Jefferson Davis' Condition. MISSISSIPPI CITY, MISS., May 16-A relative of Jefferson Davis was interviewed by a New York Herald correspondent this morning, and, in answer to inquiries concerning the health of Mr. Dayis, ascertained that he was in no danger. His attack of sickness was caused by a cold, which brought on bronchitis, from which he suffered boro, was called upon, and Lr. W. 4; and came over. At one time the famresident here this evening that the sickness might have been aggravated by on Mr. Davis' place.

Mr. Randall's Chase.

PHILADELPHIA, May 15.-Albert W. Fletcher says that Randall's election as speaker of the next House is assured. Mr. Fletcher is Mr. Randall's right-hand man. He followed Ran dall's campaigns, writes his letters, and is assisting Randall's canvass for the Speakership. His views are Randall's views. He said to-day that Blackburn and Carlisle were pulling against each other, and were thoroughly irreconcilable. "I'll tell you," said he where Mr. Randall has winning strength in the memory of his strong, honest ad- man, the oldest inhabitant in Halifax C.S Love & Co. ministration during his last Speakship. and in his safe position on the tariff urday night. He was said to have question. What is it? Well, in so been 115 years old. —On Monday many words, hands off. Asleep Since Christmas.

NEWTON, Conn., May 15 .- Sherman one of the most respected families of ced to 18 months in jail at Dupin this place, has slept almost continuously since last Christmas, and in the mean time he has not once spoken. He sits in a rocking chair, with his eyes closed, all day long, paying no attention what ever to his mother, who ministers to him constantly, or to the numerous friends and curious acquaintances who on Monday in consequence of Judge call daily at his home. Twice a day he rouses from what seem to be sound slumber, and in a half-dazed fashion leaves his chair to enter an adjoining room where the family's meals are served .-He eats very little. The country doctors admit that they do not understand the case. Platt was a bright, active and no efforts have availed to arouse him from his stupor.
