

The Daily Review has the largest bona fide circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

Republican papers are denouncing Roscoe Conkling for predicting a Democratic triumph in 1884.

Gov. McDaniel's message indicates that Georgia is to have a patriotic, economical and impartial Executive.

Folger, Chandler and Brewster have a son, Frelinghuysen a son-in-law and Lincoln a father-in-law, all nicely provided with government positions.

Mr. Moody the evangelist, states that the coffee palaces in Liverpool, which were started eight years ago, have been a great success. There are now fifty-three in that city, which have declared a dividend of ten per cent.

A terrible blunder was made by some one at the City Hospital in St. Louis, on Wednesday last. Chloral was issued for magnesia and two patients have died. One other who was dosed with the stuff, will recover. Another warning. But, do warnings ever warn?

The Atlanta correspondent of the Macon Telegraph understands that Mr. James R. Randall, of Augusta, is to be Private Secretary to Governor McDaniel. This is news to Mr. Randall, and to the Governor, too, no doubt. The report is without foundation in fact, thinks the Augusta Chronicle, Mr. Randall being the corresponding editor of that paper.

Philadelphia Times: "It is less what is taught in the schools than how it is taught that is important, and if once we recognize that the object of education is not to fill a child's head with information, but to develop his understanding and thus enable him to learn the things he needs to know, we shall be in the way of making the public schools in all respects a public blessing."

Henry J. Marriot, the English clerk who fled from Paris with $75,000 worth of diamonds, was before the Superior Court in New York city Thursday on a writ of habeas corpus, but the hearing was postponed. The young woman, Maria Pesoux, with whom he fled, was in court, and as both expressed a wish to be married, Judge Larremore united them. Marriot went back to the Tombs prison.

Illinois stands as the Empire State of the Northwest. Illinois takes the lead in manufacture of farm implements, in distilling, in other branches of production, and is rapidly placing herself in line with the other Eastern States in the manufacture of the various kinds of iron. The farm and orchard products of Illinois in 1880 were five times greater than the products of the gold and silver mines of the whole country.

Hon. Richard Crowley, of New York, attorney-at-law and member of Congress, evidently knows how to make politics pay. A biography of him states that "he entered the New York States Senate a poor man and before serving out his first term amassed means with which he purchased at a cost of $30,000 the elegant residence on High Street in the City of Lockport, of the late Eli Chase." He had "an economical wife."

A hard-headed darkey named Green. Who fooled with a kicking machine. The mule's leg was peeled, Which St. Jacobs Oil healed, But the darkey—he never was seen.

The ladies of the Fifth Street M. E. Church will give a Festival in Temperance Hall, opposite the City Hall, on Wednesday evening, for the benefit of their church.

There seems to be an unusually small amount of sickness in the city and vicinity for the time of year, and if it were not for the prevalence of bad colds it would be a season remarkable for good health.

THE DAILY REVIEW.

City Court.
There was one case of disorderly conduct brought before the Mayor this morning, the accused being a young man who had been only a few months in this country. He had taken a little too much tangle-leg in his Rock Spring water on Saturday night and was disorderly in consequence. A fine of $2 was imposed, in default of the payment of which he was sent below for 5 days.

Outrageous.
A gentleman who was at Oakdale yesterday, tells us that there was much complaint among the visitors to the cemetery at the conduct of a number of colored boys who were swimming in the creek near the old Athletic Grounds, exposing their persons and making the air hideous with their obscenity. This is an outrage and the police authorities should take the matter in hand at once and suppress it.

The First Excursion.
We are glad to learn that the prospects for a large attendance on the excursion to be given to-morrow by the Rechabites in this city are very good. It is the first of the season and many who have been longing to get out of town for a day of rest will take advantage of this opportunity. The arrangements are all in the hands of experienced gentlemen who will see that the wants of all are promptly attended to.

Rain Needed.
There is much need of rain in the country as well as in the city. There were good showers in the vicinity of Burgaw on Friday night, but they extended but a short distance either North or South of that locality. It is true that vegetation has suffered but little as yet, but the ground is getting dry and parched, and unless showers moisten the earth within a few days, the crops, already retarded by the cold and late Spring, will suffer materially.

The Graded Schools.
The School Committee have appointed the following days for the public to visit and inspect the practical working of the city Graded Schools:
Williston Graded School, (col.) Tuesday, 15th.
Peabody Graded School, (col.) Wednesday, 16th.
Union Graded School, (white) Thursday, 17th.
Heppenway Graded School, (white) Friday, 18th.
Friends of the schools are invited to visit at any time during the day.

The Medicos.
The State Medical Society will meet at Tarboro to-morrow. Drs. Wood of this city, and Haigh of Fayetteville, who are both on the Examining Board, left here last night for Tarboro and Drs. W. G. Thomas and F. W. Potter expect also to be present and may go up to-night. The Examining Board met to-day and the State Board of Health will meet on the 16th.

Drs. Lewis of Lumberton, and McLean of Shoe Heel, arrived on the Carolina Central this morning and will go to Tarboro to-night, for attendance on the sessions of the Society. Bro. McDiarmid of the Robesonian, who, by the way, is not even an amateur sawbones, accompanies them.

Competitive Examination.
In accordance with an announcement made several weeks since by Hon. Wharton J. Green, Representative-elect to the Forty-Eighth Congress from this District, in the columns of the newspapers throughout the District, a competitive examination of candidates for admission to West Point Military Academy was held at Fayetteville on Thursday, the 10th inst. The Board of Examiners was composed of Messrs. Graham, Bradford and Rose, all of Fayetteville, the first named gentleman being the principal of the graded school at that place. The examination was thorough and conducted with entire impartiality.

Among the candidates who presented themselves for examination was Mr. Charles Gerhardt, of this city, and while we cannot but regret that his competitors, who struggled manfully for the prize, were defeated, we congratulate our young friend on his success and acknowledge to a sentiment of pride that the coveted certificate was awarded to him. Mr. Gerhardt is a native of Baltimore, Md., and was educated in the public schools of that city. He is now 30 years of age, has been in this city about four years, and is the book-keeper in the establishment of Messrs. Hart, Baily & Co. He will leave for West Point in a few days with our hearty congratulations on his success.

With us Again.
Mr. John Meyer, formerly of this city, but recently of Magnolia, has returned to Wilmington and may again locate with us. Mr Meyer has been merchandising at Magnolia for some years past but has sold out to Mr. S. M. Bensley, an enterprising energetic young man, who will hereafter conduct the business.

Vacation.
The average small boy begins to look forward to the close of the present school term and in anticipation enjoy the pleasures of fishing, hunting, picnics and other pleasurable occasions. We hope that they may all be fully realized and that no accident or untoward event may mar the vacation time, for we were once a boy and know all about it.

A Monster Reptile.
Two thoroughly reliable residents of the Moore's creek section, Messrs. Wm. Gurganus and J. I. Croom, write us an account of the killing by them of what is probably the biggest snake which has ever been encountered in this section. Mr. Gurganus says that on the 11th inst., while passing along the road near the head of Moore's creek, in Pender county, he saw something lying across the road which, with a careless glance at it, he took for a log of wood. As he was about to step over it he saw it move and springing back he called the attention of Mr. Croom, who accompanied him, to the object. Mr. Croom thereupon got a stout pole and struck the monster across the head a terrible blow but it did not either kill or disable him. Mr. Gurganus thereupon came to his assistance and together they dispatched the snake. These gentlemen write us that by actual measurement the monster was 15 feet 6 inches in length and 6 inches across the top of his head but they neglected to tell us to what species it belonged, though it was probably a rattlesnake.

The celebrated 'Fish Brand Gills' Twine is sold only at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

Truck Farming.
In nearly every direction contiguous to railroad and steamboat navigation facilities the people of the South are paying increased attention to the cultivation of vegetables for the Northern markets, and with much promise of financial success. A few years after the war closed there was an attempt made to make "truck farming" a paying industry, but it resulted generally in loss to the producer, principally because of the ignorance of our people regarding this entirely new system of agriculture. As the years have rolled by, however, the best systems have become better understood, and where once the attempt resulted in discouraging disaster, it is now attended with pronounced success. We find many now engaged in this enterprise along the railroad lines, and with a better knowledge than formerly of the Northern demand, and how to supply that demand, they are meeting with very encouraging returns for their care and labor. There are millions in the business when once it is fairly understood and systematized, and receives that strict attention without which no enterprise will be sure to prosper.

A Retraxit.
A day or two since we printed an editorial squib to the effect that "Phil. Thomas, if his wife tells the truth, killed an innocent man." It was an unfortunate, and almost a bloody error, for Phil. Thomas, (whose name is not Thompson) who stops at Mr. Bridgers' store on North Front street, and sells three pounds of Royster's candy for one dollar, and who never killed anything bigger than a fox or uglier than a baboon, descended upon us in a blast of indignation and demanded a "retraxit," which we here tender; not that he himself cares a caramel about it, but that his friends are about to run him to earth on the subject. Therefore, we apologize. It should have read: "Phil Thompson" instead of Phil Thomas."

The Wilmington Light Infantry will hold a Fair, on the night of the 21st and 22d inst. The first night will be devoted mainly to a competitive drill and the distribution of prizes while the second will be enlivened with vocal and instrumental music. A good time is anticipated.

Alex Spruat & Son, German barque Soli Deo Gloria, Capt. Mayer, cleared for the same port with 4,292 barrels rosin, valued at $6,592.18, shipped by Messrs. Paterson, Downing & Co.

Almost a Fire.
At about 12:30 o'clock this afternoon, a fire was discovered on the roof of the kitchen of Mr. R. M. McDougall, on Sixth between Chesnut and Princess streets. It was blazing quite fiercely when first seen but a few well directed buckets of water promptly thrown extinguished the flames before any further damage was done than the burning of a slight hole in the roof. No general alarm was given.

The Transgressor's Ways.
Late on Saturday night Constable Bunting received a telegraphic dispatch stating that his services would be requested to arrest a man who had arrived here from Savannah, Ga., and also that a man would arrive on the last train from the South, for the purpose of identifying the party. When the last man arrived, he in company with Mr. Bunting repaired to the Purcell House where they satisfied themselves that the man they wanted was there under the cover of an alias. They then proceeded to the house of Justice Gardner, routed him from bed, and upon the affidavit of the stranger, a warrant was issued for the arrest of the suspected party, and the latter was arrested at about 2 o'clock on Sunday morning and committed without bail to await the necessary extradition papers to enable him to be taken to Georgia for trial. The name of the accused man is William Stanton, alias Letzer, alias Baldwin, and the crime of which he stands accused is embezzlement. He is apparently not more than 21 or 22 years of age and has quite a prepossessing appearance, and the charge, as near as we can learn, is that he has been in the habit of getting books and periodicals to sell on commission from a news agency and instead of making his proper returns had absconded with the funds.

Mr. Francis T. Montell, formerly well-known in this city, as the senior of the firm of F. T. Montell & Bartow, died in New York on the 11th inst. aged about 70 years. He stood in high repute among the merchants of his day, and his memory will be revered by many who knew him in the olden time.

A moonlight excursion to Fort Fisher will be given on Friday-night next on the Esport, by a number of young gentlemen complimentary to young lady guests of Hon. A. H. VanBokkeken and Capt. C. D. Myers.
