THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VII.

WILMINGTON, N. C. THURSDAY, APRIL 5, 1883.

NO. 82

The Daily Review has the largest circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

Two thousand five hundred coal singers in the Pittsburgh district have arrived.

Prince Bismarck's 68th birthday was observed in Berlin, on Sunday, as a holiday.

The rehearsals for the coming dramatic festival in Cincinnati will begin this week.

The 35th anniversary of modern spiritualism was celebrated in New York on Sunday.

The Democrats carried Chicago by a 10,000 majority for their candidate for City Attorney.

Three men are now living who served in the Pennsylvania Senate in 1837.
All are over 90 years of age.

The venerable Peter Cooper died at his residence in New York yesterday.
He was 92 years old Feb. 12th.

A Mason has been found in Maine who has been a member of the order for 66 years. He is 94 years old.

Ex-Senator Thurman fell on the steps of his residence in Columbus, O., night before last and broke his left arm.

Abraham Lincoln's grave is still guarded day and night. Nothing is sacred from the Northern resurrection ists.

Fig trees in California are in full bloom, according to the New York World. But who ever heard of a fig tree blooming?

Ex-Governor Hendricks, who went to Florida for the benefit of his health, has returned to his home in Indiana much improved.

At a recent sale of splendid household furniture in Baltimore, articles that cost $1,900 and $2,500 to import, and as good as new, sold for $366 and $375 respectively.

The official stenographic report of the Quilten trial, as published by the Government Printing Office, Washington, makes three solid octave volumes of some nine hundred pages each.

The sacrifice of the State's stock in the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley R. R. has been completed and the new company has taken hold and will organize to-day. Another blow at Wilmington.

General S. B. Buckner has written a letter announcing that he is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor of Kentucky. General Buckner is the man who surrendered Fort Donelson to General Grant.

The Manchester Examiner declares that Great Britain could shut up every cotton factory on this side of the Atlantic by free-trade. This boast applies to the South as well as the North. Some may consider this an empty threat, but it is not.

A few years ago Dr. Lewis Swift, the astronomer, winner of the La Lande prize of the Paris Academy of Sciences, kept an humble suburban hardware store in Rochester, N. Y., and carried on amateur observations with a small telescope from the roof of a convenient elder mill.

There is one feather, at least, which our good old State can wear proudly in its cap. In North Carolina the large cotton growing counties are also the foremost hog and hominy producers.
The proportion of hog raising in the whole State is one porker to each inhabitant.

The statement going the rounds to the effect that there are not over 8,000 members of the bar in England may be correct, but it should be borne in mind, remarks the Boston Post, that the number does not include attorneys and solicitors, who in this country come in under the head of lawyers, but only "barristers at law."

Discussing the matrimonial question in New York, a writer in the Brooklyn Union argues that "nothing less than the receipt of $5,000 a year can warrant any young man in attempting the experiment of matrimony with a young lady who expects to keep up a fair social position with all the adjuncts which that implies." In New York $5,000 a year is no more than $1,000 a year in Wilmington.

The Rev. Dr. Howard Crosby, of New York, thinks it is rather the very rich than the very poor that constitute the dangerous class. Here are a few of the things that Dr. Crosby would like to see carried out: "Honest men voting for character and not for party;"

"a limit to individual wealth;" "the wages of a laborer secured to him for a year at a time, as in the case of a salaried officer, to be forfeited only in the case of such conduct as the courts would recognize;" "severe penalties for the avoidance of taxpaying;" "bribery punished by permanent loss of citizenship and ten years imprisonment."

Overwork is almost as bad as laziness, and it kills a great deal quicker. The Cincinnati Commercial Gazette says of two famous railroad magnates: "Colonel Cole, once the great railroad king in the South, is living a retired life at Nashville. He is said to have softening of the brain and cannot live long. Mr.
H. Victor Newcomb, once the young Napoleon of the South, and the most formidable antagonist of King Cole, is living in New York a life of retirement, though almost blind and no possible hope of recovery."

We learn that pneumonia prevails to an unprecedented degree at Mt. Olive.
Wayne county, and that there is hardly a family in which it does not prevail.
Some of the cases are reported as being extremely severe and critical.

Mr. Orrin T. Thomas, the artist, of this city, who was a student at Cooper Institute and received personal favors at the hands of its venerable founder, proposes to close his studio during the funeral services as a mark of respect to the memory of the distinguished deceased.

The names of two or three streets, as specimens of the proposed lettering of all of the streets, have been painted on tin and attached to two or three lamps. We are free to say we don't like it. The names of the streets should be painted on the glass of the lamps so as to be visible by night as well as by day.

For Pocket Knives or Table Cutlery, go to JACOB'S Hardware Depot.

Magistrate's Court.
Peter Furman, colored, was brought before Justice Millis this morning, charged with an assault and battery on his wife, Amanda Furman. He was found guilty, but judgment was suspended upon payment of costs.

Wedding Bells.
Mr. Grier Kidder, of this city, was married in Atlanta yesterday to Miss Bessie, daughter of Mr. Jas. A. Low, of Atlanta, and sister to Mrs. Armand L. DeRosset, of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Kidder will leave Atlanta to-day and are expected here to-morrow morning, and at Capt DeRosset's residence.

A Magician
who can draw crowds to fill the large and extensive Niblos Garden must be something above the ordinary, and such is Herrmann: We copy from the New York Times the following:
Old theatre goers will find something entirely new in the Herrmann entertainment. There are wonderful feats of legerdemain by the most dexterous of magicians, a varied performance by specialty artists of extraordinary merit and other features that are surprisingly good as well as numerous. The success of such attractions as that which is now packing Niblos Garden, both in the evening and at the matinees, is a healthful sign, and it is to the credit of the city that so much encouragement is given to its projector. Its acceptance throughout the country is a foregone conclusion. A permanent exhibition of this kind located in New York would prove a fortunate investment.

Elmwood Shirts.
Messrs. A. & I. Shrier, 34 Market street, have been appointed sole agents for the well known Elmwood Shirt, which is undoubtedly the best in the market. Each shirt comes in a handsome box. Give them a trial.

Absent-Minded.

The latest case of absent-mindedness of which we have heard occurred yesterday. It was a lady in this instance who came down-town on a shopping expedition, and when she got into the store where she intended to make some purchases, she discovered that she had left her bonnet at home, and had walked through the streets very nicely ap-pareled, but, alas, she was bareheaded.
It was a good joke, but we imagine she hardly appreciated that kind.

City Court.

William Brown, colored, was before the Mayor this morning charged with disorderly conduct, but was discharged with a reprimand.

Hattie Canaday and Florence Williams, two colored damsels from the "Hollow," charged with disorderly conduct, were required to deposit $5 each for the benefit of the city or take board in the city prison for 30 days. It is needless to say that impecuniosity constrained them to accept of the latter alternative.

A fine assortment of Guns and Pistols at JACOB'S Hardware Depot.

Criminal Court.

The following is a synopsis of the proceedings in the Criminal Court today up to the time of closing own report:

George Bremer, assault and battery.
Guilty. Sentence not yet pronounced.
Kit Foster and Henrietta Nixon, larceny. Guilty. Sentence not yet pronounced.

Millis Cooper, larceny. Guilty. Sentenced to five years imprisonment in the State Penitentiary.

The Grand Jury, at 1 o'clock p. m., adjourned until 10 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Wilmington Mutual.

The Wilmington Mutual Fire Insurance Company held its annual meeting last night and elected its officers for the ensuing year. All the officers of last year were re-elected, after which, as there was no other business of importance, the meeting adjourned. The Board of Directors is as follows:

Wm. A. French, R. E. Cal'er, John
McRae, H. VonGlahn, H. M. Bowden, R. S. Radcliff, D. O'Connor, R. S.
Heide, W. P. Oldham, J. A. Freeman,
W. Larkins, and J. K. Brown.

Mr. William A. French was made President, Mr. R. E. Calder Vice President, and Mr. J. K. Brown Secretary, of the Board.

Drs. Bickett & Griffin, Monroe, N. C., says: "We invariably recommend Brown's Iron Bitters as one of the best compounds on the market."

Fayetteville Presbytery.

The following minutes from Fayetteville Presbytery, held at Montpelier Church, in Robeson county, beginning with yesterday, the 4th inst, have been reported for the DAILY REVIEW:

Presbytery opened with a sermon by Rev. N. McKay, D. D., from John xiv, 1st verse.

The following ministers and elders were present, as per roll call:

Ministers—Revs H. McLean, Evander
McNair, D. D., J. P. McPherson, Neil McKay, George Gibbs, A. McMillan, S.
C. Alexander, D. D. McBryde, Joseph
Evans, Arch McQueen, J. H. Coble, Daniel Fairly, A. N. Ferguson, W. S.
Lacy, Roger Martin, Martin McQueen.
Elders—H. H. Hodgins, D. A. McDermaid, J. G. Graham, G. W. Patterson, Dr. D. McBryde, D. McDougald, R. Mc-Caskill, A. S. Baker, H. McEachan, Dr.
Daniel Shaw, W. D. Harrington, Daniel McCallum, D. McBryde, J. P. Hodges, N. S. Blue, Alex. McRae, J. A. Cameron, N. Ferguson, W. P. Cameron, Dr. A. Mc-Gould.

Rev. A. N. Ferguson was elected Moderator and Elders J. B. Graham and J.
A. Cameron temporary Clerks.

The reading of the minutes of the regular Presbytery was dispensed with, and the minutes of the meeting held at Asheville were read.

Rev. J. H. Coble, Rev. Roger Martin and Elder R. McCaskill were appointed a committee to address a communication from the Presbytery to Rev. N. T.
Bowden on the subject of his absence from the meeting.

A communication was received from Rev. D. A. McRae, giving reasons for his absence from the Presbytery, and asking leave to labor outside of its bounds for the present.

Rev. J. H. Coble, Rev. Roger Martin and Elder D. D. Shaw were appointed a committee on devotional exercises.

The celebrated "Fish Brand" Gills Twine is sold only at JACOB'S Hardware Depot.

The Song of the Shad.

When balmy breezes gently blew
And Southern skies were clear,
A school of shad to spawn intent,
Were going up Cape Fear;
A fisherman in search of game,
Was laying out his net,
And as they passed he raked them in
By skiff leads, you may bet.
He started up the river then,
And going higher and higher,
He reached the town of Wilmington,
And there he met "Fice Mayer."
Now Fice had had good luck that day.
And business had been fair
In picking up the drummer boys,
So of shad he bought a pair.
But wishing still to work his beat
In search of drummer tramp,
He paid to take them to his house Five cents to a negro scamp.
So noontide came, Fice smacked his chops
And hurried to his dinner.
But found no shad to fill his maw.
Or I'm a naughty sinner.
He cursed and swore, and tore his hair,
And jumped around like mad.
But all the cursing he could do
Would not bring back the shad.
He hurried to the Mayor's court,
Who issued a subpoena,
And in a trice Fice captured Dave,
For Fice, he is a keeper.
Dave went before His Honor
And unblushingly did swear
That he did never from Fice Mayer Receive of shad a pair.
The evidence conflicted,
And His Honor thus did say:
"I'll hold this case sub curia.
Come here another day."
His other day soon came around,
And Fice was "at the Book."
But his damage suit was knocked sky-high
By his next-door neighbor's cook,
Who came into the court with Dave,
And to sustain him swore,
That Dave had soundly gone to sleep
And left the shad lying at her door.
So Fice was beaten out of court.
Holy Moses! wasn't he mad
To think that he had thus been beat Out of a pair of shad.
But patience is a virtue Which Fice doth appreciate;
So he hid him to the Purcell House,
And there he laid in wait,
And woe betide the drummers
Who come within his snare,
For he gathered in the coia from them
And bought another pair,
And took them to his house himself,
And had them cooked for tea,
And in his keen enjoyment Forgot his misery.

A lame old lady at Keyser,
Had no one to advise her,
'Till Doctor John Boyle,
Tried St. Jacobs Oil,
Its action did simply surprise her.
