STATE NEWS.

Statesville Landmark: Messrs Wallace Bros have broken ground on Church street. just .n rear of their botanical depot, for another root and herb warehouse which will eclipse in size their last effort in this direction. It will be 50x100 feet and three stories high. -Subscriptions are being made in north Iredell to a Me hodist church to be built at Olin. The people of that place subscribed $540 for this purpose last Saturday. The last report we have is that this amount has been increased to about $650. - Maj. T. II. Bomar, assistant engineer on the Western North Carolina Railroad, and Miss Mary Willis Wilson, daughter of Maj. J. W. Wilson, chief engineer of that road, were married at Durham one day last week. It was a runaway affair. Miss Wilson had been visiting her aunt at Hillsboro and was joined there by Maj. Bomar.

Goldsboro Messenger: The Atlantic Coast Line transports the Confederate says: free of charge. —There were one ity." iered at the Bonitz Hotel last Tuesday, most of whom went to the opera. - The State has donated to the Goldsboro Rifles two car loads of stone to be used in constructing the foundation of their monument. ——Pneumonia has been particularly fatal in this sec tion lately, serveral good citizens being struck down by that dire disease, and a good many more are affected by it. Mr. Cullen Flowers, an old and repect ed citizen of Brogden township, died quite suddenly one day last week. He monia, atter a brief illness of .ess than two days. Mr Maxwell was formerly a citizen of Duplin county, but for the past twelve years has resided in Wayne. mice, roaches, bed bugs, flies ants, -The contract for building the foun- moles, chipmunks, gophers.' 15c. dation of our Confederate dead monument was last Tuesday awarded by the Goldsboro Rifles to Mr W I Durham, of Raleigh, who will soon begin the work. Mr Durham has also the contract for the statue of the Confederate soldier, which is to surmount the monument. -The dwelling on what is known as the Eatman place, in Fork township, near Aine Forest school house, was destroyed by fire Friday night. Mr M T Edgerton occupied the building, and when the fire was discovered had barely time to save himself and wife. He lost all his furniture and clothing.
