WILMINGTON, N. C.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 16, 1883

Entered at the Postoffice at Wilmington, N. C., as second-class matter.

Sir John Macdonald has presented to the Canadian Parliament a new franchise bill, which gives suffrage to unmarried women and widows on the same terms as men.

The dinner to be given by the English bar to Judah P. Benjamin, once secretary of state of the Southern Confederacy, will take place early in June.

The London Tablet's Dublin correspondent writes: "Dr. Webb, the prisoners' counsel, who has fought bravely a hopeless battle, said that Irish criminal annals, thick as they are sown with successive crops of informers, have never produced one worse than Caray.

Mr. and Mrs. Gladstone had a remarkably representative dinner party lately. It included the Duke and Duchess of Edinburgh, the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Duke of Westminster, Lords Hartington, Shaftesbury, Rosebery and Aberdeen, the Bishop of Ely, the Dean of St. Paul's and the President of the Royal Society.

The Prussian Government is so alarmed at the continued tide of emigration that it is proposed to take the ground that persons who intend to emigrate must first prove that, in doing so, they will not violate any contract obligation, public or private, express or implied, like those that may be construed to exist toward municipal and village communities, families and employers.

Rumors have been afloat in New York for a day or two that Mr. James R. Keene, the great speculator and owner of fast horses, was in financial difficulties. These rumors grew out of the sale of a picture by Rosa Bonheur to Jay Gould for $16,000 which cost $24,000, and the fact that Mr. Keene had mortgaged his estate at Newport.

The engraved surface of the new postal note will be five and seven-eighths inches long by three and one-eighth wide, and have a stub two inches wide and a margin of one-eighth of an inch. The notes will be manufactured in a fire-proof building, and in separate apartments distinct from other work.

Senator Anthony is improving slowly, and his physicians say he will probably recover. In the Senate he is a conspicuous figure. He entered that body before the war, and has served ever since. He has just been re-elected for the fifth term. Mr. Anthony is a good parliamentarian, and often presides. He is known as the "funeral member" from having delivered so many eulogies on dead associates.

Few even among sporting people know that there is a Shetland pony rancho in this country. At Leon Springs, Bexar county, Texas, Baron von Raub, an old-time sporting gentleman, has a rancho of 8,000 acres, all under fence and stocked with beautiful Shetland and spotted ponies. His breeding stock consists of seven thoroughbred stallions, forty-five mares and 300 small spotted pony mares.

There were landed at Castle Garden last Saturday 3,401 immigrants, the City of Chester contributing 1,205 of the number, the Elbe 1,264 and the Donau 932. The total arrivals for the week ended that day number 15,350, against 17,374 for the corresponding week of last year, a falling off of 1,824. Compared with previous weeks of the present year, the one just finished ranks third. Since the first of the month the decrease in the number of immigrants is 3,785 compared with that of 1882. This week will be the best week of the year, if the records of former years stand for anything, and it is expected the arrivals for the third week in May will aggregate something like 25,000 or more.

The traveling altar of the Emperor of Austria is taken on all long journeys whenever a court chaplain is in the suite. It consists of a strong wooden case with iron fastenings. The cover shows a picture of the Lord's Supper. When the case is opened and spread out the consecrated altar-stone is put in the middle of the mensa, the three altar cloths laid and the cross and wax lights fixed. It dates from the time of Rudolph II. Ferdinand I. said his prayers before it. It went with Joseph I. to the Turkish war and accompanied the gallant but ill-fated Maximilian to Mexico. It was with the present Emperor on his journey to Jerusalem in 1869, and also at the opening of the Suez Canal, where the chaplain, Dr. Bed Dudik, read mass before it on the open sea.

PERSONAL.

It is said that the grandfather of Archbishop Benson, of Canterbury, was a Wesleyan Methodist.

The dinner to be given by the English bar to Mr. Judah P. Benjamin, Q. C., will take place early in June.

George Stoneman, of California, has tendered his resignation as a member of the Board of Indian Commissioners.

Col. Frank H. Pierce, a well-known lawyer of Hillsboro, N. H., the nephew and heir of President Pierce, has been committed to an asylum for the insane.

Prince Augustin Turbido, of Mexico, the adopted son of Maximilian, who is now at Georgetown, D. C., has accepted an invitation to attend the competitive drill in Nashville.

William B. Somerville, late of the Mutual Union Telegraph Company, has returned to the Western Union Telegraph Company in charge, as formerly, of its press service.

The condition of ex-Congressman George C. Hazleton, of Wisconsin, is critical. He is now at Milwaukee, and it is said that amputation of his leg is necessary to save his life.

Mr. H. B. Ledyard, the new president of the Michigan Central railway, is a grand-son of General Lewis Cass, who was the Democratic candidate for President against General Taylor in 1848.

The trustees of Princeton College recently asked Dr. McCosh, president, to reconsider his proposed resignation but he declared his intention was fixed, and that his resignation would be formally presented in June.

John Blizard, a colored man, who has just died in Guernsey county, Ohio, is claimed by his friends to have been the oldest man in the Union. Accounts differ as to the date of his birth; but he is claimed to be 125 years of age. He was born in Virginia.

SHORTS.

Twenty hotels are now building in the city of Mexico.

The agent of the Bonsack (Virginia) Cigarette Machine Company has sold the patent right for England for $30,000, and is negotiating for the sale of the rights for the continent for 1,000,000 francs.

It must have been a doleful set of men who comprised the National Burial Case Association, which met in St. Louis Tuesday last. They went at once into executive session, and kept the results of their deliberations as secret as the grave.

At a meeting of the Salvation Army in Exeter, England, a fortnight ago, Gen. Booth reported 4,461 corps and an income of £121,000. At the close of the meeting it was announced that £10,000 had been collected during the day, including some gifts of £1,000 each.

The will of an old maid in Norway distributes her property among her six rejected lovers, all poor, and gives this reason: "These lovers either courted me for my money, which they may now have, or else they loved me and for that reason they shall have the money, because I believed them."

Rifleman, a celebrated stallion, owned by J. C. Tyler, of Tehama county, died April 27th, aged fifty-nine years. He was reported to be one of the oldest stallions in America. His pedigree, in possession of the owner, is traced back to the year 1400. He was a remarkable horse. Rifleman was well known throughout northern California. Many of his descendants can be found in Suter and Yuba counties.

The officers and soldiers of the war of 1812, and of the various Indian wars since 1790, who remained at the date of their deaths in the military service, or who received an honorable discharge and have died, or shall hereafter die of injury received, or disease contracted in line of duty; and in case of the death of such soldier, then his widow, and in case of her death, his children under sixteen years of age, are entitled to a pension.

MOONSHINE.

The recent diplomatic correspondence between Germany and the United States seems to have been of a hog-eating nature.

Kate Field is reported as having declined many brilliant matches. She acted wisely, for when a match becomes brilliant its utility is well-nigh ended.—Boston Transcript.

It is wrong to laugh at the crooked legs of the young man in tight trousers, but it is perfectly proper to laugh at the trousers upon the man with the crooked legs.—Boston Transcript.

A singular resemblance between a bank cashier and a bullfrog has very recently been discovered. When either of them leaves the bank he generally goes "across the pond."—Rochester Post Express.

"Mr. Jones' this business of getting things by piecemeal is eternally played out. I've just made up my mind that I shall go out and lay in a month's provisions." "Well, Mrs. Jones, I don't know who's going to be fool enough to eat 'em after you laid 'em. I'm sure."—Rome Sentinel.

A pretty Quakeress, stopping in a Florida hotel, was suddenly kissed in the dark by a man, who apologized, and said he "thought it was Mary." The man had a pretty wife, and the Quakeress, being good natured, put it down as a mistake, but could not resist telling the wife as a joke. Then it came out that madame's name was Charlotte. There was a chamber-maid, however, also pretty, named Mary. The affair caused some unpleasantness.—Philadelphia Progress.

A butcher looking for veal calves was directed to a farmer about five miles over a mountainous road by a practical joker. On arriving at the farmer's house he found that he was the possessor of but one cow, and she had not yet calved. On returning to the village he took the joker to task for sending him over such a fearful road on such an errand, whereupon the joker replied: "Well, I took his word for it. He told me, over a month ago, that his cow was liable to have a calf every day for the next two weeks, and I judged he would have quite a stock by this time."—Rochester Post.

Flies and Bugs.

Flies, roaches, ants, bed-bugs, rats, mice, gophers, chipmunks, cleared out by "Rough on Rats." 15c.

There was a terrible scene in court at St. Petersburg last month when Lt. Boutsevitch was sentenced to death. His mother sank overwhelmed on a bench, his sister ran out with piercing cries, and his affianced bride fell in a swoon.

"Dr. Benson's Celery and Chamomile Pills are worth their weight in gold in nervous and sick headache."—Dr. H. H. Schlieter, of Baltimore.

One of the acts of conciliation which it is said will mark the coming coronation of the Czar will be an edict granting complete toleration to the Old Believers, as the dissenters from the Established Church are called.

SILVER CREEK, N. Y., Feb. 6, 1880. GENTS—I have been very low, and have tried everything, to no advantage. I heard your Hop Bitters recommended by so many, I concluded to give them a trial. I did, and now am around, and constantly improving, and am nearly as strong as ever. W. H. WELLER.

The Portugals are to visit the Spains this month, and Madrid will be en fete. There will be a big bull fight, and the mining and metallurgical exhibition in the fine park of Buen Retiro will be inaugurated.

No Whiskey! BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is one of the very few tonic medicines that are not composed mostly of alcohol or whiskey, thus becoming a fruitful source of intemperance by promoting a desire for rum.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is guaranteed to be a non-intoxicating stimulant, and it will, in nearly every case, take the place of all liquor, and at the same time absolutely kill the desire for whiskey and other intoxicating beverages.

Rev. G. W. RICE, editor of the American Christian Review, says of Brown's Iron Bitters:

Cis., O., Nov. 16, 1881. GENTS:—The foolish wasting of vital force in business, pleasure, and vicious indulgence of our people, makes your preparation a necessity; and if applied, will save hundreds who resort to saloons for temporary recuperation.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS has been thoroughly tested for dyspepsia, indigestion, biliousness, weakness, debility, overwork, rheumatism, neuralgia, consumption, liver complaints, kidney troubles, &c., and it never fails to render speedy and permanent relief.

HOME COMFORT. AFTER A RAINY RIDE A COUNTRY PHYSICIAN TELLS WHAT HE THINKS OF SOME PEOPLE. "I wish to graciously thank some people who would learn when they need a doctor and when they don't!" exclaimed Doctor E., as he entered his house in a cozy little village in the interior of the State of New York, after a tedious night ride of many miles. "I have been down among the mountains to see a man, who the messenger said, was very sick and not likely to live 'till morning, unless he had immediate help; and found him suffering from a rather sharp attack of colic, which his family might have relieved in ten minutes, if they had a grain of sense and two or three simple remedies in the house. But no; they must remain ignorant as pigs, and when the least ache or pain takes them, send for a doctor, whether they ever pay him or not." "Why, Doctor, what kind of simple remedies, as you call them, do you expect people to keep in the house?" asked his wife, as she poured him a cup of hot tea. "In this case," answered the doctor, "if they had only put a BENSON'S CAPSICUM PLASTER on the man's stomach, he would have been all right in an hour, and saved me a dreary ride." In all ordinary complaints it cures at once. All diseases are eliminated from the system by what may be roughly called expulsion or extraction, or by a union of the two processes. Benson's Plaster promotes both. It induces the torpid organs to act, and sends its healing soothing influence through the myriad pores of the skin. All other plasters oblige the patient to wait. They give him hope for to-morrow. Benson's plasters give him help to-day. Which is better, do you think? Buy the CAPSICUM and keep it in the house. Price 25 cents.
