THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VII. WILMINGTON, N. C. SATURDAY, MAY 12, 1883. NO. 114

The Daily Review has the largest bona fide circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

Ex-Secretary Evarts says that $100,000 of the Bartholdi statue fund have been raised.

Mr. Jefferson, the actor, has just bought a large tract of land at New Iberia, Ill.

A spring that is alleged to cure Bright's disease has been discovered in Alachua county, Florida.

It is declared that hydrophobia was unknown in the South before the introduction of the Spitz dog.

The gift of $60,000 to Princeton College for an art school was made by Mr. Frederick Marquand of New York.

The richest gold mine in the world is in Transvaal, South Africa. A ton of ore gives in some cases 1,000 ounces of metal.

R. T. Wilson, of New York, who was a Confederate blockade-runner during the late war, purchased the Morgan villa at Newport for $80,000.

Roscoe Conkling admits that the Democrats are about to take control of the country, attributing that "calamity" to the defeat of Grant at Chicago.

The wholesale price of quinine at the New York auction sale is said to leave a living profit of 500 per cent. to the druggist at the usual price of quinine pills.

Mrs. Harriet Lane Johnson has placed a memorial window in St. Paul's P. E. Church, Baltimore, in memory of her sons, James Buchanan and Harry Johnson.

Captain Gorringe laughs at the Secretary of the Navy for contracting to get men-of-war with a speed of only 14 knots an hour. Gorringe says they should have a speed of 18 or 25 knots.

Senator Cameron of Pennsylvania, who in Harrisburg last week looking in better health than for a year before. He will sail for Europe on Thursday of next week, and remain until just before the Christmas holidays.

The oldest living graduate of the Military Academy at West Point, is Gen. Joshua Baker, of the parish of St. Mary's, in Louisiana, who was on Jackson's staff at the battle of New Orleans. He graduated in 1818, sixty-five years ago, and was twenty-four years old when he graduated.

Mr. Vanderbilt thinks that he can go yachting on the ocean steamships as well as on such a craft as Mr. Gould's $350,000 sea swan. He goes to the other Continent on the Britannic, to come home on the return trip of that steamer. Then he will sail for Europe again, to pass July and August there instead of at Saratoga.

The custom among the English Conservatives of wearing the primrose as an emblem of their creed, because of its association with Lord Beaconsfield, has led to a suggestion that the Liberals adopt the white mayflower as their emblem, it having been in May, 1860, that their party was returned to the power it now enjoys.

One of the acts of conciliation which, it is said, will mark the coming coronation of the Czar, will be an edict granting complete toleration to the Old Believers, as the dissenters from the Established Church are called. This recognition of the principle of toleration by a country like Russia will be a very significant fact.

At Dresden, Ontario, on May 5th, aged 94, died Rev. Josiah Henson, popularly supposed to be the model for Mrs. Stowe's ideal Uncle Tom. He led an eventful life, and, like Frederick Douglass, had been a Maryland slave. Of his twelve children seven survive. He became, at one time, quite a pet in Great Britain, and once had an audience of Queen Victoria. His true story is "stranger than fiction."

Governor McEnery, of Louisiana, gives a hopeful view of the prospect of affairs, despite the disastrous overflows and the low prices of crops. The general fund warrants, which sold a few years ago at 28 cents on the dollar, are now quoted at 91, and the Governor is confident that before many months will be at par. Governor McEnery says that it will be with just pride that he can turn over to his successor a State Government, rescued from chaos, relieved of the imputation of dishonor and restored to prosperity, peace and quiet.

Benjamin F. Butler, Roger A. Pryor and Duncan S. Walker, all "generals" and lawyers of note, have been retained to defend Messrs. Sheridan and Walsh, should the extradition of the latter parties be sought by the British Government.

Mr. Beverly Tucker, of Virginia, diplomat, politician and humorist, is at work on a volume of reminiscences. It will be divided into four parts called representatively, "Before the Wah," "During the Wah," "Just after the Wah," and "The Present Period."

A canvass was made recently of the Republican members of the lower house of the Pennsylvania Legislature, and it resulted as follows: Blaine, 43; Edmunds, 21; Lincoln, 3; Grant, 2; Sherman, 1; W. D. Kelley, 1; Blaine or Edmunds, 1; Blaine or Lincoln, 1; Harrison or Edmunds, 1; undecided, 10; absent, 4.

Nearly twenty thousand immigrants landed at Castle Garden last week, and the engagements for passage from Europe indicate that the total number for May will reach a hundred thousand. Though the flow of foreign population to our shores is not so great this year as during the two preceding, it is still enormous, and war, military oppression, famine, or industrial distress may at any time increase its proportions.

The New York World appeared yesterday under the control of its new proprietor, Mr. Joseph Pulitzer, a journalist of an old and enviable and well earned reputation. We notice already in this, the first issue, many signs of substantial improvement. Mr. Pulitzer is determined that it shall fulfill the high mission with which it was first established; that, to use his own words, it shall be "dedicated to the cause of the people rather than that of puppet-potencies"; that it "will be devoted more to the news of the New than of the Old World; will expose all fraud and sham and fight all public evils and abuses, and will serve and battle for the people with earnest sincerity."

The Chicken Thieves.
 The chicken thieves are abroad in the land. A raid was made by them early this morning on the premises of Mr. J. G. Craig, on McRae, between Mulberry and Walnut streets. Mexican Veterans.
 There are but seven veterans of the Mexican war resident in this locality. These are Col. John L. Cantwell of the Palmetto regiment, Col. S. L. Fremont, Maj. James Reilly and Mr. H. H. Bloom of the U. S. regulars, Mr. Jas. C. Lumsden and Mr. Morgan of the North Carolina Regiment, and Mr. Joshua Craig, of the Maryland and Virginia Regiment. These veterans served in a war which resulted in the annexation to the United States of some of its most valuable territory and yet their services have never been recognized by the government while at the same time they are taxed to support thousands of men who were never in a fight, but who are yet pensioned by the government. This is a shame and a disgrace to the people of the country.

To Builders and others—Go to JACOBI'S for Sash, Blinds and Doors, Glass &c. You can get all sizes and at the lowest prices.

The Queen of the May.
 The Queen of May Festival at Masonboro Sound, last night, was largely attended and the enjoyment of all who were present was great. The beautiful Queen, Miss Maggie Hewlett, was exquisitely dressed and so were her attendant maids and nymphs. There was also, in addition to the May Festival, declamation by the pupils of Miss Kennedy's school and they all acquitted themselves handsomely. A banks party will to-day wind up the pleasures of the week.

After the above was written we were favored with the following report, which is fuller and more graphic, submitted to us by a gentleman who was present on the interesting occasion.

The good people of Masonboro had a most delightful entertainment last evening, the occasion being the closing exercises of Miss Kennedy's school. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers and evergreens, and over the stand was the beautiful motto, "With joy we greet thee."

The exercises were opened by the crowning of the Queen of May, who was personated by the beautiful Miss Maggie, youngest daughter of Mr. Elijah Hewlett. The address of welcome and the presentation of the crown was made by Miss Comfort Watton, and the sceptre-bearer was Miss Sallie Farrow. It would be invidious to mention names in an entertainment where all did so well. Suffice it to say that the whole affair was one of deep interest to all present, and the part that each one bore gave evidence that all had been thoroughly drilled; that their teacher understood her high calling, and that she had faithfully performed her duty and given entire satisfaction to all present at the examination of her scholars.

Miss Kennedy is the daughter of our esteemed friend, Rev. W. M. Kennedy; she is a fine scholar, having graduated at one of the best female institutions in our State. Miss Kennedy seems to be perfectly at home in the school-room. She comes of a family of teachers, all of whom are devoted to their profession.

The exercises of the day were closed by an address from Miss Dora Wagner. For Pocket Knives or Table Cutlery, go to JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

Board of Aldermen.
 The Board of Aldermen met in special session at the City Hall last night.

The committee on Finance submitted the tax ordinance, which was adopted. It was ordered that seven hundred and fifty copies of the ordinances be published for distribution.

Alderman DeRosset offered the following resolution, which was adopted: WHEREAS, For a number of years, under a loose and unsatisfactory system, which failed to impose upon the Tax Collector a proper responsibility, and the same promptness which the State exacts of its officers, the city of Wilmington has been greatly embarrassed and in a number of instances defeated in the collection of its revenue;

And whereas, as the result of such system there is remaining uncollected for the last several years many thousands dollars of the poll, property and license taxes due the city, while the State for the same period has collected within 74 per cent. of the poll-tax and nearly the whole of the property and license taxes—the difference thus existing being in no wise the fault of the Tax Collector, but simply the result of the aforesaid unwise system;

And whereas, the present Board of Aldermen has passed into a law an ordinance which we think will obviate the existing difficulties and secure to the city a prompt and sure collection of its taxes, thereby saving a large amount of interest paid in bank on sums borrowed to supply the deficiencies created by non-collection, decreasing the rate of taxation and doing justice to those who promptly pay their taxes;

And whereas, to accomplish the above recited objects, it is absolutely necessary that the Tax Collector should have sufficient means to execute the provisions of said ordinance and to relieve himself from the load of responsibility imposed on him thereby;

And, further to manifest to the taxpayers of the city that this Board of Aldermen is desirous of equalizing taxation, and finally of reducing the rate thereof it respectfully presents to the Board of Audit and Finance, which is solely empowered to fix the compensation of the officers of the said city, the following resolution for their consideration:

Resolved, That the Board of Audit of Finance do allow the Tax Collector sufficient compensation to remunerate him for the arduous clerical and financial duties of his office; and in consideration of the large bond he has to give, that the same should not be less than two and one-half per cent. on the receipts of his office; that sufficient compensation be allowed him to secure the aid of an assistant in the outdoor work of the office whose duty it shall be to look up all poll taxes and all delinquent and recalcitrant license taxes, and whose compensation shall be paid by the Tax Collector.

Alderman Fishblate moved that hereafter and during the summer months the Board meet at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. Adopted.

The resolution adopted at the last meeting, requiring the Clerk of Police to be presented at meetings of the Board and report fines, &c., was repealed.

On motion, an election for Mayor pro tem. to serve during the absence of the Mayor, was entered into, and Alderman Dudley was elected.

To-morrow is known in the Calendar as the Festival of Whitsun-Day. It falls due ten days after Ascension Day, and corresponds with the Jewish Day of Pentecost. It commemorates the descent of the Holy Ghost on the Apostles, in the shape of tongues of fire.
