JOSH. T. JAMES, Editor & Prop. WILMINGTON, N. C. WEDNESDAY, MAY 9 1883.

The State of Alabama now supports four normal schools, three of which are for colored people; and of these two have colored principals.

The fame of an American lady doctor is declared by Nature to have "spread far and wide over North China."

Iowa, which has heretofore been set down as reliably Republican, is reported to be so intensely wrought up over the Prohibition question that her political outcome is less certain hereafter.

The distress prevailing in Ireland was called attention to in the House of Lords on the 23d ultimo by Lord Dunraven, who urged the adoption of a scheme of emigration on a large scale.

What is termed the "talking" quadrille has been introduced in England at dancing parties. An amusing dialogue is kept up between the dancers, somewhat in harmony with the movement of the figures.

The Dutch Universal exhibition, which was opened at Amsterdam last week, is the first enterprise of the kind in which Holland has embarked.

Better than $10,000. "I spent over $10,000, in 23 years," said Major H. W. Hines, of Boston, Mass., "in being doctored for epilepsy."

Queen Victoria allows none of her children to see her without special permission. Logan and Mahone is one of the latest of the multitudinous tickets suggested for 1884.

Proctor Knott's chances for the Democratic nomination for Governor of Kentucky are said to be better than those of any other candidate. Rufus Hatch, better known as "Uncle Rufus," says that he would like to be the editor, for just twenty-four hours of every newspaper in the land.

Historian Bancroft sets an example, at 83 which younger men might profit by. He never tells the same story twice to the same person, and he tells a great many of them, too.

Ex-Senator David Davis, of Illinois, has been interviewed at considerable length in San Francisco. He refused to talk a bout politics, but was quite ready to suggest "improvements" for the Yosemite Valley.

but the ruling applies to all of them and must result in the opening of a great many colored schools.

MOONSHINE.

Seems a queer thing that all of the men loafers should seem the least able to earn their bread.—Sporting Times.

It doesn't take a Northern invalid very long to get well in Florida. When the first week's hotel bill is presented, he generally says "I guess I'm well enough to start for home this afternoon."—The Judge.

From aesthetic Boston comes this bit of wit: "We were eating our supper, and Mrs Dodge was cooking beefsteak. I asked my little girl how she would have her steak cooked. She replied, 'I will have it tender and true!'"

There is an Irishman employed as a porter on a railway who brags of having a watch that keeps correct time.—He was heard to remark, upon pulling out his watch, "It the sun ain't over that hill in a minute and a half he will be late."

Medical:—"Mary Jane," said Dick-ey, "isn't this weather too cold for potatoes?" "Dickey," said Mary Jane, "it isn't cold that takes off the potatoes; it's consumption." "Oh," said Dickey, "I never lived on a farm."

A Boston man, on a recent rainy day, saw a gentleman ahead of him, with a handsome silk umbrella. Recognizing him, as he thought, as a friend, he rushed up, clapped a hand on his shoulder, and shouted, by way of a joke, "I'll take that umbrella, if you please." The individual addressed looked around and disclosed an entire stranger, but before the other could apologize he said hurriedly: "Oh, it's yours, is it? Well, I didn't know that. Here, you can have it," and broke away, leaving the umbrella in his hand.

"Dr. Benson's Celery and Chamomile Pills for the cure of Neuritis are a success."—Dr. G. P. Holman, Christianburg, Va. 50 cts. at druggists.

SHORTS.

Hear the organ with a crank— Crooked crank! What a world of measly melody tis man and monkey yank! How it jingles, In the affrighted air of noon, While the startled heaven tingles, And the dog's bark madly mingles, Like the laughter of a loon! "Ding a ling a ling tum, tum," Drones the dreary, dreadful hum Of the clinging caterwauling that so copiously clank.

From the crank, crank, crank, crank, crank, crank, From the shrieking and the creaking of the crank! The Philadelphia banks pay out this month about $600,000 in semi-annual dividends.

One paper has been found to praise Keim's appointment—the Harrisburg Telegraph. Keim edits it. Work on the Washington monument was resumed Monday. There is material enough ready to be laid to raise the structure thirty feet.

The Salt Lake Tribune predicts, and with good reason, that it will cost a great war and thousands of lives to subdue the Mormons unless they are put down pretty soon.

The twenty miles of cable street railroad in Chicago run 174 cars, the engine doing the work of 1,980 horses, and sending the cars over the four miles between the city hall and the city limits in twenty-five minutes less time than the horses could do it.

PERSONAL.

Queen Victoria allows none of her children to see her without special permission. Logan and Mahone is one of the latest of the multitudinous tickets suggested for 1884.

Proctor Knott's chances for the Democratic nomination for Governor of Kentucky are said to be better than those of any other candidate.

Rufus Hatch, better known as "Uncle Rufus," says that he would like to be the editor, for just twenty-four hours of every newspaper in the land.

The Hon. Frederick O. Prince, of Boston, wants the next National Democratic Convention held in Boston, which, he claims, is now an assured Democratic city.

Historian Bancroft sets an example, at 83 which younger men might profit by. He never tells the same story twice to the same person, and he tells a great many of them, too.

Ex-Senator David Davis, of Illinois, has been interviewed at considerable length in San Francisco. He refused to talk a bout politics, but was quite ready to suggest "improvements" for the Yosemite Valley.

John Splan writes from Chester Park to Maj. Walker, of the Spirit: "I want to predict, if Mr. Vanderbilt allows M. A. S. to be trotted this year, that she will trot a mile in 2:08. I never saw a horse in fitter condition at this season of the year."

Sir Philip H. Clarke, of London, has reported to the British syndicate which sent him to Florida in favor of purchasing 80,000 acres of land in St. John's county. The land is a portion of the Diston tract, and is said to be fertile and covered with a fine growth of yellow pine and cypress.

The Story Without an End.

Again, its great monetary value seems almost monotonous. The 155th Grand Monthly Drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery at New Orleans, on April 10th, has this record: Ticket No. 62,887 drew the first grand prize of $75,000, of which Henry M. Kiessling, of No. 188 Dearborn st., Chicago, Ill., and A. Garnier Tricot, Vermilionville, La., held each one-fifth. Ticket No. 72,692 won the second capital of $25,000—collected in one whole lump through The Manufacturers' National Bank of Troy, for M. Connolly, of Troy, N. Y. Ticket No. 52,980 won the third capital, $10,000, and was sold in fifty-one to Edwin T. Eisenberg, Jr. (collected through The Central National Bank of Philadelphia); another to H. H. Harper, of St. George's, Colleton Co., S. C.; another to Wm. H. Hampton, of Tracy City, Franklin Co., Tenn.; another to R. F. Kruger, No. 241 Fourth st., Milwaukee, Wis. The two fourth capital prizes of $6,000 each were sold to holders of tickets No. 58,507 and 26,502—two-fifths were sold to James R. Day, Malta Bend, Saline Co., Mo., and to parties in Fort Wayne, Ind., New Haven Conn. For further information apply to M. A. Dauphin, New Orleans, La., before the next drawing on June 15th, when the grand capital prize will be $150,000.

Mr. E. S. Williams, of Greensboro., N. C., says: "Brown's Iron Bitters permanently cured me of an obstinate case of dyspepsia."

The first thing a city man does when he becomes rich is to buy a farm, move into the country and bankrupt himself trying to raise enough to keep him from starving. A rich countryman, on the other hand, buys a brownstone front in the city and becomes interested in stocks, with a like result.

Startling Debility. Both Nervous and General, Lack of Self confidence and Will Power, Impaired Memory, Despondency, Weak Back and kindred affections, are common results of youthful follies and pernicious practices, pursued in solitude. Means of unerring and perfect cure are suggested in large illustrated treatise, sent for three letter postage stamps. Address World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y. west-st.

HOME COMFORT. AFTER A RAINY RIDE A COUNTRY PHYSICIAN TELLS WHAT HE THINKS OF SOME PEOPLE. "I wish to gracious some people would learn when they need a doctor and when they don't!" exclaimed Doctor E.—, as he entered his house in a cosy little village in the interior of the State of New York, after a tedious night ride of many miles. "I have been down among the mountains to see a man, who the messenger said, was very sick and not likely to live 'till morning, unless he had immediate help; and found him suffering from a rather sharp attack of colic, which his family might have relieved in ten minutes, if they had a grain of sense and two or three simple remedies in the house. But no; they must remain ignorant as pigs, and when the least ache or pain takes them, send for a doctor, whether they ever pay him or not."

"Why, Doctor, what kind of simple remedies, as you call them, do you expect people to keep in the house?" asked his wife, as she poured him a cup of hot tea. "In this case," answered the doctor, "if they had only put a BENSON'S CAPSICUM PLASTER on the man's stomach, he would have been all right in an hour, and saved me a dreary ride."

In all ordinary complaints it cures at once. All diseases are eliminated from the system by what may be roughly called expulsion or extraction, or by a union of the two processes. Benson's Plaster promotes both. It incites the torpid organs to act, and sends its healing soothing influence through the myriad pores of the skin. All other plasters oblige the patient to wait. They give him hope for to-morrow. Benson's plasters give him help to-day. Which is better, do you think? Buy the CAPSICUM and keep it in the house. Price 25 cents.
