THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VII. WILMINGTON, N. C. MONDAY, MARCH 19, 1883. NO. 68

The Daily Review has the largest bona fide circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

CITY DEMOCRATIC TICKET

ELECTION, THURSDAY, MARCH 22.
FOR ALDERMEN:
SECOND WARD.
G. J. BOXEY,
E. D. HALL.
THIRD WARD.
JOHN L. DUDLEY,
SAMUEL BEAR, JR.,
S. W. FISHLATE,
W. L. DEROSSET.

It is said that much of the young fruit in Georgia and Tennessee is dead.

Beverly Tucker, of Virginia, is preparing a volume of personal reminiscences.

George D. Robinson, of Chocopee, Mass., will lead the Republican minority in the next House.

Mr. Orr, of Massachusetts, a sprightly old gentleman of 87 years, married for the third time the other day.

It is said of Mr. Burnand, the editor of Punch, that "he jests incessantly, has been twice married and has fourteen children."

Seven States present candidates for doorkeeper of the next House, and Ohio, modest Ohio, has two for Sergeant-at-Arms.

Wiggins wants another storm and says he will have it in 1898. If it's as high as his last one wessay let her wig and we hope we'll live to see it.

Some political ghouls are talking about going down into the grave and digging up the defunct R. B. Hayes and running him as Governor of Ohio. Better let the carcass alone.

In the slang of the day, a city swell and masher is called "a dude." The young thug who has killed his man is denominated "a tough." The "dodo" is a compromise between the two.

A shortage of thirty or forty million bushels of corn for May delivery in Chicago. There are three million bushels of corn on hand with which to meet the demand for thirty or forty million bushels in May.

Washington Critic: The government has invested, up to the present time, $85,000,000 in court houses, custom houses and postoffices, and yet there are several cross roads in Ohio that have neither.

Henry George is getting a "boom." The Sacramento Bee calls his "Progress and Poverty" the "people's political Bible," and the Jeffersonian Club of Newark has nominated him for President in 1884 on a platform of his own construction.

The tonnage of the Pacific coast is rapidly passing from American to foreign built vessels. During the past year the tonnage of British vessels in the San Francisco trade has doubled, and that of German vessels has nearly doubled, while the American ships have hardly held their own.

The Pope has received official intimation of the Czar's approaching coronation. The question of the representation of the Pope is under consideration and involves great difficulty, seeing that no Roman Catholic person can take any part in the ceremony.

Macon Telegraph: The government proposes to be greatly troubled to know what to do with the accumulating tons of silver dollars. The Southern farmers, who were robbed after the war by cotton taxes, would be willing to take them, at their face value, in return for the greenbacks that were illegally extorted from them by the unconstitutional tax law in question. Here is a chance to get rid of the silver by making restitution.

Philadelphia Press: Miss Burr, who has now become Mrs. David Davis, must be a remarkable woman, as she declined to marry Mr. Davis last fall on account of her aversion to the sort of public life it would impose upon her during the Senator's last winter in office, and, probably, while there was a possible chance for him to become President of the United States. Not many young ladies in these days of ambition to shine and show off at Washington would postpone a wedding from November to March on that account. Some of them, indeed, prefer to get married twice over in order to be the central figure of a Washington sensation. Mr. Davis has more reason to be congratulated than modest people had supposed.

The value of real estate in Augusta, Ga., has increased $200,000 within the past twelve months.

In Italy the official returns for 1882 show a large falling off in the exportation of wine. There is no corresponding decrease in the supply in this country, says the Boston Post, and possibly never will be, so long as forged labels and foreign bottles can be procured. California will soon make more foreign wines than foreigners themselves.

Only two days left in which to register.

Election day, Thursday next, March 22nd.

The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 262 bales.

At 12 o'clock, to-day, 251 persons had registered in the Third Ward.

None but those coming of age next Thursday can register on that day.

Steamboatmen report good boating water, but no freshet, in the Cape Fear.

Messrs. Cronly & Morris will continue to-morrow morning the sale of cigars.

The receipts of rosin to-day were quite heaving. They foot up 3,300 barrels.

The idea of March have passed, and no very destructive tidal wave has passed over the country.

How to plant potatoes by the moon: If planted on the first or last quarter cut the potato into four parts; if planted on the second quarter cut the potato into halves; if planted on the full moon, plant the potato whole.

Knights of Honor.

Carolina Lodge No. 434, Regular meeting this evening at 8 o'clock. Full attendance desired.

Maj. W. L. Young has been in the city for several days past, the greater portion of the time seriously indisposed, but we were glad to see him on the streets to-day looking very much improved.

Messrs. Northrop & Cumming have had a new sign placed over the gate at the entrance to their mill yard in the southern portion of the city. It is very neat in design and is the handiwork of Mr. George Koeth, the bookkeeper of their establishment.

Operations looking to the improvement of Sea Side Park Hotel were begun to-day, and the work will be pushed until the contemplated changes and additions are completed, and the house is made ready for the reception of guests.

On last Saturday night there were 150 Democrats in the Second Ward who had not registered, although many of those have to-day enrolled their names. This is a serious matter as the Republicans are watching the books closely and will be sure to take advantage of any remissness on the part of the Democrats.

City Court.

Scip Hill, colored, for being drunk and disorderly, was locked up until this morning, when he was brought before the Mayor, who concluded that a deposit of $2.50 in the city treasury or five days in the city prison would pay for the fun. Scip went below.

Said a sick young man from Fauquier, Can St. Jacobs Oil be bought here? Yes, for rheumatic pains, Neuralgia and chilblains. 'Tis indeed sir, very much sought after.

Slight Fire
The sofa in the parlor of Mr Wm. J. Penny's house on Dock, between Seventh and Eighth streets, caught fire at about one o'clock this afternoon. Some children were playing upon the sofa and discovered the fire and ran out and gave the alarm. The flames were extinguished before serious damage was done. Some matches, partially burned, were found on the floor, and it is supposed that they were on the sofa and the children in their play caused them to ignite.

Buried Alive.
John Tyler, an old grave-digger at Fayetteville, was engaged in digging a well in that town on Friday last, and when he had dug to a depth of about 50 feet, a portion of the surrounding earth caved in and buried him about 8 feet beneath its surface. A force of men were at once engaged in his rescue, but when he was exhumed life was extinct.

An Important Decision.
A recent decision of the Supreme Court of this State is of such general importance, and so completely contravenes the prevalent opinion on the subject, as to make it worth while to notice it. There are many cases in which dealers have furnished supplies for house-building and then taken liens against the houses, under the mechanics' and laborers' lien law. They felt themselves perfectly safe in doing so, as the general opinion has been that these liens would stand against the houses, but the Supreme Court has recently decided that such is not the case. The lien protects the laborer, the man who did the work on the house, but it does not cover the material or any part of it. It is important to owners of saw-mills or other dealers in builders' supplies to know this.

Many London ladies crop their hair short and wear an almost entire wig, and consequently catch cold more frequently than their American cousins, but of course they all use Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

The Modern Age
For April is as bright and interesting as usual. Among the contents are "A Fable and a Poem, by Ivan Tourgenieff"; one of Theophile Gautier's incomparable stories, entitled, "Diamond's Daughter," and an amusing tale by the late Greenville Murray, better known to the American public as the author of "The Boudoir Cabal" and "The Member for Paris." "A Treatise on Old Maids" will scarcely be agreeable reading to that estimable class of citizens. "Richard Wagner as a Stage Manager" and "Reminiscences," by Flotow, the composer of Martha, are timely and readable. A number of other articles, and the ably conducted editorial departments furnish forth an excellent journal. The Modern Age is published at Buffalo, N. Y., and the annual subscription price is $1.60.

Homelede Near Wilson.
We learn that on Saturday last there was an affray on the farm of Mr. Jas. Tomlin, about four miles from Wilson, which resulted fatally to one of the parties. The facts, as they were communicated to us, show that a colored man, who has the reputation of being a desperate character, was a tenant upon the plantation of Mr. Tomlin, and that having been into the town of Wilson during the day, had become intoxicated and quarrelsome. On his return, he got into a dispute with a young man in the yard in front of Mr. Tomlin's house, and became so abusive and vile in his language that the latter came out and ordered him off the premises. The colored man refused to go until he was ready, and swore he would whip Mr. Tomlin, who is about 60 years of age, before he left. The latter reentered the house, but knowing the character of the man, loaded his gun for self-protection. Just before night Mr. Tomlin started for the stables to take care of his horses, and, finding the colored man might be lurking about the premises, took his gun with him. Arriving at the barn he leaned the weapon against the outside of the building and entered, when the colored man jumped out before him with terrible threats of violence. A young man, who happened to be near, sprung to the assistance of Mr. Tomlin, but the ruffian got the better of him and rendered him helpless. Mr. Tomlin stepped back, took his gun and started for the house, the colored man pursuing with a piece of fence rail, muttering vengeance. When near the house the latter quickened his steps in order to strike, and seeing no other recourse, Mr. Tomlin fired with fatal effect. Mr. Tomlin is described as a very peaceable, quiet man, and it was only a case of self preservation that caused him to shoot.

First Installment.
Messrs. A. & I. Shrier, at 34 Market street, have received their first installment of two hundred and fifty Flannel Suits which they warrant fast color. Each coat has a label with their mill name sewed on the collar as a guarantee to their genuine quality. Don't fail to get a suit.

A fine assortment of Guns and Pistols at JACOBS Hardware Depot.

Railroad Travel.
We are informed by railroad men that the travel over the W. & W. and W. C. & A. railroads is greater this season than it has been during the last thirteen years. They say that the opening of the Kennesaw route, instead of decreasing the travel in this direction, has given it a decided increase.

Two Days More.
It seems difficult to get people to understand that an entire new registration is needed for this election. No matter how many times a man may have previously registered in the same ward, he must register again if he would vote at this municipal election. It is well enough to understand this. The time is very short now, and there are but two days more in which the registration books will be kept open.

The First Ward.
Things are getting lively in the First Ward. There are two Republican candidates in the field there for Alderman for the same seat and the friends of each declare that they will stick. It is Hopkins vs. Chadbourn and feeling is running high. The Chadbourn men are confident that he will be elected and the Hopkinsites claim seventy-five per cent of the voting strength of the Ward and are, we understand, betting on their man. As it is none of our funeral we can look on and enjoy the fun.

Episcopal Visitations.
Bishop Lyman preached at St. James' yesterday morning and confirmed six persons, five ladies and one gentleman, and at night at St. Paul's, where he confirmed four, two ladies and two gentlemen. To-night he will visit St. Mark's, where he will also preach and confirm; to-morrow he will visit Smithville, and preach at St. Philip's Church, and to-morrow night he will visit St. John's, in this city. This will close his Spring episcopal visitations in this section, and on Wednesday he will go to Rocky Mount. He will be in Wilson on Easter Sunday.

Death of Mr. Potter.
We are very sorry to hear of the death of Mr. Gilbert Potter, which occurred at his residence in Brooklyn, N. Y., last night, at 10:30 o'clock, of pleurisy. Mr. Potter was about 70 years of age and was well-known and highly esteemed in this community for his many sterling qualities of head and heart. He was the son of Capt. Gilbert Potter, who resided here for many of the latter years of his life, who built the handsome buildings now occupied by the principal portion of the Purcell House and who sleeps in Oakdale Cemetery. Mr. Potter was a brother-in-law to Mr. Edward Kidder, of this city, Mrs. Kidder having been his sister, and he himself resided here from 1838 to 1844. He has been engaged in the naval stores business in New York and the old firm of Dollner, Potter & Co., which was succeeded some years back by that of Gilbert, Potter & Co., was well-known all over the country.

The Chamber of Commerce and the Produce Exchange will meet to-morrow to adopt suitable resolutions in regard to his death.

Don't Pay Rent.
DURING THE PAST FIFTEEN years I have sold a large number of houses and lots in this city on the installment plan to parties who are now living free and independent of landlords. If not for that plan many of them would still be paying rent and groaning under landlord rule. Others, by paying small amounts monthly, now own two to three houses; one party owns six and another owns seven. To begin on an upward path the installment plan has proven to be a glorious success. It is wonderful how rapidly small amounts grow into big figures. Building lots for sale on the installment plan situated on Seventh, Wilson, Eighth, Ninth, Tenth, Eleventh, Eleventh, Bay, Twelfth, Thirteenth, Castle, Church, Ann, Ann, Orange, Chestnut, Walnut, Mulberry, Red Cross, Gwynn, Charlotte and Franklin streets.
