I. O. O. F. Banquet.

A banquet was given at the Yarboro last evening by the Raleigh lodges of this order to visiting members. About 150 were in the dinning hall. Past Grand Master Bagley presided. The programme was as follows:

Invocation. By Rev C. T. Bailey. Regular Toasts.

Our guests, the R. W. Grand Lodge of North barolina—A star in the system of Odd-Fellowship; may it shine as brightly in the future as in the past. Response by Past Grand Nash, of Tarboro.

The Grand Master of North Carolina—The David of our choice, the Jonathans of the order will be with him at the stone Ezel. Response by James F. Payne, Grand Master.

The Governor of North Carolina—Now represented in the person of a soldier, a statesman and an Odd-Fellow. In these characters we have courage, learning wisdom, and benevolence. History will write opposite his name, "Success," but Odd-Fellowship will wrtie only the word "Brother." Response by his excellency Governor Jarvis.

The President of the United States—Whether Federalist, Whig, Democrat or Republican, he is our President. Response by Past Grand B. F. Bullock, of Franklinton.

The Sovereign Grand Lodge: The centre of our Fraternal system, giving light and life to all. Response by C. M. Busbee, P. Grand Master.

The Press: "E'en in their Ashes live their wounded fires." Response by S. A. Ashe, Esq.

Our Retiring Grand Officers: "Well done, good and faithful servants." Response by B. H. Woodell, P. Grand Master.

Cape Fear Lodge: The veteran lodge. Response by Past Grand Penny, of Wilmington.

The Daughters of Rebekah: "The world was sad, the garden was a wild, and man, the hermit, sighed till woman smiled." Reponse by John E Woodard, D Grand Master.

Ancient Odd Fellows. Response by Dr R B Haywood.

The Grand Secretary. Response by J J Litchford.

The Patriachal Branch of the Order. Response by J H Masten, of Winston.

The President. Response by W H Bagley.

STATE NEWS.

Rockingham Spirit: The pastor, Rev. T. Harrison, has been conducting a protracted meeting at the Baptist Church in this place for the past week.

Rockingham Rocket: A strange story comes to us from Alamance county. A subscriber writes us that a colored woman gave birth to a child week before last, and that her brutish husband beat her unmercifully because the infant was a girl. The man's sister remonstrated with him for his cruel treatment of his wife, and got a blow for her pains. This occurred on Saturday, and the man was well and stout. On Monday night he was taken sick and died Tuesday morning.

Washington Gazette: On Tuesday of last week a young man by the name of Woolard, son of Mr. A. Woolard living six miles below town, met with a terrible accident, the particulars of which are as follows: He was plowing in his father's field and his horse became frightened and ran away, and he having the plow lines fastened or looped around his wrist and being unable to extricate himself, was dragged all over the field among the stubble and stumps of trees. When found he was horrible mangled and lacerated, one hand being actually torn from his body. Dr. Nicholson was called to him, and on Sunday had to amputate one of his arms. The doctor thinks he may recover, Highland Enterprise: On the 28th inst. John Dehart of Swain, who attended school at West Mills, accidentally shot himself with a pistol. The ball entered his leg just above the knee and was found lodged in the knee-cap, causing a very painful wound, though it is hoped that no permanent injury was received. ——A daughter of Mr. J. B. Bryson, living about seven miles east of Highlands, was bitten by a rattlesnake last Saturday, while walking near a small creek through the hemlock. She was bitten just above the ankle, through two dresses and a thick stocking. The young lady is now doing well, and is likely to recover. The snake, which was a very large one, was killed. It had fourteen rattles.

Concord Register: Wheat and oats are coming out in head. The prospect for a large yield of both of these grains is very promising. We have not seen or heard of any rust on the straw of either. They will soon be out of danger from the rust. ——The Lutheran Synod at its session last week, decided to revive the North Carolina College, at Mt. Pleasant. They will not change the character of the institution, but will make it co-educational, for the entrance of both sexes. ——Dr. John L. Henderson was prostrated with a paralytic stroke about 9 o'clock last Sunday night. We are glad to state that he has so far recovered as to be able to walk about, and his friends hope that he will soon be restored ro health.

News and Observer: Chief Justice Waite will preside at the June term of the Federal Court here. ——The Christian church, corner Hillsboro and Dawson streets, is to be of brick.—Work on it goes forward rapidly. It is to be completed November 1. —— On Sunday Right Rev. Theodore B. Lyman, Bishop of this diocese, will visit St. Augustine's Episcopal Church, of this city, and ordain to the ministry three candidates. These are H. S. McDuffie, P. P. Alston and Edward H. Butler. ——Near the Confederate Cemetery lie buried some fifteen paupers, buried by the city. Yesterday morning one of Raleigh's fairest young ladies procured beautiful flowers, and unattended except by a servant, tenderly laid on the grave of each of these unknown and forgotten ones a floral offering. It was a beautiful act prompted by a more beautiful heart. —— Hon. S. S. Cox left yesterday morning for Fayetteville on a special train. Capt. Smith, an officer of the Raleigh & Gaston and Raleigh & Augusta Air Line railways, accompanied him as far as Sanford. Mr. Cox expressed himself as highly gratified at his reception here and greatly pleased with his stay in Raleigh. At Fayetteville he is the guest of Congressman Wharton J. Green, at Tokay. ——After the usual Thursday evening services at the session room of the First Presbyterian church ended last evening, a pleasant surprise awaited Mr. Baumann, the organist of the church, so well and widely known as a musician of marked talent. A specially handsome silver service, gold lined, of ten pieces, was unveiled, and Rev. Jonn S. Watkins, pastor of the church, in a few graceful and pertinent remarks presented it to Mr. Baumann, in behalf of the congregation.

RICHMOND, Va., January 30th, 1883.

MR. N. EZEKIEL has made known to me the composition of his Hair Restorer and I have also subjected it to chemical examination. It contains no lead or silver, substances very commonly employed in making preparation for the hair, nor anything harmful, and may therefore be used without apprehension of injurious results.

WM. H. TAYLOR, M. D., State Chemist.

Whilst thanking you, Mr. Ezekiel, for the Hair Restorer you so kindly sent me, I take great pleasure in saying to you that its beneficial effects upon my hair have been so apparent as to attract the commendation of all my friends who have noticed it.

It is in my estimation a treasure, without which the toilet of none who have used it will be complete. Hoping it may realize you the pecuniary success you so richly deserve,
