THAT SETTLES IT.

Brought into Competition with the World, the Best Carries off the Honors.

At the great Centennial Exhibition of 1876, the leading products of all the branches of the World's Industry were assembled at Philadelphia. To carry off a prize in the face of that tremendous competition was a task of no ordinary difficulty. Inventions and preparations for the alleviation of pain and the cure of disease were present in the greatest possible variety, representing the skill and the profoundest study of the age, and it may be of small importance to you, personally, to know that the highest and the only medical giver to rubber Porus plasters, was awarded to the manufacturers of BENSON'S CAPICINE PORUS PLASTER, by the following jury:

DR. WM. ROTH, Surgeon-General, Prussian Army.
J. H. THOMPSON, A. M., M. D., Washington, D. C.
C. B. WHITE, M. D., New Orleans.
ERNEST FLEISCH, M. D., Austria.

The decision was afterwards confirmed by the medical jury at the last Paris Exposition, knowing the value of such high and unbiased testimony, the medical profession, both in the United States and in Europe, quickly threw aside the old, slow-acting plasters they had been using, and adopted Benson's in their regular practice. That physicians and surgeons of the broadest reputations did this, distinctly proves the intrinsic merit of the article. It is no more than just to add that the average physician of to-day is not dominated by the prejudices which retarded the progress and modified the successes of his predecessors of not more than twenty-five years ago. He accepts hints from all quarters and endorses and adopts demonstrated healing agents wherever he finds them.

The right of Benson's Capicine Porus Plaster to stand at the head of all external applications whatsoever, for the mitigation or cure of disease, is no longer questioned.

Let the purchaser, however, be on his guard against imitations. The genuine has the word CAPICINE CUT in the middle.

WARNER'S SAFE

KIDNEY & LIVER CURE

It is an effect, not a cause. Its origin within, its manifestations without. Hence to cure the disease the CAUSE must be removed, and in no other way can a cure be effected. WARNER'S SAFE KIDNEY & LIVER CURE is established on just this principle. It reaches that of all diseases arise from deranged kidneys and liver, and it strikes at once at the root of the difficulty. The elements of which it is composed act directly upon the great organs, both as purgative and RESOLVENT, and by placing them in a healthy condition, drive disease and pain from the system.

For the innumerable troubles caused by unhealthy kidneys, liver and urinary organs; for the distressing Disorders of Women; for Gout, Rheumatism, and all other ailments, this great remedy has no equal. Beware of imitations, imitations and concoctions said to be just as good.

A LOVELY SCENE.

We stood at the bars as the sun went down Behind the hills on a summer day. Her eyes were tender and big and brown. Her breath as sweet as the new-mown hay.

Far from the west the faint sunshine Glanced sparkling off her golden hair. Those calm, deep eyes were turned toward mine. And a look of contentment rested there.

I see her bathed in the sunlight flood, I see her standing peacefully now: Peacefully standing and chewing her cud. As I rubbed her ears—that Jersey cow.

—Harvard Advocate.

He Becomes a Druggist—Why he Resigned.

"Well, what are you loafing around here for?" said the grocery man to the bad boy, one morning this week. "It's after nine o'clock and I should think you would want to be down at the drug store. How do you know but there will be somebody dying for a dose of pills?" "Oh, damn the drug store, I've got sick of that business and I have dissolved with the druggist. I've resigned. The policy of the store did not meet with my approval, and I have stepped out and am waiting for them to come and tender me a better position at an increased salary," said the boy, as he threw a cigar stub into a barrel of prunes, and lit a fresh one.

"Resigned, eh?" said the grocery man as he fished out the cigar stub and charged the boy's father with two pounds of prunes. "Don't you and the boss agree?"

"Not exactly. I gave an old lady some gin when she asked for camphor and water, and she made a show of herself. I thought I would fool her, but she knew mighty well what it was, and she drank about half a pint of gin, and got to tipping over bottles and kegs of paint, and when the drug man came in with his wife the old woman threw her arms around his neck and called him her darling, and when he pushed her away and told her she was drunk, she picked up a bottle of citrate of magnesia and pointed it at him, and the cork came out like a pistol and he thought he was shot, and his wife fainted away, and the police came and took the old refrigerator away, and the drug man told me to face the door and if I wasn't looking he kicked me four times, and I landed in the street, and he said if I came in sight of the store again he would kill me dead. This is the way I resigned. I tell you they will send for me again. They never will run that store without me."

"I guess they will worry along without you," said the grocery man. "How does your pa take your being fired out?" "I should think you would break him all up."

"Oh, I think pa rather likes it. At first he thought he had a soft snap with me in the drug store, 'cause he got to drinking again like a fish, and he has gone back on the church entirely, but after I had put a few things in his brandy he concluded it was cheaper to buy it, and he's now patronizing a barrel house down by the river. One day I put castle soap in a drink of brandy and pa leaned over the back fence more than an hour with his finger down his throat. The man that collects the ashes from the alley asked pa if he had lost anything, and pa said he was only 'surgin' off.' I don't know what that is. When pa felt better he came in and wanted a little whiskey to take the taste out of his mouth, and I gave him some with about a teaspoonful of pulverized alum in it.

"Well, sir, you'd a dide. Pa's mouth and throat was so puckered up that he couldn't talk. I don't think that the drug man will make anything by firing me out, because I shall turn all the trade I can control to another store. Why, sir, sometimes there were eight and nine girls in that store all on account of my being there. They came to have me put extracts on their handkerchiefs and to eat gum drops. He will lose all that trade now. My girl that went back on me for the telegraph messenger boy, she came with the rest of the girls, but she found I could be naughty as a cook. I got even with her though. I pretended I wasn't mad, and when she wanted me to put some perfume on her handkerchief, I said all right, and I put on a little geranium and white rose, and then I got some tincture of asafoetida and sprinkled it on her cloak and dress when she went out. That is about the worst smelling stuff that ever was, and I was glad that she went out and met the telegraph boy on the corner.

"They went off together, but he came back pretty soon, about the 'ho-mesickest boy you ever saw, and he told my chum he would never go with that girl again because she smelled like spoiled oysters or sewer gas. Her folks noticed it, too, and made her wash her feet, and soak herself, and her brother told my chum it didn't do her any good, she smelled like a glue factory, and my chum, (the darned fool,) told her brother it was me who perfumed her, and he hit me in the eye with a frozen fish down by the fish store and that's what makes my eye black, but I know how to cure a black eye. I haven't been in a drug store eight days and not know how to cure a black eye. And I guess I learned that girl never to go back on a boy 'cause he smells like a goat."

"Well, what was it about your leaving the wrong medicines at houses?"

"The policeman of this ward told me you came pretty near killing several people by leaving the wrong medicine."

"The way that of this is: There were about a dozen different kinds of medicine to leave at different places, and I was in a hurry to go to the roller skating rink, so I got my chum to help me, and we just took the number of the houses, and when we rung the bell we would hand out the first package we would come to, and I understand there was a great deal of complaint. One old maid, who ordered powder for her face, her wicket drew some worm lozenges and she kicked awfully, and a widow woman who was going to be married she ordered a celluloid comb and brush, and she got a nursing bottle and a nozzel, and tooth ring, and she made quite a fuss, but the woman who was weaning the baby and wanted the nursing bottle, she got the comb and brush and some blue pills, and she never got mad at all. It makes a great deal of difference, I notice, whether a person gets a better thing than they order or not."

"But the drug business is too lively for me. I have got to have a quiet place, and I guess I will be a cash boy in a store. Pa says he thinks I was cut out for a bunco steerer, and I may look for that kind of a job. Pa, he's a terror since he got to drinking again. He came home the other day when the minister was calling on ma, and just cause the minister was sitting on the sofa with ma, and had his hand on her shoulder, where she said the pain was when the rheumatiz came on, pa was mad and told the minister he would kick his liver clear around on the other side if he caught him here again, and ma felt awful bad about it. After the minister had gone away she told pa he had no feeling at all, and pa said he had enough felling for one family, and he didn't want no sky pilot to help him.

He said he could cure all the rheumatiz there was around his house, and then he went down and didn't get home till breakfast time. Ma says she thinks I am r's, on sible for pa falling into bad habits again, and now I am going to cure him. You watch me and see if I don't have pa in church inside of a week praying and singing, and going home with the choir singers, just as pious as ever. I am going to get a boy who writes a woman's hand to write to pa, and—but I mustn't give it away. But you just watch pa, that's all. Well, I must go and cut some wood. It's coming down a good deal, from a drug clerk to sawing wood, but I will get on yet, and don't you forget it.

Skinny Men.

"Wells' Health Renewer" restores health and vigor, cures Dyspepsia, Impotence, Sexual Debility, &c.

Work on the Washington monument is to be begun on April 1. Two hundred and fifteen feet have yet to be added to the height of the tall shaft, and two seasons will be required to complete the task.

Mrs. Lulu Reed, of Mathews, N. C., says: "I received great benefit from Brown's Iron Bitters in general debility."

An Ohio cheese factory has begun the manufacture, by a new process, of milk sugar. Hitherto all the milk sugar used in this country in compounding medicines, about $100,000 worth, has been imported from Europe.

If you are Ruined

in health from any cause, especially from the use of any of the thousand nostrums that promise so largely, with long fictitious testimonials, have no fear. Resort to Hop Bitters at once, and in a short time you will have the most robust and blooming health.

Twelve thousand pounds have been raised in London to defray the cost of pressing the claims of English holders of Virginia bonds before the American tribunals. The council of foreign bondholders are to test the consequences of the late decision of the United States Supreme Court in regard to the Virginia bonds.

What Seven Could not do.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., April 6, 1881.

H. H. WARNER & Co.: Sirs—Seven physicians could not do for me what your Safe Kidney and Liver Cure accomplished. Hopelessly sick with kidney diseases, it restored me to perfect health.

Coffee houses abound in the Brazilian cities, while liquor saloons are few and drunkards rare, it is said. All classes frequent the cafes, and immigrants arriving in the country with a passion for alcohol gradually acquire a fondness for coffee and a distaste for liquor.

Remember This.

If you are sick Hop Bitters will surely aid Nature in making you well when all else fails.

If you are costive or dyspeptic, or are suffering from any other of the numerous diseases of the stomach or bowels, it is your own fault if you remain ill, for Hop Bitters is a sovereign remedy in all such complaints.

If you are wasting away with any form of Kidney disease, stop tempting Death this moment, and turn for a cure to Hop Bitters.

If you are sick with that terrible sickness, Nervousness, you find a "Balm in Gilead" in the use of Hop Bitters.

If you are a frequenter, or a resident of a miasmatic district, barricade your system against the scourge of all countries—malaria, epidemic, bilious, and intermittent fevers—by the use of Hop Bitters.

If you have rough, pimply, or sallow skin, bad breath, pains and aches, and feel miserable generally, Hop Bitters will give you fair skin, rich blood, and sweetest breath, health and comfort.

In short they cure all diseases of the stomach, bowels, Blood, Liver, Nerves, Kidneys, Bright's Disease. $500 will be paid for a case they will not cure or help.

That poor, bedridden, invalid wife, sister, mother, or daughter can be made the picture of health, by a few bottles of Hop Bitters, costing but a trifle. Will you let them suffer.
