SENATE.

FIFTY-EIGHTH DAY.

The committee on enrolled bills announced many bills, which were signed by the President. Senator Purnell, of Wake, introduced the following resolution: Resolution to provide for the pay ment of the funeral expenses of C. N. B.

Resolved by the Senate, the House of Representatives concurring: That the Auditor of the State, upon the exhibition to him of a duly certified statement of the burial expenses of the late C N B Evans. Senator from the twentieth district, be authorized and he is hereby directed, to issue his warrant upon the Treasury for the payment of such expenses. And upon the pres entations to him of such warrant the Treasurer is hereby directed to pay the same out by any funds not otherwise appropriated.

Mr Boykin said

Mr President, I cannot allow the session to expire without expressing my sentiments with reference to the resolu tions introduced by the Senator from Methodist E. Mr President, the value of the services of a good man is incalculable. They are co-extensive with time, nay they are co-extensive with the endless C. WILKINSON & Co., 195 and 197 Fulages of eternity. When I have said on Street, New York. dec 18-6 m every other good man is entitled to receive. After a long life of arduous labors and many sorrows, and doubtless dis appointments, he has passed over the river, and I trust in God's tender mercies, is calmly and peacefully resting under the shade of the trees.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATITES The committee on enrolled bills announced many bills, which were signed by the Speaker. The resolution to pay the burial expenses of Senator Evans, which came over from the Senate, was taken up and passed its several readings, Mr Lenoir offered the following reso-

Mr Poe spoke in eulogy of the deceased. The resoultion was then adopted by the House, but owing to the hour of adsent to the Senate. After Mr Rose's remarks of thanks having been read by the clerk, the Speaker then declared the House adjourned without day.
