

The Daily Review.

JOSH. T. JAMES, Editor & Prop. WILMINGTON, N. C.

MONDAY, JUNE 11 1883.

Entered at the Postoffice at Wilmington, N. C., as second-class matter.

Another electric railway is building in Germany. It will connect Frankfurt-on-the-Main with Offenbach, eight miles away, and the dynamo will be driven by steam engines stationed at a village half way between the termini.

The coronation of the Czar will cost England $30,000, of which $10,000 was spent for a palace fitted for the Duke of Edinburgh, and $15,000 more for transporting him and his suite to Moscow. The remaining $5,000 was to be spent in gratuities and unforeseen expenses.

The famous 'Island No. 10,' in the Mississippi River, no longer exists, and the place where it stood is known only by a slight ripple of the water. Before the war it contained 400 acres, a fine residence, a splendid orchard and all the concomitants of a prosperous plantation. During the war the shores were lined with batteries supported by 7,000 men.

Lieut. Gorringe, of the American Ship Building Company at Philadelphia, has contracted for the construction of the largest iron sailing ship ever built in the United States. She will be 265 feet keel, 43 feet beam and 25 feet depth of hold, with a carrying capacity of 3,600 tons. She is intended for the Pacific and East India trade, and will be commanded by Capt. D. Townsend, of Barnegat, N. J.

An Italian priest, called Dom Bosco, has been creating quite a sensation in Paris by his eloquent appeals in behalf of the orphaned poor of France and Italy. More than 100,000 poor children are being trained to be farmers and gardeners in the homes found for them by Dom Bosco in the agricultural districts of both countries. The purity and devotion of his life to this cause have won for him the reputation of working miracles, and crowds follow him wherever he goes.

German newspapers report that the Shah of Persia has become a raving maniac, and the question of his successor is being seriously discussed. His oldest son, Prince Selli, is an able and popular man, but is debarred from the succession by the fact that he is the son of a peasant woman. The legitimate heir, who is now minister of war and governor of Teheran, is, on the contrary, incapable and unpopular, so that in case of a conflict of claims the public would probably espouse the cause of the eldest son in spite of the flaw in his title.

It is a fact that so firm in texture is the paper of a genuine Bank of England note that burning alone can hardly destroy it. The authorities have in a little glazed frame the remnants of a note which was in the great fire of Chicago. Though completely charred and black, the paper still holds together and the printing of the note is said to be sufficiently legible to establish its genuineness and to warrant its being cashed. There are some other notes at the bank which were cashed after having gone down with the Hurdy-dice a few years ago and reduced to little better than pulp.

Mme. Jenny Lind Goldschmidt does not seem to be growing old gracefully. Now at the age of 63 she is described as possessing from the crown of her bewigged head to the sole of her No. 5 shoe not one line of grace or beauty. Her form is angular, her face hard, her eyes are dull and passionless, her features irregular and harmonious. But when she speaks the plainness of her face and form is forgotten, for her tones are still those of the "Swedish Nightingale" and her features light up in sympathy with the music of her voice. She lives in a big house in South Kensington, surrounded by spacious and well-shaded lawns. She seldom sings now—only occasionally at royal request, or for the Bach choir, of which her husband was the founder.

The American brig Mary Celeste sailed from New York last week. Ten years ago a British merchantman sailing the Mediterranean saw her with all sail set, yet everything was wrong. They boarded her. Everything was in perfect order; fire burning in the galley; dinner untasted and scarcely cold; cargo intact; pumps dry; no one, living or dead, was on board; the log written up to the hour of her departure showed that she hailed from Boston; there was not a drop of blood, a lock of hair, a disordered room, or anything to show the sign of a struggle. From that day on not the slightest clue has been obtained. She has been a lucky ship ever since, and not a ghost or spook has appeared. In the cabin child's toys were scattered around, and a piece of a woman's dress was found under the needle of the sewing machine.

A cable dispatch from London says: "The horizon of European politics has been suddenly overcast by gloomy clouds, which seem drifting toward this island. The news of the French action toward Madagascar has created a very unpleasant impression. The French relations with China are also likely to create complications, the result of which no one can foresee. The British Government has already resolved to increase the English fleet on the China station, and probably take further steps to protect British interest in that quarter. The Sultan is again pursuing his old tactics of fostering discontent in Egypt and in intriguing against England. He is reported to be trying to induce the Czar to enter into a secret Turko-Russian alliance to overthrow English influence in the East, assuring him that the other Powers can be counted on as friendly, and that England is his only enemy."

SHORTS.

Chicago bricklayers struck for $4. a day and got it.

The reports of Queen Victoria's serious illness are denied.

The City Council of Chicago has passed an ordinance giving the right to a company to construct an elevated railway.

The Governor of Pennsylvania has signed to cohabit the property of telegraph companies which consolidate with competing lines.

George M. Willing, of St. Louis, is about to institute legal proceedings to secure a tract of 2,700 square miles of land along the Gila river.

There is a great excitement in real estate circles at Bismarck, Dak., owing to the location of the capital there. Chicago and Eastern capitalists are heavy buyers.

The Anti-secret Society State convention met at Montpelier, Vt., last week. The attendance was light. Secret societies were denounced as the foundation of all bad government.

James Dolan, who was recently pardoned by Gov. Butler "in a dying condition," was arrested at Woonsocket, R. I., last week, while breaking into a liquor saloon. A dozen recent burglars and highway assaults are attributed to him.

MOONSHINE.

Flora: "The bean is the best Winter pot-plant. Pot 'em Saturday night with pork, and decorate your Sunday morning breakfast-table with them."

A Congressman who does not scatter six or eight bushels of Agricultural Department seeds among his constituents must make the next campaign on his temperance record.—Detroit Free Press.

A Florida paper says: "There are individuals in every town who will have nothing to do with anything they can't boss." We know other fellows in every town who can't boss anything except that thing they have nothing to do with.—Texas Siftings.

Down in Salem, the other day, a bright little girl was sent to get some eggs, and on her way back stumbled and fell, making sad havoc with the contents of her basket. "Won't you catch it when you get home," she thought, exclaimed her companion. "No, indeed, I won't," she answered. "I've got a grandmother."

Dr. Neale was once strongly urged to perform some service, but he objected, pleading a prior engagement. This turned out to be to have several teeth extracted. Finally the doctor said, referring to the person who had desired his presence, "Tell him I'll go if he'll take my place at the dentist's."—Religious Herald, Va.

"I don't believe you have the water of the right temperature. You must get at a thermometer," said an Austin mother to the new colored nurse. "What am I to do?" "It is an instrument by which you can tell if the water is too hot or too cold." "I kin tell dat ar without any instrument. Ef de chile turns blue den de water am too cold, and ef hit turns red den I knows dat de water am too hot."—Texas Siftings.

A stupid-looking recruit halted before a blacksmith's shop, the proprietor of which was forging a shoe, and eyed the performance with interest. The brawny smith, dissatisfied with the man's curiosity, held the red-hot iron suddenly under his nose, hoping to make him beat a hasty retreat. "If you'll give me half-a-crown I will lick it," said the soldier. "I'll stop the bragart's jaw," thought the smith, as he took from his pocket a half-crown and held it out. The cunning son of a man quickly grabbed the coin, licked it, and walked away, whistling "The girl I left behind me."

Eight Years' Scrofula Cured. A valued correspondent, Albert Simpson, Esq., writing from Peoria, Ill., says: "Samaritan Nervine cured me of scrofula after having suffered for 8 years with the disease." Mr. Simpson lives in Peoria. Ask him. Your druggist keeps it. $1.50

It is a singular thing, but the most pleasing period of a dentist's life is when he looks down in the mouth.

"I am truly thankful that I ever used Dr. Benson's Celery and Chamomile Pills, for they cured my periodical headache." Mrs. J. R. Paddison, Point Caswell, N. C. 50 cts. at druggists.

The mouthpiece of the telephone may be perfectly respectable, but there are a great many things said against it.

Wells' "Rough on Corns." Ask for Wells' "Rough on Corns." 15c. Quick, complete, permanent cure. Corns, warts, bunions.

Affection in any part of our carriage is lighting a candle to our defect, and never fails to make us be taken notice of, either as wanting sincerity.

Mr. M. Bryan, Vanceburg, N. C., says: "I can highly recommend Brown's Iron Bitters as an excellent tonic."

What Seven Could not do.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., April 6, 1881. H. H. WARNER & Co., Sirs—Seven physicians could not do for me what your Safe Kidney and Liver Cure accomplished. Hopelessly sick with kidney diseases, it restored me to perfect health. JACOB MYERS.

Lord Beaconsfield's fancy for primroses is said to be due to the circumstance that old Mrs. Williams of Torquay, who left him $200,000, always had bunches put in his room, and he made a point of coming down to dinner with one of them in his buttonhole.

It seems impossible that a remedy made of such common, simple plants as Hops, Buchu, Mandrake, Dandelion, &c., should make so many and such great cures as Hop Bitters do, but when old and young, rich and poor, pastor and doctor, lawyer and editor, all testify to having been cured by them, you must believe and try them yourself, and doubt no longer.

MISCELLANEOUS.

SEEK

health and avoid sickness. Instead of feeling tired and worn out, instead of aches and pains, wouldn't you rather feel fresh and strong?

You can continue feeling miserable and good for nothing, and no one but yourself can find fault, but if you are tired of that kind of life, you can change it if you choose.

How? By getting one bottle of BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, and taking it regularly according to directions.

Mansfield, Ohio, Nov. 26, 1881.

Gentlemen—I have suffered with pain in my side and back, and great soreness on my breast, with shooting pains all through my body, attended with great weakness, depression of spirits, and loss of appetite. I have taken several different medicines, and was treated by prominent physicians for my liver, kidneys, and spleen, but I got no relief. I thought I would try Brown's Iron Bitters; I have now taken one bottle and a half and am about well—pain in side and back all gone—soreness all out of my breast, and I have a good appetite, and am gaining in strength and flesh. It can justly be called the King of Medicines.

JOHN K. ALLENDER.
