The New York Sun commits the singular mistake of calling $1,000,000,000 "a billion of dollars." A billion means a million millions, a thousand thousand millions, or ten hundred thousand millions, and is expressed in figures thus: 1,000,000,000,000. A slight difference.

The mayor of Charleston, W. Va., gets a salary of $50 a year for his services, and he has no perquisites. Unless the history of his election is falsely written there was not quite as much of a scramble for the mayoralty of Charleston as for that of Wilmington on a recent occasion.

The Anglo-American ball at Geneva took place with great eclat on Monday, the 19th inst., says the London World. The challenge thrown down by America was taken up by Scotland, in the shape of a lovely blue-eyed "lassie," who both looked and danced to perfection, while the appearance of two fair Americans created a sensation which may extend to London.

A proof of the new two cent postage stamp, which is to take the place of the three cent stamp now in use, has been received at the Postoffice Department. It contains a portrait of Washington, and the ornamentation is different from that now employed. It will be necessary to design a double rate, or four cent stamp, and do away with the five and fifteen cent stamps, except for foreign correspondence.

[PUBLISHED BY REQUEST.] We regret to announce the departure of one of Wilmington's fairest daughters, who left for Bergen Point, N. Y., Friday night last, where she will remain for a number of days. She has left many broken hearts behind her, and we would not be surprised if some of our dry goods merchants should soon be losing some of their clerks, who will be off for Bergen Point. She attended her last "Hop" on Thursday night, at Rankin Hall, which was given complimentary to her. We hope that she will soon return to her friends, who will give her gladly welcome back to Wilmington.

Williams T. Bannerman, Esq., the hard-hearted, cold-blooded Clerk of the Superior Court of Pender county, was in the city to-day, and confessed that he had not yet obeyed the imperative rule of the court in his case, which is one of peculiar wickedness and shows an amount of depravity hardly expected from a young man of his age. We hope the Solicitor, at the next term of court, will pray judgment against him. He richly deserves it.

The Goldsboro Messenger says that "Hewlett's 'Humpty Dumpty' had but a very small audience, and these were much disappointed. We have not one word to retract of all that we have said of the performances here. They all did well—more than well—and the delight of the audience was testified in unmistakable terms. Why they should not have done as well in Goldsboro as in Wilmington is something that we cannot understand.

The address was delivered in an effective manner and will long be remembered by those whose good fortune it was to be present. The Doctor has seen much of the South of late years and he speaks in high terms of what is being done by our people in behalf of education. We feel sure that his address did much good and we hope he will again visit us.

The result of the call made by the ladies yesterday for contributions to Mr. John Sneedon were very encouraging. The affair was well managed and Mr. Sneedon and his mother have both expressed themselves as deeply gratified to the kind ladies who interested themselves in their behalf, as also to the generous donors who have assisted them in their distress.

Interview.

Mr. Milton Nobles appeared at the Opera House last night in his new play of the "Interview," and was supported by his company in a very creditable manner. The piece per se does not begin to compare with "Phoenix," the one in which Mr. Nobles has won his laurels, but his fine acting and the gracious support given him by his company made quite a hit. His character of "Quill Driverton" was admirably conceived and excellently enacted. Mrs. Nobles met with favor with the large audience which had assembled last evening. Schwartz, in his character of the German waiter, was good, but the character did not give his mirth-provoking proclivities as wide a scope as is granted him in his inimitable character of Sheeny in the Phoenix. The other members of the troupe sustained their parts well and did all that was to be done to show up to the best advantage. To-night the entire troupe will appear in the inimitable spectacular drama of the "Phoenix," with Nobles in his quadruple characters, and Schwartz as the irrepressible Sheeny.

Good day to you, Mistress O'Broine, An' how is the pain in your spine? Och, divil a bit. Have I of it. St. Jacobs Oil cured it up foine.

The State Guard Law.
The following is the act, passed at the last session of the Legislature, for the encouragement of the State Guard:

1. That the Governor is authorized to pay to each duly organized company of the State Guard, which complies with all the requirements of the laws and regulations governing the active militia, the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars per annum, for the payment of armory rent and other necessary expenses: Provided, The number of said companies shall not exceed in the aggregate twenty-five, and that said companies shall be located on or near the lines of communication by railroad, or steamboat or telegraph.

2. That the Adjutant General shall be appointed by the Governor, and shall hold his office for the term of four years; shall execute a bond of two thousand dollars for the faithful performance of his duties, and shall be paid an annual salary of six hundred dollars.

3. That any officer or enlisted man failing to pay over any fine imposed on him under the general law and regulations, or under the by-laws of his company, may be proceeded against the same as for ordinary debt before a justice of the peace. Judgment having been obtained, execution shall issue and be levied and collected as in ordinary cases—the money when collected to be paid into the company fund.

4. That the laws of 1876-77, chapter 272, section 2, shall be amended by adding the words, "And the Governor may, whenever the exigencies of the public service require it, detail for special duty any officer of the State Guard, and his expenses and compensation therefor shall be paid upon the approval of the Governor and the warrant of the Auditor."

5. That the Governor shall have power to make such use of any appropriation made by Congress for the militia as he may deem for the arming, equipment, support, maintenance and discipline of the State Guard. The expenditures shall be made under his direction, by such officers as he may direct, and a report of the same shall appear in the annual report of the Adjutant General.

The Revenue Act.
The following circular has been sent out by Treasurer J. M. Worth. It will be of interest to many here and will serve to explain fully the construction what has been placed upon the provisions of the revenue act passed by the Legislature at its recent session:

The following are the provisions in brief with a construction of section thirty-four, Schedule B, of "An Act to Raise Revenue:

Every person, company or firm, for selling spirituous, vinous or malt liquors, or medicated bitters, is taxed as follows: 1st. For selling in quantities less than a quart, twenty dollars for each quarter.

Narrow Escape.

A little son of Mr. Joseph Lewis, the fisherman, aged about five years, attempted to cross Market street, on the West side of Second, this morning, just in front of a horse and covered wagon, and was knocked down and hurt. The driver was so seated in the wagon that he could not see the lad until he was actually under the horse's feet. He immediately jumped out, and taking the boy in his arms, carried him home, where he said that if any injury was done he would see that it was paid for. Dr. Potter was at once called and he stated that the boy was not injured, further than a small flesh wound under the chin. The horse was walking at the time of the accident, and no blame in the matter can be attached to the driver.
