Railway construction in the United States for the year 1883 is estimated as not likely to exceed 8,000 miles, against 11,000 last year-a decrease of nearly 30 per cent. Some authorities put the present year's mileage as low as 6,000 miles.

The truck business of Georgia is becoming immense. The value of vegetables and fruits shipped North by sleamer from Savannah this season up to last Tuesday is placed at $304,692. while the shipments by railroad are also very large.

Mr Freddy Gebhard-Langtry had a little difficulty in New York last Saturday night, all about his lady friend, of course, and on that occasion, if the newspaper reports be true, he conducted manner. We will let the New York ing from the Northwest. Sun tell about it:

The proposed colored couvention, arranged by Fred Douglass, to be held in Washington during the Fall, has had a reverse already, the action of Douglass and others in calling it having been repudiated at a meeting held of representative colored men from the South recently in Washington City, whereat W. K. Price, hailing from this city, assisted. We clip from a special:

There were fifty persons present and M. Brown, of Tennessee, as assistant secretary. A committee of one from he will officiate each State was appointed to draft resolutions. Prof. Greener addressed the meeting and explained that a few men had undertaken to use the names of a number of others without their knowledge, in order to get up a convention for certain political purposes, and that the colored race were men who had stood aloof in the struggle of 1875-76, and that the colored people should opappears that this was a representative meeting of the colored race in the South. #### THE MEDICOS.

Proceedings of the Annual Session of the State Medical Society.

(Reported for the Daily Review.)

The report of the Secretary of the Board of Health was read, setting forth the work done for the year, and asking attention to the crisis the Board had now reached. They had planned a broad system of preventive medicine, but could only carry out a very limited amount of the work imposed upon themselves The aggregate of expenditures was now so great that the Secretary must ask, of the present session, their advice and counsel.

Many county superintendents of health were present, and an expression Green peas are plentiful at 15 cents a of opinion was elicited from most of peck, which is low enough for them, in them. Some seemed to think that the adverse legislation of the Legislature had effectually silenced the work. All complained that county authorities were either hampered by the law, and could not legally devote the necessary money to the work, while others were crip-The storm signals were flying to-day pled in their efforts by the hostility or apathy of their confreres, the doctors composing the local boards; both difficulties were equally disastrous.
