THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VII. WILMINGTON, N. C., MONDAY, MAY 28, 1883. NO. 127

The Daily Review has the largest circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

McConking says that he has only the most cordial relations with President Arthur.

The success of the Czar's entry into Moscow on Tuesday has had a good effect. Greater security is felt, and the value of money has risen. The European press speak in praise of the ceremonies.

It is believed that the wheat crop of 1883 will be much less than last year, when it was exceptionally large, being 302,000,000 bushels, against 383,000,000 bushels in 1881, and showing an average of 354,000,000 bushels for the last ten years.

The high price of butter for many months past has been a bonanza to some and a real source of distress to others. It is interesting to read in recent dispatches that "tons upon tons of butter which cost an average of 33 cents per pound have been thrown on the market recently, after being held all the winter for high prices, and it is estimated that Boston dealers and shippers will lose from $500,000 to $750,000 on their purchases. Several thousand tubs of old butter are held by the farmers of Northern Vermont, and they are now glad to get 10 cents a pound for what they refused 35 for last winter."

The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 6 bales.

Preparations are being made to stucco the exterior of the Temple of Israel.

Frequent and delightful showers made glad the parched earth yesterday.

The front of Dr. Green's handsome iron-front drug store, on Market street, is being repainted.

The lay delegates to the Episcopal Convention at Charlotte have all returned to the city.

Dr. John R. Hawes, of the Point Caswell section, was in the city today on one of his rare visits.

The series of meetings which were held at the First Baptist Church last week, closed last night.

Maj. W. L. Young was on our streets today, having arrived on this morning's train from Duplin county.

Don't leave Wilmington until you have had some fine photographs taken at the Yates Gallery.

The dust was so thoroughly laid by the showers yesterday that there was but little use for street sprinkling today.

Quite a number of delegates to the Methodist District Conference, held at Whiteville, returned on Saturday night. The remainder are expected to return to-night.

Cornelius Harnett Council No. 231, Royal Arcanum, meets to-night at 8 o'clock. Initiation. Come out and see the Highland Chieftain. "Roddick do." Assessment No. 46 expires to-night.

Exports Foreign.
Schr. Clifford, Capt. Bragdon, cleared today for Fredericksted and Christiansted, St. Croix, W. I., with 179,963 feet lumber, valued at $2,461,71, shipped by Messrs. J. H. Chadbourn & Co.

Excursionists.
The society and Sunday School of St. Mark's Episcopal church, colored, made their annual excursion down the river to Smithville and the forts on the Passport this morning. There was a goodly number on board, and they have had a beautiful day.

Strangers should visit the Yates Photograph Gallery.

The Excursionists.
From a special dispatch to the REVIEW, received from Laurinburg at 1:35 p. m., to day, we are glad to learn that the excursion train, which is to arrive here to-night, is full and that the excursion is a "big success." If no accident happens between Laurinburg and this city the train will arrive here on time this evening and with it, is estimated, not less than 300 excursionists.

Death of Mrs. Hedrick.
Mrs. Cynthia Hedrick the mother of Col. John J. Hedrick and Mrs. Thomas H. Heawy died in this city yesterday morning at the advanced age of 81 years. Mrs. Hedrick was born in Smithville and removed to Wilmington when but 10 years of age. She married Mr. Thomas Washington Hedrick, who was the first male child born in the City of Washington. The remains were interred at Oakdale this morning.

City Court.
Andrew Morrissey, colored, was brought before the Mayor this morning charged with committing a nuisance. The charge was proved and was of a very aggravated nature, for which the defendant was required to pay a fine of $10 or be confined 30 days in the city prison. He went below.

Alice Kelley, an old offender from the "Hollow," for disorderly conduct was fined $5 and in default of payment was sent below for 10 days.

Attempted Burglary.
A thief attempted to break into Capt. C. D. Myers' grocery store on Saturday night, but was frightened away before he had gained an entrance, by Officer Mints, who heard the glass breaking from police headquarters and ran across the street just in season to see the scamp running down the alley just north of the store. This makes two Saturday nights in succession that Capt. Myers' store has received the special attention of the thieving fraternity. That on the first occasion was eminently successful, but the last happened to be a failure.

Death of Mr. Cowan.
Intelligence was received here yesterday morning, by telegraph, of the death at Pittsboro, in Chatham county, at 11 o'clock on Saturday night, of Mr. Thos. Cowan, formerly of this city, but ever since the war a resident of Pittsboro. Mr. Cowan was born on the 11th day of October, 1803, and was consequently in the 80th year of his age at the time of his death. He was born in Wilmington and previous to the war was one of the largest rice planters in this section. He owned the Town Creek plantation, the site of the first settlement on the Cape Fear section. The remains were to have been interred at Pittsboro today.

Stereoscopic Views of Wilmington on sale at the Yates Gallery.

Criminal Court.
The Criminal Court for New Hanover county convened at the Court House in this city at 10 o'clock this morning. His Honor, Judge O. P. Meares, presiding, and Solicitor B. R. Moore representing the interests of the State. The morning session was fully occupied in drawing jurors and empanneling the grand jury and delivering the charge to the same. The following comprise the grand jury:

Foreman W. I. Core, and G. A. Warner, Charles W. Bishop, Horace Child, H. B. Green, W. G. Norment, J. R. Melton, William McDermott, W. L. Jacobs, J. N. Macumber, W. H. Hardy, C. F. W. Bissenger, John Taylor, Charles Howe, W. A. Eckel, S. W. Nash, T. G. Pickett and D. W. Chandwick.

No cases were tried to day and the term will probably be short as the docket is unusually small.

Celebration of the Twenty-Fifth Anniversary of St. Paul's Ev. Lutheran Church, Sunday, May 28.

Despite the unfavorable weather on yesterday there was a good attendance at the morning service at the church. The pastor, Rev. F. W. E. Peschau, delivered a historical sermon in a very chaste and eloquent manner; the services being in the English language, and was listened to with very marked attention. He spoke of the church's rise and progress from its first pastor, Rev. John H. Mengert, of Evansville, Ind. The organization of the church took place on the 31st May, 1858, in the First Presbyterian Church, on Front street, and was brought about through the notice attracted at that time, that there existed in this city a German military company, called the "German Volunteers." Thus the Synod of North Carolina of the Evangelical Lutheran Church noticed by a petition having been made to the Legislature of the State for a Charter for this company. Thereupon two ministers, Rev. Dr. G. D. Bernheim and Rev. — Linn, were sent here to make the necessary arrangements for an organization, which was effected as before stated. The church was without a pastor for eight years, Rev. Mr. Mengert having resigned in 1861. The war somewhat interfered with the growth of the church and nothing material was done until 1869, when the church was completed and dedicated to the Triune God, and in 1870 Rev. Dr. G. D. Bernheim was called as pastor, who labored here for twelve years, and brought it to a complete success in every way. No pastor ever worked harder during his administration. The heavy debt was lifted from the church when he resigned, in January, 1882, and Rev. F. W. E. Peschau, of Nashville, Tenn., was called as pastor. The church has a fine property, not a dollar of debt resting upon it, and is now preparing to build a suitable building on the vacant lot just beyond the parsonage, corner of Sixth and Princess streets, for Sunday school, lecture and other purposes.

At 8 o'clock p. m., the Sunday School celebrated, with the Church and its friends, the anniversary. The services throughout were very interesting, consisting of addresses, reports, &c., on the condition of the Sunday School. Our venerable friend and aged citizen, H. B. Eilers, Esq., gave a brief history of the organization of the Sunday School during the time he and our departed German fellow-citizen, H. G. Hashagen, were superintendents. Mr. W. H. Strauss, the present superintendent, delivered an address, giving an account of the seven years of his administration.

Reports on the finances, library and records of scholars and teachers were read by Messrs. L. Vollers, G. W. Bornemann and J. H. Klauer. An able address was also delivered by Rev. F. W. E. Peschau, and a very handsome collection, as a thanks offering in part and for the sinking fund of the Sunday School, was taken up.

The most interesting part of the services was the handsome present, a gold headed cane, to Mr. H. B. Eilers, from the members of the Church Council, of which he is a part, being Elder for many years. It was presented to him by the pastor, Rev. F. W. E. Peschau, and responded to with thanks on the part of Mr. Eilers, who said that he would always cherish this as a memento of the generosity of the appreciative brethren.

The services were well arranged and everybody seemed pleased. Thus ended one of the gala days for our German and American Lutheran fellow-citizens. Long will it be remembered by all who were fortunate enough to be present.

Attention is invited to the advertisement of the Mecklenburg Iron Works, as it appears in this issue. Col. S. L. Fremont is the agent here for these works and will be glad to see parties who may be in need of anything in that line and will also furnish full information if addressed through the mails.

Col. Peter Mallett, of New York, and Col. John W. Hinsdale, of Raleigh, were in the city yesterday.

Messrs. A. & I. SHERER have received, per express, a large lot of Children's Blouse Suits made up very handsomely in different shades, which they will sell at astonishingly low prices. Call early and procure a suit for the boys.
