COMING INVENTIONS.

What may be expected in the Next Decade. "What more can be invented?" asked an enthusiastic citizen on Saturday, listening to the talk over the line from Chicago to New York.

They claim to cure much for the "Nerve" and "Nerve" says a skeptic. "How can one medicine be so specific for Epilepsy, Dyspepsia, A Colic of the Intestine, Rheumatism, Spermatorrhea, or Seminal Weakness, and fifty other complaints?"

They give new life and vigor to the aged and infirm. To all whose employments cause irregularity of the bowels or urinary organs, or who require an Appetizer, Tonic and mild Stimulant, Hop Bitters are invaluable.

Remember, Hop Bitters is no vile, drugged, drunken nostrum, but the Purest and Best Medicine ever made; the "Invalid's Friend and Hope," and no person or family should be without them. Try the Bitters to-day.

aside of her mourning. One ball dress that especially struck my informant when she saw the Empress wearing it at the first ball at the palace, was composed of pink uncut velvet, pink crape and pink tulle. The train of uncut velvet was bordered with clusters of pink ostrich plumes matching it precisely in hue, and was caught back with scarfs of pink crape embroidered with silver, which crossed over the front of the skirt and were held in place with a tuft of plumes. The skirt front was covered with flounces of pink tulle embroidered with silver.

SILVER CREEK, N. Y., Feb. 6, 1880. GENTS—I have been very low, and have tried everything, to no advantage. I heard your Hop Bitters recommended by so many, I concluded to give them a trial. I did, and now am around, and constantly improving, and am nearly as strong as ever.

Mrs. John Harper, of Harpers, N. C., says: "I used Brown's Iron Bitters for kidney disease with excellent effect."

The sum of $250,000 francs, voted to defray the expenses of M. Waddington, the representative of France at the Czar's coronation, he declines to be altogether insufficient; he says he must have at least 600,000.

"I spent $2,500 with other doctors," writes Mr. J. W. Thornton of Claiborne, Miss., "Samaritan Nerve" however alone cured my son of fits. This is on a par with hundreds of others, speedy but thorough.

Mr. W. A. Cheek, Warrenton, says: "I have found Brown's Iron Bitters to be an excellent tonic."

Although the export of rails from Great Britain has fallen to almost nothing here, the total export thence is higher than in many years. India and Mexico are believed to be her chief customers.
