Leprosy caused sixteen deaths in the United States during the census year.

The Wilson Siftings has concluded to issue an enlarged daily edition, with the press despatches. Success to it.

The Earl of Rosebery will shortly enter the Cabinet as Lord Privy Seal and as Minister for Scotch Affairs.

Cotton oil is extensively sold in Mexico as a substitute for lard and it is highly prized by the people, as it is much cheaper.

Louise Michel has been committed for trial at the next Paris assizes on the charge of inciting to riot. She will conduct her own defense.

New York and Brooklyn are making active preparations for celebrating the opening of the Bridge by a grand civic and military procession.

Postmaster General Gresham is getting praise from all quarters for his refusal to ride to Washington in a special car and as the guest of a railroad corporation.

Even the Northwest will not remain empty long if there are, as reported, 10,000 people arriving at St. Paul every week and moving on by the Northern Pacific and Manitoba lines.

A bill has been favorably reported in the New York Senate which proposes to double the fees of county clerk, which, says the Rochester Democrat and Chronicle, "are already large enough to make the office a bonanza."

President Arthur has formally accepted an invitation to attend the one hundred and fourteenth annual banquet of the Chamber of Commerce of the State of New York, to come off at Delmonico's on the 6th of May.

Fred Douglass, the noted quadron, whose wife died about a year ago, is reported to be married soon to a young octogenarian woman. Douglass is about 70 years old and has much money saved from lucrative positions.

Dr. Cox, of Laurens county, S. C., boasts of a cow that gives six gallons of milk a day regularly, leaving a sufficiency for the calf. There are said to be men in Texas who own thousands of cows and yet use condensed milk.

Ex-Governor Hendricks is in New York, on his way home from Florida, where he passed a month or more. To a reporter he said recently: "Don't ask me about the Presidency; I am out of the race altogether. I am in no sense a candidate."

The gold annually taken from the Siberian mines is estimated to be worth $6,000,000. The first discovery of the metal in that country was made at the beginning of the present century. The average cost of an expedition in search of gold is estimated at $3,000.

The publishers of the Baltimore Daily and Sunday News have not authorized any one to receive subscriptions and collect money in advance for their paper, and warn the public against a man who is making such representations in the Southern States.

The Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle ventures the prediction that one young man who is destined to make an honorable record in the history of that State at no distant day is Goodloe Yancey, of Athens, son of the late Hon. W. L. Yancey, the "silver-tongued orator of the South."

The Norddeutsche Zeitung, of Berlin, replying to comments of the French Press on an article which it published recently, says that if the monarchy should be restored in France it is not very likely that Germany would declare war against the former country forthwith.

Russian florists are in San Remo and Ventimiglia contracting for the purchase of all the flowers in the principal gardens for the festivities in Moscow. The flowers will be forwarded every morning by a special train of refrigerated cars and will be used mostly for decorating the Kremlin.

Owners are wanted of $10,575,000 bonds of the United States now past due. The Treasury officials think the bonds have been mislaid or destroyed. It is also stated that $15,000,000 of the $49,000,000 of fractional currency used during the war, and some $26,000,000 of greenback notes issued since 1863, have been lost.

Farmers in the United States have $12,210,253,363 of capital invested in their business. This sum includes farms, implements, live stock, fertilizers and fences.

Massachusetts fisheries employ 25,117 persons, and at least 100,000 persons are supported by this industry, which has just passed through an unusually prosperous year in 1882.

A Turin jeweller has made a tiny boat formed of a single pearl, which shape it assumes in swell and concavity. Its sail is of beaten gold, studded with diamonds, and the binnacle light at its prow is a perfect ruby. An emerald serves as its rudder, and its stand is a slab of ivory. It weighs less than half an ounce; its price is $5,000.

For the first time since Mr. Raymond's death, the editorial columns of the New York Times are controlled by an American. The retiring editor, Mr. Foord, is a Scotchman. He made a better trade in Brooklyn. Besides his salary, $8,000 a year, he has, on the Union-Argus, a controlling interest and 25 out of the 100 shares made over to him.

Day's length 13 hours and 24 minutes.

There were no interments in Oakdale Cemetery this week.

Sunset to-morrow afternoon at 40 minutes past 6 o'clock.

Full moon to-morrow morning at 13 minutes past 6 o'clock.

There was one interment, that of an adult—in Bellevue Cemetery this week.

For Pocket Knives or Table Cutlery, go to JACOB'S Hardware Depot.

The celebrated 'Fish Brand' Gills Twine is sold only at JACOB'S Hardware Depot.

There were five interments in Pine Forest Cemetery this week, all of whom were adults.

The Register of Deeds issued two marriage licenses this week, both of which were for colored couples.

Mr. James C. Lumsden has reopened for the Summer his ice cream saloon on North Front street, near Chestnut.

Rev. Dr. Taylor, of this city, was in Raleigh yesterday and preached to a large congregation in the Baptist Church last night.

We saw yesterday a couple of lemons, grown in the conservatory of Mrs. Thomas W. Brown on Orange street. They were the first we have ever seen hereabouts, and will compare with any raised in Florida.

Mr. John E. Ince, the head of the Ince Comedy Company, served as a powder-monkey on board the Confederate cruiser Shenandoah, under Capt. Jas. I. Waddell, during the late war.

Mr. Thos. L. Tullock, the new postmaster at Washington City, who was recently appointed to succeed Mr. Ainger, is here on a short visit with Mr. Horace Springer, and is the guest of Mrs. J. H. Springer, on Market street.

We were pleased to receive a call this morning from Mr. John J. Conoley, formerly of this city but now of Brunswick, Ga., where he forms one of the Cape Fear colonists established in business in that thriving city.

A bullwhacker named Tom Melling, got cold in a wound at Fort Snelling. It disabled his arm. But then, like a charm, St. Jacobs Oil cured up the swelling.

Exports Foreign. Nor, barque Sigurd Jarl, Captain Olsen, cleared to-day for London with 90 casks spirits and 3,724 barrels rosin, valued at $7,282.55, shipped by Messrs Paterson, Downing & Co.

In Distress. Schr. Melvin, Capt. Tolson, from Dominica, W. I., with molasses and fruit, bound for Newbern, N. C., put in here this morning short of provisions, and made the best of her mishap by selling a large portion of the fruit with which she was laden.

Cotton. The receipts of cotton at this port for the week ending with to-day foot up 467 bales, as against 839 bales for corresponding week of last year. A decrease this week of 372 bales. The receipts for the crop year to date foot up 124,381 bales, against 133,784 bales to same date last year, a decrease this year of 9,403 bales.

Dr. Hoge to Preach. Rev. Dr. Hoge will preach in the First Presbyterian Church of this city on to-morrow morning. At night he will, by request, repeat a discourse recently delivered in the New York Avenue Church of Washington City, on "The Finality of the Scriptures," being a vindication of the Bible with reference to the latest popular assaults upon it.

The Odd Fellows. On Thursday, the 26th inst., the anniversary celebration of the introduction of the Order of Odd Fellowship in this city, on which occasion the Rev. F. W. E. Poschau, of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church, will deliver the address. The proceedings will be public.

Katie Putnam. Katie Putnam is to play in Charlotte on the 25th, in Lena, the Madcap.—Could not some of her former admirers in this city induce her to show here?—Perhaps if she were guaranteed there would be no presentation of watches, immortelles or prize package jewelry she would come and give us Little Nell in Old Curiosity Shop. We would be glad to see her once more, however, under any circumstances.

The "Cash Carrier." Aside from those who visit the dry goods store of Messrs. Brown & Roddick for the purpose of making purchases, a goodly number have been attracted thither to-day to see the working of their newly arranged "cash carrier." It is the only one of the kind South of Washington, D. C., and besides being a curious and interesting novelty, it shows the energy of the firm in keeping abreast with every improvement of the times.

A fine assortment of Guns and Pistols at Jacob's Hardware Depot.

A New Craft. Sheriff Manning has had a fishing and hunting boat constructed recently which is something of a novelty. It is a flat bottomed, square-ended, scow-built craft, 40 feet long by 12 feet wide, having a cabin 15 by 9 feet in dimensions. There is a small caboose for cooking and a wash room, each separate from the cabin and from each other. The cabin is divided into two rooms of equal size, in one of which there are six berths for sleeping, and the other is to be used as a sitting room. The windows and doors are provided with moveable blinds by which to keep out the sun, and wire screens to prevent the entrance of mosquitoes.—There are to be awnings over the vacant spaces forward and abaft the cabin, and everything made as comfortable as could be wished. The craft is to be propelled by oars, is built in the most substantial manner, and is peculiarly suited for the enjoyment of a few days' leisure in gunning and fishing.

One of our subscribers, a farmer, who lives a few miles from the city, made us a brief call this morning, and while here stated that the crops were looking well in his vicinity and wherever he had been, and that the corn, especially, was looking exceedingly well and thrifty.

Look Before you Leap. A. & I. SHRIER are now showing the best line of Mens, Boys' and Childrens' Clothing that has ever been brought to this Market. Here buyers will find it greatly to their interest, to inspect their stock of Spring Clothing before purchasing elsewhere.

Humpty Dumpty.

[PUBLISHED BY REQUEST] No doubt you've heard of Hewlette's "Tri-Mammoth Humpty Show." It would take a giant to rule it in the fly towns where they go.

In Newbern they had a large house To witness the grand display Of animals trained, if only a mouse, But soon elsewhere they took their way.

Mistortunes in Charlotte were great, For they expected a first-class show, But they hissed and hooted until it was late. And Humpty says: "Now, d—n you, go!"

To Florence they had to go, Kidding in a first-class ear, To close engagements with the show; Oh com. eh. here la pa.

Now, you may possibly wonder Why the boys no money made, They took their toddy asunder, And of course the money was paid.

No, boys, I tell you candid, It's nice with a first-class show; No doubt you like it splendid, But stay home, Humpty, don't go. J. T. S.

Modern Chivalry.

Dr. Hoge's second and last lecture at the Opera House, last night, was well attended and his treatment of the subject, "Modern Chivalry," was keenly enjoyed and highly appreciated. It was a scholarly production which received the most unqualified praise of the most severe critics. Dr. Hoge is one of the best lecturers, as he is one of the most accomplished scholars, in the whole country and his effort last night added materially to his already well-earned laurels as a writer whose diction is superb and as an orator with few equals. The subject, always interesting and instructive, was made doubly so by the splendid and original manner in which he presented it to his hearers.—He won their profound and earnest attention at the outset and kept it to the close. We have not the space in which to attempt a review of the lecture or to give even a synopsis of its many rich and poetic beauties. We can only say that it was an elegant and eloquent production, possessing the music of poetry, the interesting truths of history and a rich mine of instructive ideas.

Another Veteran Dead.

Mr. Richard H. Bordeaux, well known in this city, where he resided for several years past, doing business at the corner of Market and South Water Streets, died very suddenly in this city this morning, at his residence on Sixth, between Dock and Orange streets, of angina pectoris. He had been suffering severely from pains in the heart for more than a year past and frequently stated his end would be sudden. Yesterday he was seen on the streets apparently well and at 7 o'clock this morning he was a dead man.

It seems that Mr. Bordeaux was ill and suffering during the night, and this morning, about 7 o'clock, he arose suddenly from the bed and rushed out into the yard, clutching wildly at his heart and gasping as off for air. He fell and was then raised and carried back into the house, where he died in a few minutes. He was, we think, about 40 years of age and leaves a wife and six children in what will, we fear, prove to be destitute circumstances.

Mr. Bordeaux was a native of old New Hanover, now Pender county. He enlisted early in the war, in the Third Regiment, N. C. State Troops, and was made Sergeant-Major of that gallant command. He was captured at Spotsylvania. He was an excellent soldier, brave, chivalrous and daring, and his death adds one more name to the long list of heroes who sleep their last sleep in Oakdale.
