THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VII. WILMINGTON, N. C. TUESDAY, APRIL 24, 1883. NO. 98

The Daily Review has the largest bona fide circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

Mr. Charles A. Dana and his party of pleasure seekers are in the Yosemite Valley.

Mr. Walton, "the plunger," is getting ready to build in New York "the finest hotel in the world."

The rate of interest in the open market in Mexico is 10 per cent, and borrowers on mortgage pay 10 to 12.

The Queen of Italy has a Neapolitan physician who sits at the royal table to prevent her Majesty from eating unwholesome food.

The legislature of Tennessee fixed the pay of firemen and policemen of Memphis at $70 per month. They are now getting $60.

The Pope's confidant, Count Giovanni de Heris, is dead. His real name was John Smith, and he began life as a peasant at Dublin.

"Judge Hoadley for Governor and Mr. Pendleton for Senator" is regarded by the Cincinnati Commercial as the Democratic ticket favored in that part of Ohio.

Mrs. Frances R. Phillips, wife of Solicitor-General Phillips, died suddenly in Washington City on Saturday last. The remains were brought to North Carolina and interred at Chapel Hill.

The New York Tribune declares that public sentiment in the South heartily approves of election frauds. And that is the way the New York Tribune prays to its father in hell every day.

Mr. Chazal, a wealthy Jewish banker of London, is now in Constantinople trying to negotiate the purchase of a tract of land in Mesopotamia, on which he wishes to place a large Jewish colony.

There are reports of a terrible cyclone in Georgia. Alabama and Mississippi last Sunday. The village of Beau regard, Miss., is entirely destroyed. The loss of life has been great and many persons were severely injured.

The editor of the Jacksonville Times-Union scouts the idea of Florida becoming anti-Democrat and adds: "Northern men who come here as Republicans are no more desirous of negro rule than Southern men who are Democrats by inheritance and conviction."

Truck farmers of South Georgia are said to be shipping cabbage and realizing from five to seven cents per pound. They make from $75 to $100 per acre on them. The seed were sown last summer and the plants set out in the fall.

Sad to relate, Secretary Chandler, of Uncle Sam's Navee, is not so much of a sailor as he might be. It is said that he was fearfully sick on the recent run along the coast to Savannah on the Tallapoosa. Billy is not exactly a ship chandler, although he is said to be pretty good as a corn-chandler or a rye-chandler.

The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 186 bales.

Sol. Haas, Esq., Traffic Manager of the Associated Railways, was in the city to-day.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of Bellevue Cemetery will be held to-morrow evening, in Rankin Hall.

Our enterprising friend, Mr. Owen Hollingsworth, of the firm of Hollingsworth & Walker, leaves here to-night for Kentucky where he will purchase a lot of horses and mules.

The blow from the Northeast, which it was feared would come upon us last night, did not arrive on schedule time and the storm signal was lowered, but to-day there has been considerable wind from the West.

Messrs Parker & Taylor, who have the contract for putting up the street signs, are busily engaged in that duty, and will have all the required signs in position by Saturday night next. After that time one "may look for a sign" and the sign may be found.

The Storm.

We learn from a gentleman who arrived from Raleigh this morning that the storm of yesterday was severe in that city and all along the lines between here and there. The Chapel Hill railroad was badly washed, and considerable damage done at other places.

The Gas Pipes.

Quite a number of hands are at work on North Water street overhauling the gas pipes, which were told are leaking in some places. Two or three small leaks have already been found and stopped, but we understand that work will be continued until the entire line has been examined and repaired wherever it is found necessary.

A sick officer out at Fort Scott, Got his muscles all tied in a knot. He is now out again. And says for all pain. St. Jacobs Oil goes right to the spot.

Numbering Houses.

Parties wishing nickel plated numbers for houses will please leave word with Messrs. Richards or Turek, at Commercial Hotel.

This must be done at once as the orders will be sent to New York to be made to order.

Temporary numbers will be put on the houses as the finer numbers will not be completed until about the fifth of May, or a little later.

To Arrive To-Night.

Rev. Dr. W. H. Milburn, the "blind man eloquent," will arrive in this city on the 9:30 train from the North to-night. He will lecture at the Opera House on Wednesday and Thursday nights, his subjects being "Sargent Smith Prentiss, America's most eloquent orator, and the flush times of the Mississippi," for the first, and "Our Best Society," for the second lecture. He will be introduced by Rev. Joseph R. Wilson, D. D., of the First Presbyterian Church.

Something Worth Knowing.

Butter made in May and June can be kept sweet and good until the ensuing fall and winter, if one has a cool place for storage; otherwise it is somewhat difficult. Roll butter may be placed in tight casks or tubs, and covered with strong brine. This will exclude the air and keep the butter sweet in a cool room or cellar. Orange county dairymen use the following mixture in preparing butter which is to be kept for some time: To ten ounces of fine salt add two ounces of saltpeter and two ounces of brown sugar. The different ingredients are mixed together, and an ounce of this mixture is well worked into every pound of this butter. Willard, in his "Butter Book," says that butter so treated, if closely packed and stored in a cool place, will keep sound for several years.

Proposed Coast Railroad.

There has been considerable talk of late of the proposed line through by the coast from Charleston to Norfolk, via Wilmington. It is claimed that by this route the distance between Charleston and New York will be 100 miles less than by the present route. The new line proposed is to start from Mt. Pleasant, opposite Charleston, and run North to Georgetown, thence to Little River, thence to Wilmington and from Wilmington on up the coast via Newbern to Norfolk. Mr. H. Blanchard, of Boston, representing a syndicate worth $20,000,000, has subscribed, it is said, $1,000,000 to the capital stock of this road, the construction of which, we fear, lies far in the dim future.

Ince in Savannah.

The Savannah News says: "The Theatre held a full house last night, and the audience was happy. The lateness of the season promised a light attendance at 'Fun in a Boarding School,' but the character of the play and popularity of the original, inimitable comedian, Mr. Ince, drew one of the most appreciative audiences of the amusement season. The play is a laughable extravaganza, and the company is one of the best comedy organizations on the Southern stage. The leading character, Mr. Ince, is a star among the comedians. His support, including Mr. Charles Harris, Mr. Harry Mack and Miss Ellani as 'Jessie Fairlove,' and Emma Jones as 'Samantha Smythe,' is of the first rank. The musical features last night were ably sustained, and the entire performance was satisfactory. The performers were greeted with frequent applause, and Mr. Harris and Messrs. Jones and Ellani responded to encors. Mr. Ince in his delivery was one of the features of the evening."

Sale of Real Estate.

Mr. Marsden Bellamy, Commissioner, sold to-day at the Court House door the following pieces of real property belonging to the estate of the late J. W. Strauss:

Lot corner Second street and Beaty's alley, 45x130 feet, subject to widow's dower, $250.

Lot South of and adjoining above 32x100 feet, $500.

Lot corner Brunswick and Second streets, 90x155 feet, $1,800.

The sales will be confirmed by the Court.

A Dangerous Dose.

Mr. George W. Brinkley, a merchant at Magnolia, Duplin county, had occasion yesterday morning to take a dose of quinine, which was prepared and swallowed, when, to his consternation, it was found to be morphine. Dr. M. K. Devane, whose office is within a few steps and who, fortunately, happened to be there, was summoned without delay and the usual antidotes were at once administered, by which the sufferer was relieved of his fearful dose, thus escaping what appeared to be certain death. At last accounts Mr. Brinkley was as comfortable as could be expected after passing through such an ordeal, and in a fair way to complete recovery. It was a narrow and most fortunate escape.

City Court.

There was quite a number of candidates at the Mayor's reception this morning.

Monroe Turner, colored, was the first one called. The charge against him was carrying concealed weapons. He was found guilty and required to give bond in the sum of $50 for his appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court, in default of which he was committed.

Tena Wells, colored, was charged with the same offense, with the same requirements and the same result. Mary Lewis, colored, for disorderly conduct, was required to pay a fine of $5 or go below for 30 days. She went below.

John Williams, colored, commonly known as "dumny," was found asleep under a house, and was sent below for 5 days.

Renting the Stalls.

The renting of stalls in the Front Street and Fourth Street Markets was made at 11 a. m. to-day by Messrs Cronly & Morris, auctioneers. There were a good many in attendance and the bidding for choice was brisk and somewhat exciting, both to the spectators and the butchers, who were most deeply interested. The sale was held at the Front Street Market House and the following are the premiums at which the different stalls were knocked off, with the names of the purchaser:

Nos. 1, 3 and 4 were knocked off to J. R. Melton at $150 each—$450; No. 5 to T. P. Sykes at $100; No. 6 to Geo. F. Tilley at $155; No. 7 to W. M. Hays, Jr., at $50; No. 8 to J. C. Borneman at $90; No. 9 to J. R. Melton at $35; No. 10 to W. M. Hays, Jr. for H. Hintze at $50; No. 11 to T. A. Watson at $5; No. 12 to Ambrose Moore at $20; No. 13 to T. A. Watson at $5; No. 14 to H. Mumford at $30; Nos. 15 and 16 to T. P. Sykes at $10 each—$20. Stall No. 2, which is in the centre of the building, near the entrance, was then put on sale for the premium, it being understood that it was to be devoted to the sale of vegetables and poultry, and was knocked off to J. R. Melton at $120. The other fruit and vegetable stalls, numbering from 1 to 8 inclusive, were then disposed of at the following premiums: No. 1 to O. H. Kenney at $40; No. 2 to Spotswood Allen at $18; Nos. 3 and 4 to W. J. Mottat $15 each—$30. No. 5 to C. H. Hill at $10; No. 6 to Alex. Morris at $7.50; No. 7 to B. Scott at $7, and No. 8 to H. C. Turner, at $8.50; making a total $1,201 received as premiums for choice of stalls in the Front Street Market House.

FOURTH STREET MARKET.

The sale of premiums for the choice of stalls in this market was then begun, the first being for stalls devoted to the sale of meats and numbering from 1 to 6, both inclusive. These were disposed of at the following premiums: Nos. 1 and 5 to J. R. Melton at $65 each—$130; No. 2 to T. A. Watson at $45; No. 3 to T. P. Sykes at $50, and Nos. 4 and 6 to W. J. Mott at $30 each—$60. The fruit and vegetable stalls, numbering from 1 to 5, both inclusive, were then disposed of at the following premiums: No. 1 to T. A. Watson at $11; No. 2 to J. P. Bowen at $9; No. 3 to J. R. Melton at $5; No. 4 to T. A. Watson at $5.50, and No. 5 to E. G. Barnitz at $6, making total premiums received from the sale of stalls at the Fourth Street Market $321.50, and a grand total from the sales in both markets of $1,522.50.

It should be observed in taking accounts of the above that only one half of the premium was required to be paid at the time of sale, which makes the snug little sum of $761.25 added to the city Treasury to-day.

Red Cedar.

We saw an unusually handsome piece of cabinet work at the new restaurant to be opened soon by Mr. R. J. Scarborough, on North Water street, near Princess. It is in the shape of a counter, made from red cedar and curly pine, and handsomely ornamented. Red cedar is a scarce wood, and is worth about $75 per thousand feet. This lumber is from logs ordered by Mr Scarborough from Onslow county two years ago, and he has had some furniture made from it. It is worth more on the market than black walnut. The work alluded to was done by Mr. C. D. Morrill.

A Fair Trial Has Convinced

OUR FRIENDS AND CUSTOMERS OF THE SUPERIORITY OF Royster's Pure Candies. Every one knows that CANDY equal to Royster's is sold in New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Richmond at 75 cents, and $1 per pound, and in selling it at 50 cents in Wilmington the price was considered very low.

To satisfy the demands of our customers, however, we reduced the price to Three Pounds for $1.00 which is strictly cost price.

If CANDY is sold at 25 cents, or five pounds for $1, there must be an inferiority in the quality, for men nowadays know better than to sell below cost.

We leave the PUBLIC to judge of ROYSTER'S CANDY, and will continue to sell it, for the present
