HALL & PEARSALL—Tobacco and Snuff
W H GREEK—Soda Water—Mineral Water

The earth is dry and thirsty and rain is needed.

W. T. Bannerman, Esq., Clerk of the Superior Court of Pender county, is in the city to-day.

A fine assortment of Guns and Pistols at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

At boarding school one of the misses, Put St. Jacobs Oil on her frizzies. The happy mistake Cured the headache. She laughs at her beau, who quizzes.

The steamer John Dawson has been materially improved in her appearance, and is now bright and shining in her new coat of paint.

Horses and vehicles of almost every description were in demand to-day, and many who had delayed engaging teams in season were deprived of the pleasure of a ride to the cemetery.

For Pocket Knives or Table Cutlery, go to JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

Maj. C. W. McClammy and Dr. W. T. Ennett, of Pender county, are in the city to-day. Maj. McClammy tells us that he will get half of a crop of peaches from his orchards this year.

To-day being a legal holiday, there were no trials by the magistrates, although there are several cases requiring magisterial inquisition, but these are recognized for their appearance to-morrow.

Quite a number of our country cousins are in the city to-day, to participate in the Memorial Services, and we notice among them many of our gallant veterans of the days that so terribly tried our souls.

Capt. V. V. Richardson, of Columbus county, is in the city to-day. He reports that the crops in his section are looking remarkably well, that cotton is coming up finely and looks promising.

The Passport commenced her regular trips for the season this morning, having come up from the Marine Railway at 8:30 a. m., with colors flying and bright in her fresh coat of paint. She at once took in her freight, and at the hour appointed started for Smithville.

A change of schedule on the Carolina Central R. R. goes into effect to-day. The mail train will hereafter leave at 7:10 p. m., and arrive at 8:45. This is a faster schedule and a decidedly better arrangement. The mail trains will hereafter meet at Sand Hill instead of Hamlet.

Exports Foreign.
Ger. brig Alwine, Capt. Klecker cleared to day for Wolgast, Germany, with 103,318 feet lumber, valued at $2,500, shipped by Mr. W. Walter.

Adjourned.
The Board of Directors of the Clinton & Point Caswell Railroad held a meeting at the First National Bank to-day, but without transacting any business adjourned to meet again at 8 o'clock to-night.

Magnolia.
The municipal election at Magnolia resulted in the re-election of J. T. Carroll, for Mayor; H. Hollingsworth, H. E. Newberry, G. W. Brinkley, J. E. Wilson, F. D. Scott, and J. F. Croom for commissioners. The town and surrounding district also voted in favor of a graded school by a large majority.

Proposed Reunion.
We understand that there is to be a reunion of the surviving members of that gallant old command, Co. A, 3d, N. C. Cavalry, at Maj McClammy's residence, on Scott's Hill, in Pender county, some time during the Summer, probably about the latter part of August, after the crops are all laid by. It is thought that they will probably muster at least thirty strong.

City Court.
Sylvester Artis, colored, was drunk and down last night and was taken in by the police. This morning he was brought before the Mayor to answer the charge and was required to pay a fine of $1, in default of which he was sent below.

Alexander Boykin, the colored man arrested yesterday for fast driving, was arraigned this morning, and in default of the wherewithal to pay the $10 fine, he was sent below.

Memorial Day.

The privilege of assembling of ourselves together once every year for the purpose of laying our annual tribute of affectionate and undying remembrance on the graves of those who sacrificed so much in behalf of their native South is one of the few that is now left us. And this is the day on which those tributes are paid. Year by year the ranks of the living are being thinned; year by year the survivors of the four years of war and invasion and desolation and distress are leaving us to join their comrades on the golden shores of the beautiful river where there is no more of death, no more of wars and tumults, no parting, no persecutions and no sorrow, and where they may "rest under the shade of the trees," free from the strifes and the ambitions and the jealousies and the cares which make of earth not all an Eden.

It will not be many years hence ere the last shall have departed and then when the comrades shall all sleep together the beautiful lessons of to-day will bear their sublimest fruit, for it will be their children who will lay their floral offerings over the sacred dust of the noble army of martyrs and heroes.

The arrangements for the observances to-day were admirable and they were carried out in their entirety. The procession moved promptly at 4 o'clock and in the order named in the published programme and on the route as indicated, much of which, through the kind forethought of Mayor Hall, had been sprinkled, so as to lay the dust as much as possible. There were flowers in profusion and all who could obtain them carried wreaths of evergreens also.

As we write the procession is moving off, led by the Cornet Concert Club, (with Gen. Taylor and staff in advance,) who are discoursing some of their saddest and sweetest strains, with the Wilmington Light Infantry, in the dear old gray, following close behind with arms reversed, and each man bearing upon his piece a chaplet of May flowers. These are followed by carriages containing the orator and the chaplains, then the Ladies' Memorial Association on foot, and after the Association is the choir, the Children's Memorial Association and the schools. At the head of the third division marches that handful of veterans, the Association of Officers of the Third N. C. Infantry, followed by the Confederate Survivors' Association, wherein may be found men who have faced the enemy's fire in a hundred fights, and citizens on foot and in carriages close the procession which is now sadly wending its way to Oakdale's beautiful shades.

Town Elections.

At the municipal election at Burgaw on Tuesday last, the following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year:
Mayor—W. M. Hand.
Commissioners—A. H. Paddison, J. J. Moore, J. F. Croom, John Smith and J. B. Moore—a re-election of all of last year's officers.

The New Telegraph.

Mr. Wm. A. Johnson, of Messrs Warren Johnson & Son, of Clinton, is in the city to-day, and we acknowledge the courtesy of a call from him. Mr. Johnson is interested in the telegraph line to Clinton and is here in its interest. He tells us that the wires will probably be up and be open for traffic at an early day.

Excursionists.

A party of colored excursionists arrived here this morning a little after 9 o'clock on the Carolina Central Railroad. They came from Raleigh, via Hamlet, and numbered 110 in all. They will return to-morrow night. This is the first excursion of the season, and from now until the excursion season is over we may expect visitors from the interior towns quite frequently.

Wake Forest.

Thanks to the Marshalls for an invitation to the commencement at Wake Forest, which takes place June 12-14. On the 12th at 8 p. m., Rev. A. C. Dixon, of Baltimore, delivers the alumni address; on the 13th at 11 a. m., Rev. Henry McDonald, M. D., of Atlanta, delivers the address before the two literary societies; at 8 p. m., on the 13th Rev. Geo. C. Lorimer, D. D., of Chicago, preaches the baccalaureate sermon; on the 14th at 11 a. m., the orations of the graduating class will be delivered; at 8 p. m., on that day there will be the usual social gathering, complimentary to the class of 1883. The marshals are: Euzelia Society—J. H. Lambirth, Ivy G. Riddick and W. V. Savage; Philomathesian Society—Charles D. Ray, J. B. H. Knight and R. S. Glenn.

Slight Fire.

At about 1 o'clock this afternoon a spark from the chimney of Ancrum Batson, colored, on Dock, between Tenth and Eleventh streets, fell upon the roof and ignited the shingles causing considerable excitement for a few moments. There was no general alarm given and the fire was put out by some of the neighbors with a few buckets of water, but not until quite a hole had been burned in the roof.

The Big Excursion.

Messrs John L. Maffitt and J. A. Corbett, two of the projectors of the excursion to be given from Shelby to Wilmington during the latter part of this month, returned yesterday from a trip over the line of that road. They say that the affair will be very successful, the indications now being that a large number will take advantage of the opportunity, among whom there will be many ladies. The tickets will be issued from Shelby to Smithville and return and the accommodations will be ample.

Carolina Central Railroad.

The annual election of officers of the Carolina Central Railroad was held at the office of the Secretary in this city to-day, the entire stock of the company being represented. The old Board of Directors was re-elected, and subsequently Col. John M. Robinson was re-elected President, and Mr. John H. Sharp, Secretary of the company. The Board of Directors, as re-elected, is as follows:

John M. Robinson, C. M. Stedman, Wilmington; J. S. Whedbee, J. E. Minnis, Severe Eyere, R. C. Hoffman, Baltimore; D. W. Oates, Charlotte; R. S. Tucker, J. C. Winder, W. W. Chamberlaine, Raleigh; M. P. Leak, Wadesboro.

Photographed.

The stores and places of business were pretty generally closed during the afternoon. At 3:15 o'clock the Wilmington Light Infantry, preceded by drums and file, marched out Third street from the City Hall, and wheeled into Market street, down which they moved to the front of VanOrsdell's photograph gallery, where they filed into line and were halted and faced to the front while they were being photographed. After this they wheeled into column of platoons and marched off, the several movements being executed with a promptness and precision highly creditable to their drill and discipline. The ranks were fuller to-day than on any occasion for years past.

Point Caswell.

By an act of the last legislature Point Caswell was incorporated as a town, and by a provision in the act of incorporation it was made unlawful for the County Commissioners to grant a license to any one to sell liquor within the precincts of the town without the consent of the Town Commissioners. At the election of officers for the town, held on Tuesday last, there were two tickets in the field—one, headed by Capt. R. P. Paddison, for "No License," and the other with Mr. H. M. Driver as the nominee for "License" and both parties worked zealously for success. The election of Capt. Paddison, with only three votes cast against him, was the result, so that Point Caswell will be a "dry" town for a twelvemonth to come.

DIED.

HUFHAM—In Pender county, N. C., on the 13th of April, Mrs. AMELIA A. HUFHAM, consort of William Hufham, dec'd, in the 73rd year of her age. The deceased was born in Columbus county, N. C., near Whiteville, and in early life moved to the county of New Hanover, now Pender, where she married and settled and there reared a large family—fourteen children, and several grand children. When young she attached herself to the Baptist Church, and while her trials were great, she ever held to the faith, and died fully reconciled. Her last days were her best days, and those who were with her in her last moments have no fears. Our old mother is at rest, while many of us have yet to make ready for that eventful day. Few women were so energetic, and while her means were small, none were so ready to administer to the wants of the sick and afflicted. Our old mother was blind, and many of her grand children she had never seen, but she thinks she sees them now, and as an angel of light, is administering, spiritually, to their many wants. She left her farewell advice to meet her beyond the skies; often saying that death's gates would not alarm her, and that the Jordan was calm and serene; she would have a pleasant voyage, which would land her safe in glory. She died of dropsy and her sufferings were indescribable, but her pleasures now surpass them. ARMOE.
