MORE TESTIMONY.

The Buffalo (N. Y.) Courier, has a correspondent who has travelled extensively in the South, and has given, through the columns of that paper, his views of the people in this section. He says, very truthfully, that all the stories told about social ostracism of Northerners by people in the South are magnificent bugaboos which have not a shadow of foundation in fact...

There are 2,500 acres now devoted to gardening for market at Mobile, and next year the acreage will be doubled. The net revenue to Mobile last year from this source was $400,000, and the industry is only three years old...

There are in the limits of New York city 78,368 buildings occupied wholly or in part as dwelling houses. There are 200,000 families, with an average of sixteen persons to a dwelling. About 32,000 families own the houses they live in, leaving 168,000 families in rented houses.

Decline of Man. Nervous Weakness, Dyspepsia, Impotence, Sexual Debility, cured by "Wells' Health Renewer," $1.

SHORTS.

The past March, notwithstanding the dynamite excitements, has been the coldest in thirty-eight years. There are said to be 100 practicing young lawyers in New Haven, Conn., whose income does not average $15 per week.

Under a new Canadian law women have the right to vote if they have in their own right the property qualification required of men. Flowers decorate the horses, driver and footman of the carriage in which brides are carried to church this season in New York city.

"I am filled with Holy Ghost powder, and it will explode on somebody," was the blasphemous remark of one of the female soldiers in the Salvation Army, at Syracuse, the other day.

The Democrat is preparing to make things lively in the next Congress for Republican officials. Investigation will be the order of the day, and many Republicans will be tarred with the Democratic sticks.

A Pawnee City grocer exhibits the following "order" received from one of his customers: "Please send me by better two pounds of sloughor, a black in brush, five pounds of coffee, and some little nails. My wife had a baby last night also two padlocks and a monkey wrench."

The matron of a Madgeon hospital in Philadelphia says that the inmates are "generally the daughters of good families and have received fair educations, but show by their conduct that they are ignorant of discipline and have evidently been accustomed to very lax home training. Strange to say, most of our inmates that we are now receiving are Sunday school scholars."

Oregon had less than 172,000 population in 1880, and report says that, within three or four months, 2,000 emigrants have arrived there by ocean steamers. If that rate of growth could be maintained, Oregon would give a strong sign that she intends to grow up with the rest of the country. Thus far she has been the most backward of the Western States except Nevada.

national capital. "It would have saved us a good deal if he had done it," the first speaker remarked, grimly. "Oh, I'm glad he did not," was the significantly ambiguous retort; "it would be a lasting disgrace to Massachusetts to have him die outside the State."

Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe expresses the opinion that the South will in the next ten years make rapid progress in all internal developments looking to the gradual building up of places now lying idle for want of energy and capital. A better class of immigrants will soon seek the fertile fields of the South, and it is only a question of time before it will be swarming with manufacturers and industrial pursuits equal to Manchester or Lyons.

The Chicago Tribune says: "It does not involve much prophetic risk to predict that we are on the eve in this country of the greatest activity in land investments that has ever been seen. The Englishman and Yankee are buying it up by wholesale."

The acreage of land devoted to the cultivation of wheat in the United States has within the last ten years extended from 19,000,000 to more than 36,000,000. In the year 1880 the States grew 60,000,000 quarters of wheat, of which upwards of 25,000,000 were exported.

MOONSHINE. Arabis studying the English language. Arabi is a noble example for editors.

A baby was killed by the kick of a horse at Louisville, Colorado, recently. Exchange. There's nothing remarkable about that. It would have been if the horse had been killed by the kick of the baby.

"Pa, whose funeral is that?" "It's Mr. Truman's, my son; and an excellent man he was. "Why didn't the papers have a long account of him, pa?" "I really don't know my son, "Pa, perhaps he wasn't a gambler."

PERSONAL. Horatio Seymour approves of Governor Cleveland's policy as Governor, and his faith in his future. Judge Davis and his bride, who have been passing their honeymoon in the Yosemite Valley, have returned to San Francisco.

The famous Baron Stutz is probably a unique instance of an ennobled interior. He was created a nobleman by the Grand Duke of Baden. The orphan house attached to the Convent of Lichenthal was founded by Stutz.

According to the Morning Journal, the editor's library of the Chinese newspaper in New York includes a full set of patent office reports, Walter Scott and Victor Hugo inflections, and Robert Ingersoll and Thomas Payne in the 83.

Eight Philadelphia artists exhibited pictures in the Paris Salon this year. The list, with the titles of the pictures, is as follows: Miss Dodson, "Les Bacides"; Mrs. A. Harrison, "Les Amateurs"; and "Un Esclave"; A. G. Heaton, portrait; Ridgway D. Knight, "Sans Dot"; Miss Margaret Lesley, "Vieux Fermier, Nantucket"; Mrs. Merritt, portrait of Minister Lowell; John Sargent, "Portraits d'Enfants"; Jules Stewart, portrait and "Un Cour a Caire."

MONROE, MICH., Sept. 25, 1875. SIRS—I have been taking Hop Bitters for inflammation of kidneys and bladder. It has done for me what four doctors failed to do. The effect of Hop Bitters seemed like magic to me. W. L. CARTER.

It was Jobbins who was so lost to a conscientiousness of future punishment as to perpetrate the following on a friend lately. They were passing a barnyard, and at the sight of an ox pecking over the fence, Jobbins exclaimed: "What family of birds does that ox remind you of?" Of course the friend gave it up, and as Jobbins sought shelter behind a tree, he said: "The peck-ox."

Better than $10,000. "I spent over $10,000, in 23 years," said Major H. W. Hines, of Boston, Mass. "In being doctored for epilepsy. I employed the physicians in New Orleans, St. Louis, N. York, Phila., Boston, London and Paris, but all to no purpose. Samarian Nervine has cured me entirely."

The prize-fighter should be paid in English money. The pounds are symbolic of his "profession."

What Seven Could not do. NASHVILLE, Tenn., April 6, 1881. H. H. WARNER & Co.: SIRS—Seven physicians could not do for me what your Safe Kidney and Liver Cure accomplished. Hopelessly sick with kidney diseases, it restored me to perfect health. JACOB MYERS.

MISCELLANEOUS. HOME COMFORT. AFTER A RAINY RIDE A COUNTRY PHYSICIAN TELLS WHAT HE THINKS OF SOME PEOPLE. "I wish to gracious some people would learn when they need a doctor and when they don't," exclaimed Doctor E—, as he entered his house in a cozy little village in the interior of the State of New York, after a tedious night ride of many miles. "I have been down among the mountains to see a man, who the messenger said, was very sick and not likely to live 'till morning, unless he had immediate help; and found him suffering from a rather sharp attack of colic, which his family might have relieved in ten minutes, if they had a grain of sense and two or three simple remedies in the house. But no; they must remain ignorant as pigs, and when the least ache or pain takes them, send for a doctor, whether they ever pay him or not."
