THE PEOPLE'S SONG OF PEACE.

The grass is green on Bunker Hill, The waters sweet in Brandywine; The sword sleeps in the scabbard still, The farmer keeps his flock and vine; With vaunt of battlefield and fray?

The brave corn lifts, in regiments, Ten thousand sabres in the sun; . The ricks replace the battle-tents, The bannered tassels toss and run, The neighing steed, the bugle's blast-

These to be stories of the past. The earth bath healed her wounded breast; The cannon plow the fields no more The heroes rest; O let them rest In peace along the peaceful shores; They fought for peace, for peace they fell They sleep in peace, and all is well.

The fields forget the battles fought, The trenches waye in golden grain; Shall we forget the lesson taught And tear the wound agape again? Sweet Mother Nature, nurse the land, And heal her wound with gentle hand

Lo! peace on earth! Lo! flock and fold Lo! rich abundance, fat increase, And valleys clad in sheen of gold, O rise and sing the song of peace, For Theseus roams the land no more, And Janus rests with rusted door. -Jouquin Miller.

That Bad Boy.

"I understand your pa has got to drinking again like a fish," says the groceryman to the bad boy, as the youth came into the grocery and took a handful of dried apples. The boy ate a dried apple and then made up a terrible face, and the groceryman asked him what he was trying to do with his face The boy caught his breath and then
