. Bill to create a railroad commission came up as special order.

Mr Scott, of New Hanover, called for reading of the bill. It was read. Pretty much the Pinix "minority" bill.

Mr Pinix explained that the only difference between this and the minority report of the Senate was as to the salary, from $3,500 to $1,500, and that the commissioners may in their discretion regulate freights and fares; and that the schedule may be taken as prima facie instead of sufficient evidence, as in the old bill.

The question first was on Mr McLean's amendment as to commissioners apply their powers to regulating freights and fares of the railroads in the State.

The yeas and nays were ordered. The vote was as follows: Yeas—25; Nays—16.

Mr Mebane's amendment to elect the commissioners by the people. Ayes and nays asked. Ordered. Ayes 10, nays 31, so the amendment was adopted.

At the night session the Senate passed the railroad bill, after a long debate, ayes 31, nays 9, with an amendment giving power to regulate freights and fares.

Resolution authorizing the trustees of the public library to furnish records touching the colonial history of this State, passed third reading.

Bill for the completion and furnishing of the Eastern Insane Asylum, at Goldsboro, passed third reading. It appropriates $2,500.

Bill to revise and consolidate the public school law.

Mr Pemberton stated that the joint committee had agreed on that bill in the shape it was; they had much trouble; it retains the office of country superintendent and cuts down his pay to $2 a day and restricts powers.

Different Senators voted the superintendents' pay $3, and offered amendments to have it apply to Wake and Mecklenburg, Bladen, Henderson, Yancey, etc.

All the amendments were voted down and the bill passed as it came from the House and reported by Mr Pemberton, the chairman of the committee.

The following were elected members of the State Board of Agriculture by districts: 1. R W Wharton; 2. A G Brooks; 3. J A Oates; 4. W F Green; 5. L W Anderson; 6. John Robinson; 7. A Leazar; 8. Burwell Blanton; 9. C D Smith.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Mr Stanford, bill to change the time of holding the Superior Courts of Pender and New Hanover counties.

The bill to revise and consolidate the public school laws came up as special order.

The committee's bill passed its second reading.

Upon its third reading, Mr Green, of New Hanover, offered to amend section 52 by giving teachers of third grade $15 per month, teachers of second grade $35, and teachers of first grade $40 per month. Lost. Bill passed its third reading.

In regard to the draining of swamp lands in Duplin and Pender counties. Passed second reading.

SENATE.

NIGHT SESSION.

WEDNESDAY, March 7, 1883.

The first question was the amendment of the Senator from Guilford, that the commission should regulate freights and fares. Adopted.

Mr Payne's amendment to section 3: Whenever in the judgment of the railroad commission it shall appear that any corporation has violated any constitutional provision of law, or unjustly discriminates in its charges for passenger fare and freight, or refuse to comply with the recommendation of the commission, he shall give notice in writing to such corporation, and if the violation or neglect is continued after notice, the commission may present the facts to the Attorney General, who is authorized to institute necessary proceedings; was adopted.

Bill came up on its third and final reading and passed, 32 to 9.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

EVENING SESSION.

WEDNESDAY, March 7, 1883.

To prevent the destruction of game in New Hanover county, third reading.

To cede to the United States certain wharves in Wilmington, third reading.

Special order, for the completion of the Eastern Insane Asylum—($2,500 for the new wing)—third reading.

The report of the teller on the election of justices of the peace was received.

Mr Glenn, a resolution—the Senate concurring—that this General Assembly will adjourn sine die on Friday the 9th of March, A. D., 1883, at 2 p. m. Adopted.

SENATE.

FIFTY-SIXTH DAY.

THURSDAY, March 8, 1883.

Mr Alexander, as chairman of the finance committee, reported that the conference on the bill to raise revenue had concurred in all of the Senate amendments save the one concerning marriage license. The report was adopted.

Bill to establish a graded school at Magnolia, in Duplin county, passed its third reading.

Mr Scott, of New Hanover, bill to amend chapter 23, Battle's Revisal.

Bill to pay Confederate soldiers not worth a thousand dollars who have lost limbs—knee, $50 below, or for an arm off.

Senators asked information as to how much the appropriation would be before they could vote for it.

Mr Pemberton said he was informed in the House that it would take $30,000 a year. He explained that the bill provides that the sheriff, the clerk of the court and the chairman of the county commissioners should constitute a board to pass upon who of these men should be entitled to it.

Mr Battle said he hoped the bill would pass, it had all merit, and it hadn't been for the soldiers—we would have had no war. (Laughter.)

Mr Watson offered an amendment making it the duty of the county commissioners to ascertain in each county the number of soldiers of the late war who would come within this pension list, and first report the number of same to the Secretary of State. He said we would then be prepared to know what to do, and not have to put the garment with no idea of what to fit. He said if we were able he didn't think the bill even went far enough, and that it ought to be made an annual fund.

The vote was taken on Mr Watson's amendment. It was adopted by a rising vote.

Motions to reconsider and points of order were made. Bill passed second reading.

The effort of the friends of the original bill as it came from the House was to get the bill with the amendment, which they considered would kill it, on third reading, and then amend so as to strike out that amendment and pass the original bill, but it failed and went to the calendar.

Mr Dortch, bill supplemental to the Code, passed its third reading.

Mr Dortch, resolution that the two Houses take a recess at 12 m., on Saturday 10th day of March, 1883, to Monday at 11 a. m., the 12th day of March, 1883, and that the two Houses adjourn sine die Monday at 12 m.

Mr Morehead was in favor of amending so as to take the recess from Friday at 2:30 p. m. instead of Saturday.

The resolution as amended was adopted.

A message from the House stated that it had heard that the bill reorganizing the Board of Agriculture had not yet been ratified, and if so, that it would not be proper to go into an election of the members of the board at the designated hour.

Mr Scott, of New Hanover, made an earnest appeal to the Senate to take up his bill preventing the magistrates in Wilmington from deputizing officers and put it on its read nays.

The bill was taken up and amended only to apply to the counties of New Hanover, Craven, Mecklenburg and Wake, and passed its third reading.

Resolution authorizing the trustees of the public library to furnish records touching the colonial history of this State, passed third reading.

Bill for the completion and furnishing of the Eastern Insane Asylum, at Goldsboro, passed third reading. It appropriates $2,500.

Bill to revise and consolidate the public school law.

Mr Pemberton stated that the joint committee had agreed on that bill in the shape it was; they had much trouble; it retains the office of country superintendent and cuts down his pay to $2 a day and restricts powers.

Different Senators voted the superintendents' pay $3, and offered amendments to have it apply to Wake and Mecklenburg, Bladen, Henderson, Yancey, etc.

All the amendments were voted down and the bill passed as it came from the House and reported by Mr Pemberton, the chairman of the committee.

The following were elected members of the State Board of Agriculture by districts: 1. R W Wharton; 2. A G Brooks; 3. J A Oates; 4. W F Green; 5. L W Anderson; 6. John Robinson; 7. A Leazar; 8. Burwell Blanton; 9. C D Smith.

The consideration of this bill took up the balance of the morning session.

STATE NEWS.

Statesville American: Hoffman Bros., of this place, shipped to one firm in New York, during last month, 6,968 dozen eggs, and to Richmond and Raleigh, as many more, making in all fully 15,000 dozen. They shipped upwards of 1,500 dozen in one day, and have now ready 3,000 dozen.

Goldsboro Messenger: The Hons. W. S. O'B. Robinson and Geo. T. Watson are in Washington with Col. Humphrey, (we suppose as sponsors in a political sense to the latter) giving their weight and influence to Col. H. in his fight of Maj. Grant and in opposition to the removal of the post office to the Opera House from the Humphrey building.

Chatham Record: Dr. Peter B. Hatch graduated last week at the College of Physicians and Surgeons at Baltimore, and has returned home prepared "to kill or cure."—Mr. Wm. Williams, of New Hope township, killed last week two wild turkeys at one shot with his rifle, at a distance of 85 yards. The ball went through the neck of one and into the body of the other.

News and Observer: A revival is in progress at Elenton Street Methodist church. —Up to midnight last night nothing had been done as to the receivership of the A. & N. C. R. R. —Mr. R. W. King, long a member of the Legislature and a prominent citizen of Lenoir county, died yesterday at his home near Kingston. —The remains of Col. Turner arrived last night from Georgia, under escort of Lieut. Mullin and Sergeant Jordan, of the Raleigh Light Infantry.

Wadesboro Times: A destructive fire occurred Sunday night upon the premises of the late John S. Little, consuming the stables, barn, out-houses, &c., to the number of five or six. The fire is supposed to be the work of an incendiary. No insurance. —The Methodist congregation here have purchased Mrs. M. J. Ruscoe's place, familiarly known as the "old Buck Tavern," on the corner of Green and Morran streets, and will begin in a few weeks the erection of their handsome new brick church. The building will be about 40 by 63, entirely of brick, and will have a seating capacity of 500.
