

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VII.

WILMINGTON, N. C., TUESDAY, MAY 29, 1883.

NO. 128

THIS PAPER published every evening, Sundays excepted by JOSH T. JAMES, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR. SUBSCRIPTIONS POSTAGE PAID. One year $1.00. Six months, $2.00. Three months, $1.00. One month, 35 cents. The paper will be delivered by carriers free of charge, in any part of the city, at the above rates, or 10 cents per week. Advertising rates low and liberal. Subscribers will report any and all failures to receive their paper regularly.

The Daily Review has the largest bona fide circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

Anti-Jewish riots have broken out at Rostoff, Russia.

Senator Anthony has so far recovered as to be able to ride in the open air.

Ex-Chief Justice George Sharswood, of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, is dying.

Senator Rollins' successor will be elected by the New Hampshire Legislature that is to meet to-morrow.

Congressman Crapo, of Massachusetts, who has been very ill in Washington, is rapidly regaining his strength.

The display of devotion on the part of the people on the day of the Czar's entry into Moscow is commented upon by the foreign journals.

It is believed that Lord Granville has sent a communication to the French government expressing regret at the action of France towards Madagascar.

Sir Michael Bass, the brewer of "Bass's pale ale," has given away to different towns for libraries, churches, clubs, &c., sums that foot up to £173,000.

The art collections of Wm. Henry Hulbert, lately editor of the World, will be sold in New York on Thursday. Mr Hulbert is about to go to Europe.

Local societies at Montreal have no intention of acting contrary to the wishes of their pastors, who lately denounced the affiliation scheme with the American Irish League.

Senator Fair's son is described as "a boy of 20, and the heir to millions—steering a straight course for the gutter." It is an old saying that rich men's sons frequently begin where their fathers left off, and leave off where their fathers began.

The Czar was safely crowned last Sunday. The ceremony was magnificent in the extreme and the cost of the affair to the government is placed at $125,000,000 which is, in all probability, very much in excess of the actual cost. The enthusiasm of the populace in Moscow was a noticeable fact and goes to disprove the statements of those newspaper men who speak of an irreconcilable conflict between the Czar and his people. The Nihilists in Russia are not by any means the people of that country.

Gen. Longstreet has been interviewed by a World reporter. He declares that the colored people in Georgia have become Democrats but he negates to say how they were driven there in disgust with Gen. Longstreet and his political allies. He said they "maintain an outward semblance of adherence to the Republican organization for the sake of getting a Federal office or two, but on election day they vote the Democratic ticket. Take our last election, for instance. There is a colored voting population in Georgia of about 75,000.—The total number of Republican votes cast was about 25,000, of which about half were polled by white voters. That shows that at least 50,000 of the Georgia colored citizens have cut loose from the party of freedmen's bureaus and similar institutions, which were supposed to have been founded in their interests."

The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 15 bales.

We understand that the suit of Mrs. Matthews vs the Carolina Central R. R., will probably be argued in the Federal Court, at Raleigh, next week. Judges Bond and Seymour will preside and Chief Justice Waite may also be present, but this is hardly probable.

Capt. Jim McGowan advertises in this issue cool beer and our country visitors are invited to call and try it.—He has also as good a five cents cigar as can be found anywhere in the country for the money.

Messrs. A. & I. SHIRER have received, per express, a large lot of Children's Blouse Suits made up very handsomely in different shades, which they will sell at astonishingly low prices. Call early and procure a suit for the boys.

The annual meeting of the Ladies Memorial Association, for the election of officers and the transaction of other important business, will be held in the schoolroom in rear of St. James' Church to-morrow evening, at 5 o'clock.

Mr. F. M. James, one of the health officers of the city, who has been absent for about a month on a visit to Fall River and Nantucket, Mass., returned here Sunday, and was on the streets, looking well and hearty, yesterday.

The revenue cutter Colfax came up and anchored off the Custom House this morning, and will probably remain in her present position until after memorial services are closed to-morrow, as she is to fire a salute on that occasion.

There is to be a Kindergarten exhibition at the Tileston School, at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon, at which time the present session will close. The entertainment promises to be very interesting, and will be free to invited guests.

There was a large throng on board the Passport this morning, bound for a day of pleasure and recreation down the river. The party was composed principally of the excursionists who arrived here yesterday evening, but there was a "right smart sprinklin'" of our citizens among them.

Damon and Pythias Lodge, No. 31, Independent Order of Good Samaritans and Daughter of Samaria, had a celebration yesterday, the principal feature of which consisted in forming a procession on Princess street, whence, preceded by a band of music, they marched to St. Stephen's A. M. E. Church, colored, where George L. Mabson delivered an address appropriate to the occasion.

The Scientific American, after giving several remedies tested for destroying cabbage worms, says: "The most satisfactory remedy tested, however, consisted of a mixture of one-half pound each of hard soap and kerosene oil in three gallons of water. This was applied August 6th; an examination the following day showed many, if not all, the worms killed." The remedy is simple and cheap, and probably worth a trial.

The following is a list of the unmailable postal matter remaining in the Postoffice in this city:

J. W. Holt, Rockingham, N. C.; Mrs. W. B. Barker, Dudley, N. C.; J. H. Tucker, 31 Bradford st., Boston; Rev. B. Mainard, Clinton, N. C.

A fine assortment of Guns and Pistols at JACOB'S Hardware Depot.

An Association Was organized in the First colored Baptist Church of Wilmington, N. C., corner Fifth and Campbell streets, known as the Wilmington Missionary Baptist Association of N. C., Monday, May 29, A. D. 1883. The officers elected for the ensuing year are as follows:

President—Rev. A. M. Conway. Vice-President—Rev. H. J. Dorsett. Secretary—Deacon E. D. Neil. Corresponding Secretary—Deacon A. J. Stanfort.

Treasurer—Rev. Isaac Nixon. Adviser—Rev. Wm. Buchanan.

A Freak of Nature.

Mr W. S. Pridden, one of the best farmers of Caintuck township, Pender county, had a chicken hatched out on his plantation, a short time since, which was a singular freak of nature. It had four well developed wings and the same number of legs, while in all other respects it resembled the ordinary style of chick-a-biddy. They raise lots of good things up in that neighborhood—gallant men, lovely women, handsome babies and any quantity of fun as the occasion demands—but when they undertake to raise four winged and four legged chickens they may expect a failure. They die young.

Commendable.

Ex-Policeman B. Watkins, who had the misfortune to put one of his hands quite severely some days since, which was followed by serious inflammation and erysipelas, is not in a fair way of speedy recovery. His friends, on the police force, however, have not forgotten him in his hour of trouble, as was shown yesterday when they made up a nice little purse of money and sent it to him, accompanied by a generous donation of groceries. Our policemen are as modest as they are generous hearted, and not a mother's son of them told us a word about what they had done; but we found it out through dispatches received per grapevine telegraph.

Silver Plated Spoons and Forks, low prices, at JACOB'S.

About Blackfish.

We are requested to state that the blackfish excursion spoken of to take place on the steamer Passport to-morrow will not be a regular fishing excursion. The boat will leave her wharf at her usual time, 9 o'clock, stopping at Smithville, and will make a trip outside to the grounds, accommodating them who may wish to fish. It is breathed in the air though, that on Thursday, the 7th of June there will be a regular fishing excursion, of which due notice will be given in this paper, and for further particulars we refer you to the "General."

Fine Photographs on exhibition at the Yates Gallery.

The Excursionists.

The excursion train from Shelby arrived here at 5.30 o'clock yesterday evening having on board about 300 excursionists, fifty of whom are ladies, from that thriving town and the intermediate points. There are quite a number of merchants among them and all appear to belong to a good and well-to-do class of citizens. The men, as a general thing, and the ladies without an exception, are remarkably good looking. They soon found comfortable quarters at the Purcell House, Commercial Hotel, and other houses of more or less note, after which they might be seen, alone and in groups, promenading our principal streets until considerably after dark.

The trip from Shelby, a distance of 242 miles, was made in 12 hours and 5 minutes, which was remarkably good time considering the many stoppages that had to be made. The crowd was very orderly and there was no difficulty or disturbance to mar the enjoyment of the ride. There are delegations from nearly every station along the line of the road, and their universal good conduct receives the warmest praise of the managers of the excursion.

At 9 o'clock this morning a large number (as stated elsewhere) went down the river on the Passport, and will attend a ball to-night at the Hotel Brunswick. To-morrow they will have an opportunity, on the same boat, to pay the customary tribute to "Old Neptune," by an excursion to the blackfish grounds, and on Thursday night there will be a ball at the Seaside Park Hotel for their benefit and pleasure.

We bid them the heartiest sort of a welcome, the most pleasant enjoyment of their visit, and, in the language of John E. Ince in the Professor, that they may "Come Again."

Our visitors are invited to the Yates Photographic Gallery, 119 Market street.

Cape Fear Sugar.

We were shown yesterday by Maj. W. L. Young a sample of sugar, the product of cane grown by Mr. Ransom M. Middleton, in Wareaw township, Duplin county, and manufactured by him. It is very nice in appearance and taste and was fully equal to the "C" sugar of commerce. Mr. Middleton is one of the best practical farmers in Duplin county, and we hope that his effort in the manufacture of sugar has been such as to warrant more extended efforts in the enterprise.

The sugar made by Mr. Middleton is from the Louisiana cane and makes at the rate of about 2,700 pounds per acre on highly improved land. Over 500 farmers in Duplin have made sugar and syrup the last season from the different varieties of the sorghum and the Chinese or Louisiana cane one farmer having cultivated 30 acres. It has been found that the yield is far greater from the Louisiana cane, which ripens 13 to 14 joints. As a yielding crop, when properly managed, it has been found that the growing of sugar cane is far more remunerative than cotton.

The State Agricultural Department at Raleigh is getting data and working up the sugar and syrup interests of Duplin and Sampson counties.

In a series of articles published in the REVIEW in 1876, entitled "Notes on Eastern North Carolina," it was predicted that the growing of the Louisiana cane could be made a profitable crop in the Southeast section of the State, from the Waccamaw to the Northeast river, from the fact that the wild olive and other semi-tropical plants were found in this area.

We have been requested to reproduce the series referred to, and may do so at an early day, as there are parties here who desire to send copies of the papers containing them to various localities in the North and West and Europe.

The Czar is crowned, and success crowns our efforts at the Yates Gallery.

Hons. John C. New, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, Frank Hatton, First Assistant Postmaster General, and Mr. George C. Gorham, editor of the Washington, (D. C.) National Republican, will arrive here to-night. Mr. Gorham will deliver the Memorial address at the National Cemetery to-morrow. The party will have rooms at the Purcell House during their stay here, where all who desire may call and see them.

The Crazy Man.

William Miller, the colored insane man who was taken up on Saturday night, has been ordered carried to the insane department of the County Poor House, where an inquisition into his condition will be had in a day or two. The change from the guard house was made in order to give the man more freedom and fresh air, which, it is thought, will be conducive to his recovery.
