

The Daily Review.

JOSH. T. JAMES, Editor & Prop.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

SATURDAY, MARCH 10, 1883.

Published at the Postoffice at Wilmington, N. C., as second-class matter.

Judge Black is said to have a quaint and peculiar status with the United States Supreme Court.

From the eighteenth annual report of the trustees of the Peabody bequests in London it appears that 7,829 rooms occupied by 14,604 persons have been provided for the laborers of the metropolis.

According to the Philadelphia Times the Bessemer steel makers of the country are now threatened with a new peril.

Mr. Frank Wilkerson, a correspondent of the New York Sun, who for several months has been misrepresenting the South and calumniating her people through the columns of that paper.

According to a not very intelligent contraband now parading up and down the Southern States and writing letters to our esteemed contemporary the Sun.

Ex-Speaker Keifer is a dead duck, if ever there was one. Schuyler Colfax is the only man in this country who has ever stepped down and out from a parliamentary position more to the gratification of his party friends as well as his opponents.

High sugar-coated: A New York divorce lawyer's advertisement reads: "Hymeneal incompatibilities as a specialty, carefully adjusted."

A Pennsylvania paper tells of a family which has been poisoned by eating pie containing arsenic. It seems like a work of supererogation to put arsenic in pie.

Ex-Gov. Sprague, of Rhode Island, has been quite successful in revolutionizing himself (if such a phrase may be used) and is now in a fair way to revolutionize the State.

days, taken to himself another wife in the person of a Virginia lady of culture, refinement and social worth.

In his efforts to revolutionize the State he has announced himself as an independent candidate for Governor on a "free suffrage" platform and has greatly alarmed many of the leading political public men there.

"Wells' Health Renewer" restores health and vigor, cures Dyspepsia, Impotence, Sexual Debility. $1.

There is a young man in Cincinnati who is death on obituary heard lines. He has perpetrated his own fame and that of his paper in the following headlines to its dispatches announcing the adjournment of Congress:

DEAD. BEYOND ALL FEAR OF RESURRECTION WITH ALL ITS CORRUPTION AND ITS SIN UPON ITS HEAD.

SHORTS. The report that winter wheat throughout Central Illinois has been winter killed is denied.

The St. Gothard railway is a financial success. The profits since last June, when the line was opened, have been $700,000.

"I hope," said the Boston mother, "my little daughter will forgive the naughty girl who struck her."

The peanut crop of Tennessee last year is estimated at 350,000 bushels. Virginia raised 1,500,000 bushels, and North Carolina 150,000 bushels.

The cause of the woman suffragists makes slow progress. The Massachusetts Legislature has rejected the bill granting women the right to vote at municipal elections by a vote of 137 to 60.

Mr. Henry C. Pool, Newbern, N. C., says: "I received great benefit from Brown's Iron Bitters in general debility."

MOONSHINE. The New York Commercial Advertiser suddenly remarks that: "The man who bangs his hair hasn't enough sense to blow out his brains, even if he possessed any."

A Pennsylvania paper tells of a family which has been poisoned by eating pie containing arsenic. It seems like a work of supererogation to put arsenic in pie.

An African traveler gives a thrilling account of a "vegetable vampire"—a tree which envelops a person with its branches and strangles him to death.

One lawyer in Des Moines, Iowa, has put through 189 divorces cases within a year. The fare to Des Moines is about seven dollars.—Chicago Tribune.

Weak lungs, spitting of blood, consumption, and kindred affections, cured without physician. Address for treatise, with two stamps, World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

PERSONAL.

Neal Dow is not hopeful of any temperance legislation by the present Maine Legislature.

Secretary Lincoln says none of the river and harbor works will suffer by the failure of the river and harbor bill.

Governor Ireland, of Texas, announces that the city of San Antonio will hereafter care for the historic Alamo property.

A correspondent of the New York Sun says that Michael Davitt, now in Kilmainham, is the mysterious "Number One."

Hanlan confirms the statement that he is to row Kennedy a three-mile race at Point of Pines, near Boston, on Decoration Day, high water, for a purse of $1,000.

Col. Tom Ochiltree is rather unfortunate. Treasurer Gillfillan says he shall not pay him a cent, until his accounts with the government as marshal of Texas are settled.

Hortense Schneider is said to be tired of married life, and seeking to regain her freedom. The plain coronet of the Comtesse de Bionne does not suit her as well as did her glories as Grand Duchesse of Gerolstein.

Senator Aldrich, at the request of Senator Morrill, of the Senate finance committee, has procured a statement, as near as can be shown, of the reduction of revenue from the sugar tariff, under the new tariff bill.

The Duke of Newcastle, who was lately in Philadelphia, is now staying in Florida, and in the spring he is going to the Western States and San Francisco. He may possibly return home by way of India.

Best ever made, Emory's Little Cathartic Pills, pleasant to take, sugar coated; no gripping; only 15 cents a box of Druggists or by mail, Standard Cure Co., 114 Nassau Street, New York.
