The Daily Review has the largest bona fide circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

The worst snow storm of the season prevailed throughout Minnesota on Tuesday last.

The recent operatic entertainment for the benefit of Washington and Lee University netted $4,500.

Samuel J. Randall favors the abolition of internal revenue taxation, including whiskey and tobacco.

It is said that Howgate, the $400,000 defaulting signal officer, was seen in Washington last Tuesday. How-gat he there?

A suit for two thousand dollars brought against Patti for singing lessons in her childhood developed the fact that she is forty five years of age.

The British national memorial statue of the late Earl of Beaconsfield will be unveiled on April 19th, the anniversary of his death, by Sir Stafford Northcote, Bart.

The report of vessels arriving at Charleston from the West Indies with out clean bills of health is a canard. It has been officially and emphatically denied.

Billie Chandler fell out of a wagon, the other day, down in Florida, and sprained his back. A wagon is dangerous and inconvenient in such cases. Why didn't they "tote" him on a shutter?

Gen. John Pope has filed a claim for $26,064 for the difference of pay between that of a Brigadier-General and that of a Major-General while he was on duty according to his brevet rank, from April 1, 1866, to Oct. 28, 1862.

The Lord Provost of Edinburgh has urged upon Mr. Gladstone the desirability of creating a Secretary of State for Scotland. Scotch business is now conducted by the Lord Advocate—the Scotch Attorney-General.

In 1836 the winter was projected far into summer months, causing disastrous crop failures. Breadstuffs, for the first time in our history, were imported from Europe. The financial panic of 1837 followed the general paralysis.

The official returns give the value of the tobacco consumed in France in 1882 at 363,500,000 francs. Cigars show a total of 60,500,000 francs; cigarettes, 16,000,000; and chewing tobacco, 9,000,000. The heaviest amount, 278,000,000 francs, was for ordinary smoking tobacco.

The Presidential party will probably take water this afternoon at St. Augustine on board the Tallapoosa. It is not known what the next move will be but probably to some spot where there are no curious people who may desire to gaze upon the countenance of the great Presidential snob.

Louis J. Jennings, the New York World's correspondent, notices in London a great weariness in the public mind on the Irish question, and hears hints that Ireland might as well be turned loose to shift for itself. The end, he thinks, is inevitable—separation or a war to prevent it.

Henry D. McDaniel was recommended, yesterday, by a compromise committee and was unanimously nominated by the convention for Governor of Georgia. The result gives general satisfaction and as the Republicans declare that they will not nominate at all, Mr. McDaniel will probably have an easy race to run.

Here is another extract from the testimony relative to the Tewksbury almshouse. One of the witnesses, a female nurse, testified as follows:

I was in the almshouse two years, and had the infant ward for six months. There were fifteen of the larger children. Dr. Helen Marsh was in charge. The babies died and the older children were sent away. The babies were fed on good milk. They could not keep it on their stomachs. I didn't know what sickened them. I have been accustomed to the care of babies, and never saw any others that all sickened alike and died. From the infant ward I went into the Insane Hospital, where I was a nurse. The inmates numbered twenty-nine, all females. I have seen them abused. One woman who was brought into my ward from Mr. French's ward lived six hours. She said she had been thrown down stairs and kicked on the back. Another, 70 years old, said she had been choked almost to death, and showed the marks of fingers on her neck. Nearly all of them complained of cruelty at the hands of Mr. French. The woman who died in six hours did not seem to be very sick from disease. She had the marks of a man's boot on her back.

"You tickle me and I'll tickle you" is the watchword of the Mutual Admiration Press Association in this State.

Mr. Carnegie, a great manufacturer, is of opinion that the day is close at hand when steel will altogether supersede the use of iron.

There are a great many rafts of timber in the river, causing considerable inconvenience to vessels in reaching their wharves.

Information was received here late yesterday afternoon to the effect that Mr. Patrick McGowan, of Raleigh, was better and that the anxiety of the family had been greatly relieved.

We are informed that the work of numbering the streets is progressing in an altogether satisfactory manner, and that there is a strong probability that the entire task will be completed by the 25 inst.

The subject of foreign missions will be discussed at the First Presbyterian Church to-night and it is expected that several of the clergymen in attendance upon the Presbytery will participate in the discussion. The public are cordially invited to attend.

Efforts are being made to establish a market house somewhere in the Third Ward, and a petition having that object in view has been in circulation for the past few days and has received a large number of signatures from those living in the Eastern section of the city. More than 300 names have already been appended to the petition by citizens of that Ward and vicinity.

Accident to a Wilmingtonian.

We regret to learn that Mr. E. V. McKenzie, formerly of this city, but now employed in the shops of the W. C. & A. Railroad, at Florence, S. C., had the misfortune yesterday, while working at what is known as a buzz planer, to get two of the fingers of his left hand badly lacerated by the machine. The wounds are not dangerous, although painful, the end of one finger having been cut off and the other split open for a considerable distance. He will probably not be able to resume work for some weeks.

Young Mrs. Wintrop.

A note from Mr. Frohman, manager of the Madison Square Theatre, in New York informs us that Mr. George L. Smith, representing his company, will arrive here in a day or two to perfect the necessary arrangements for the appearance here of the troupe. In connection with this fact Mr. Frohman tells us that the scenery, which is used in the first, second and fourth acts of "Young Mrs. Wintrop" at the Madison Square Theatre is constructed of wood and brass. The metal was cut by hand in India, for Louis C. Tiffany & Co., who imported it. In India this metal is used for decorating rooms dedicated to special ceremonials. The walls and ceiling of the scene at the Madison Square Theatre contain over two hundred oriental designs. Its full beauty can only be appreciated by a minute inspection through an opera glass. It shows the kind of house decoration which the more wealthy are now introducing in New York city homes. A duplicate of this scene will be shown with the company which is soon to appear in this city.

The celebrated "Fish Brand" Gills Twine is sold only at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

The Illustrated World

Is the title of a handsome new pictorial weekly, just issued by "Mr. James Elverson, of Philadelphia, the initial number of which has been received. If this first issue is to be taken as an index of the whole, there will be no doubt of success. It is an excellent publication, and is sure to take with the people. It is only $3 a year.

A gentleman named Montazgo, Made pencils out of plumbago; He got an attack Of pain in his back. St Jacobs Oil cured his lumbago.

Sudden Death.

A colored woman by the name of Lucy Jones, died very suddenly last night in bed at her house, corner of Market and Thirteenth street, of enlargement of the heart. She was well yesterday, but had often complained of the pain in her heart and expected to die of the disease. She went to bed last night about 11 o'clock, and had been previously singing and praying, and this morning she was found dead. Dr. Potter made an examination of the body and found that the left side was considerably larger than the right side, showing the nature of the disease. Deceased was about 35 years old, and leaves four children.

Married.

On Wednesday morning, at Fayetteville, Mr. Heman R. Hall was united in marriage to Miss Metar Huske. Rev. Joseph C. Huske performed the ceremony which made two loving hearts one. The ceremony was performed at St. John's Episcopal church, which had been adorned with flowers for the occasion, by loving hands. The groom, one of Fayetteville's cleverest young men, and his bride, one of her fairest and most cultured ladies, left for Wilmington, their future home. The good wishes of hundreds of friends accompany them thither.—News and Observer.

Mr. Shaw's Retirement.

We have been furnished for publication with a copy of the resolutions adopted by the Board of Commissioners for Pender county on the retirement from the chairmanship of that body and membership on the Board of Mr. Daniel Shaw, who has so ably and so faithfully fulfilled the duties of the position for the past six years. His services to his county, self-sacrificing, devoted services, have simply been incalculable and it is to be regretted that the state of his health has compelled his resignation. The following are the resolutions alluded to:

BURGAW, N. C., April 3, 1883.

Owing to ill-health Daniel Shaw, Chairman of the Board of County Commissioners of Pender County, handed in his resignation as a Commissioner on the 2nd day of April, 1883, whereupon the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, Daniel Shaw, Chairman of the Board of County Commissioners of Pender County, has this day resigned his membership as well as his position on the Board, and whereas the remaining members of said Board feel so sensibly the loss, that we, as well as the people have sustained in being deprived of his assistance in the management of the affairs of the county, therefore be it

Resolved, That we have watched his course in the management of the county and it gives us pleasure to bear testimony to his valuable services to the people of Pender county. His strenuous efforts in behalf of the peace and welfare of the county are well known to us all. No man could have done more.

Resolved, That we tender to Daniel Shaw our thanks for the pleasant and faithful manner in which he has discharged his duties as Commissioner and Chairman, and that we bear the most unequivocal testimony to his fidelity and ability.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread on the records as bearing testimony of our high appreciation of his great worth.

Distinguished Visitors Exp-ected.

When Col. Green, Representative-elect to Congress from this district, was last in the city, he informed us that he had received letters which led him to expect that Hon. S. S. Cox (Sunset Cox) and Senator Vance would pay him a visit this Spring and that he would organize for their benefit a grand fishing frolic, at the same time inviting us (the Editor) to accompany the party to Orton. We now learn that the visit is to take place within a few weeks, and that the visit will comprise a day at the Sound, one at Federal Point, one at Orton and one at Waccamaw, at all of which points the party will angle for fish. It is probable also, we understand, that one or two other distinguished gentlemen are to be invited on the occasion, and a grand reception in Wilmington is proposed.

Progress vs. Sentiment.

The following, which we clip from the Richmond (Va.) Religious Herald, relates to the father of Rev. James B. Taylor, D. D., of this city, and will be of interest to many of our readers:

The genius of progress is dead to the claims of sentiment. At the extreme west end of Franklin street, in this city, there has stood for a quarter of a century a simple framed building. It was erected by the late Dr. James B. Taylor, and occupied as his family residence for many years. In its neat and unadorned style it was a constant reminder of the unaffected simplicity of the man of God who had it built. Standing in the most beautiful part of the city, and embowered in vines, trees and flowers, it was, even to a passing stranger, an attractive home. But as the abode of a lovely Christian household, it possessed yet richer charms. Its gates were often
