MR. PARNELL.

Reasons why he cannot come to America—Aim of the Explosives Bill.

LONDON, April 21.—Mr. Parnell tacitly admitted to-day that the explosives bill made it at least imprudent for him to attend the Philadelphia convention of Irishmen.

Mr. Parnell does not deny that up to the 9th of April he had strong hopes of being able to attend the Philadelphia convention, nor that, at the date, he had completed many preparations for an extended absence from London.

On Sunday, April 8th, Mr. Parnell was about to go to America to attend a Fenian convention. On Monday, April 9th, the explosives bill was passed, and on Tuesday, April 10th, the bill was approved by the Queen and became a law.

The second section makes it a felony punishable by life imprisonment for any person to unlawfully and maliciously cause, by any explosive substance, an explosion of a nature likely to cause serious injury to property, whether the injury occurs or not.

Section 5 reads: "Any person who by the supply of, or solicitation for, money, the providing of promises, the supply of materials, or in any manner whatsoever procures, counsels, aids or abets, or is accessory to, the commission of any crime under this act, shall be guilty of felony and shall be liable to be tried and punished for that crime as if he had been guilty as principal."

Section five is the section which, it is argued, would have made Mr. Parnell's attendance at the Philadelphia Convention a felony, punishable under the explosives bill, provided the Convention should have adopted or approved any policy which the British government should choose to act.

STATE NEWS.

Rutherfordton Banner: A lucky ticket holder in Shelby has drawn $2,000 in the Louisiana Lottery, and now that section will send 'em several thousand back.

Laurinburg Exchange: Rev. A. D. Cohen, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Harrison, of Rockingham, is conducting a series of meetings at the Baptist Church in this place.

Newbern Nut Shell: Our market was flooded with oysters this morning. There were so many in market that the owner of one cargo of 700 bushels of fine Portsmouth oysters, finding it impossible to effect a sale at any price, left with his cargo, intending to re-plant them in the river below Newbern.

Tarboro Guide: Two colored men on J. W. Draughan's place, near Whitakers, quarreled. Wm. Lett threw Wilson Whitfield down, struck him with his fist first, then got a piece of fence rail and struck him twice on the head, while lying on the ground. Whitfield died in 3 hours. Lett is in Tarboro jail.

Newton Enterprise: North Ireddell has been the scene of another horrible murder. John Redmond was on Wednesday assaulted by his cousin, Lum Redmond, and killed. He was first shot and then stabbed in the breast. The difficulty arose from a disagreement as to the ownership of a certain tract of land. Lum has not yet been arrested.

Rockingham Rocket: The fruit is not all killed by a large majority.—Rev. Alexander, who has been pastor of the Presbyterian church here for the past two years, has gone to Texas, having been appointed by the Presbytery to preach out there.—There has been a revival of religion going on at the M. E. Church for several days. Little interest has been manifested yet, but we have no doubt that much good has been done.

Asheville Citizen: We learn by information from Madison county of a most unfortunate occurrence which took place in the Laurel section a few days ago. One H. K. Gilbert was sitting on a fence flourishing a pistol. His little child was behind him. It is said that he fired to frighten a horse passing by; another account is that the pistol was discharged without object. At all events, the ball entered the brain of the unfortunate child, killing it instantly.

Charlotte Journal-Observer: Nothing has yet been done towards tearing down the condemned steeple of the First Presbyterian church. It will cost about $3,000 to replace the steeple.—Tom Smith, who threw a brick into a window of the Carolina Central train, a few days ago, near Matthew's Station, has been arrested and committed to prison. He lived at Stout's, on the C. C. Railroad.—The brick walls of the new Biddle Institute building have now reached a considerable height and been seen from the city. It is to be an exceedingly fine building, and as a public structure will not be surpassed by any in the state, with the exception of the postoffice at Raleigh. Its cost will be $40,000.

Fayetteville Gazette: There are living in this township two colored women, Hannah Murphy and Hannah Edgett, one living on the plantation of Mr. D. M. McDonald and the other adjoining it, who have, respectively, 24 and 18 children.—An old citizen of Fayetteville, thoroughly identified with its interests and a man of great business shrewdness, the other day expressed the opinion that real estate here had in many instances advanced 20 per cent., and that there was a general increase of value throughout.—A short time since Justice Adams of Carver's Creek sent an officer with a search warrant for stolen chickens to the house of Robt. Jones, colored. Jones hastened to the house on being called, and when he got there took a very hearty drink of water. Then he turned and fell dead.—A few days ago Mr. Priest of Little River lost a pocket-book containing $320 on the road just about Davis's Store on Haymount, and Andrew McKay, colored, found it. He took it to his wife's father, and on consultation they carried it to Mr. J. M. Smith, Sr., who advertised it in last week's Observer.

Thus Mr. Priest recovered his money, and generously asked McKay to name his own price; but the latter refused $50 and $25 as too much, and would take only $10.—The redistricting of the State has changed our Congressional district in common with others, and renders necessary a meeting of the District Committee. The former chairman, Capt. V. V. Richardson, of Columbus, is now in the Charlotte district, and Capt. K. J. Braddy, of Bladen, next on the list, will next week issue a call for a meeting to be held on Wednesday, May 9th.

A $20.00 Bible Reward. The publishers of Rutledge's Monthly offer twelve valuable rewards in their Monthly for May, among which is the following: We will give $20 in gold to the person telling us which is the shortest chapter in the New Testament Scriptures (not the New Revision) by May 10th, 1883. Should two or more correct answers be received, the reward will be divided. The money will be forwarded to the winner May 15th, 1883. Persons trying for the reward must send 50 cents in silver (no postage stamps taken) with their answer, for which they will receive the June Monthly, in which the name and address of the winner of the reward and the correct answer will be published, and in which several more valuable rewards will be offered. Address, Rutledge Publishing Company, Easton, Penna.
