DELTA, N. C., March 26, 1883. MR. EDITOR:-

Dear Sir:—It is my painful duty to chronicle the death of Mr. William Robinson, who died at his residence on the night of the 20th inst., at 12 o'clock, of a complication of nephritis and cystitis. It has been only a few short weeks since his wife died of pneumonia. A woman possessing many rare and excellent virtues; and now, in so short a time, he too, is laid beside her in the silent grave.

The subject of this sketch was in the 77th year of his age, and deserves more than a passing notice. In his early manhood he went to Louisiana and remained there ten years; was an inti-mate friend of the late Governor Moore, the society of whom and other prom inent planters of that time, tended to sharpen his naturally brilliant talents. which, on his return to his native section, stamped him as one of its most prominent and highly esteemed citizens, possessing a genial disposition, and the happy faculty of making himself agree- All able at all times, made him a welcome gnest on all occasions. He was the very soul of honor, never trying to take the advantage of his fellowman in his business dealings, nor would he try to make by their necessities, but endeavored to forward their interests as well as his own.

Endowed by nature with a most liberal and cheerful dispositon, he dispensed his hospitality with a lavish hand, never bestowing his favors grudgingly or with expecting reward. Thus has he passed away, leaving to his children the noble heritage of an honored and unsullied name and lamented and deplored by his friends and acquaintances, whose confidence and esteem he possessed in the highest
