COL. JAMES L. CORLEY.

Col. James L. Corley, whose tragic death occurred at Hampton, Virginia, last Wednesday, was born in Colleton County, South Carolina, and was about fifty-two years of age at the time of his death.

Col. Corley was an intimate friend of Gen. W. S. Hancock, and a most estimable gentleman. He was a brave officer and a gallant soldier.

JOHN BROWN.

The death of John Brown, Queen Victoria's faithful Scotch "gillie" has created very much of a sensation in England. He died at Windsor Castle on Thursday.

In London he was as well known as the Queen herself. He went in her carriage when she drove out, and stood behind her chair on great days of ceremony at Windsor.

The Irish judges are having an easy time holding courts this spring. In Clare murders had fallen from five last year to one this year.

The Archbishop of Canterbury was enthroned on Thursday in the very chair in which St. Augustine used to sit, and in which the Kings of Kent were crowned.

A Public spirited citizen of Anderson (Ga.), has offered to donate the necessary amount of land within the city limits to any company that will build a factory thereon.

The bill to establish a whipping-post for wife beaters has been defeated in committee of the Pennsylvania Legislature, only one out of twenty-five members voting for it.

Sick-Headache. Mrs. J. C. HENDRICKSON, of Cleveland, Ohio, writes: "The use of two of Pierce's Pleasant, Purgative Pellets a day for weeks, has entirely cured me of sick-headache, from which I formerly suffered terribly, as often, on an average, as once in ten days."

Don't be Alarmed at Bright's Disease, Diabetes, or any disease of the kidneys, liver or urinary organs, as Hop Bitters will certainly and lastingly cure you, and it is the only thing that will.

PERSONAL.

Howard Carroll is engaged on a biography of Alexander H. Stephens. Senator Anthony sleeps much in the Senate, that cradle of American liberty.

Judge Black laughs at the idea that the Mormons are offering special prayers for him as the savior of polygamy. Governor Dawes, of Nebraska, recently returned to the Legislature of that State, within two hours, five veto messages.

Mrs. Astor, Bristed, nee Sedgewick, is entertaining in Rome this winter. She joined the Catholic church after her husband's death.

The Prince of Wales has been married twenty years, and is to-day one of the beauties of the country, and as straight and slender as a girl of twenty.

Governor Butler says his accounts as president of the Soldiers' Home have been settled. If there is an honest claim against him, he will pay it; if it was not just he would be pleased to be sued.

Then the name of Assistant Secretary of the Treasury John C. New is mentioned. Indiana has not yet got that Cabinet officer which she was promised and fairly won in 1880.

"For four years I suffered agony from a skin disease. Dr. Benson's Skin Cure cured me." C. B. McDONALD, Plantersville, Ala. $1. at drug gists.

A remarkable parrot, owned by a lady in Quebec, used to give this conundrum and answer: "Why does a donkey eat thistles? Give it up? Give it up? Because he's an ass! Ha-ha-ha-ha-ha-a."

What Seven Could not do. NASHVILLE, Tenn., April 6, 1881.
