VICTORIA'S ABDICATION.

Alarming Reports Current in Washington.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—The Sunday Herald says: "A representative of one of the prominent European powers tells me that a very serious event is impending in England, which is the abdication of the Queen. The reasons given for this unexpected course are Her Majesty's fast-failing health and increasing unwillingness and sometimes an inability on her part to perform the duties incident to government.

"For some years the Queen has been a mild believer in Spiritualism. She thought the spirit of her dead husband used to assist her in working out the questions which perplexed and sometimes annoyed her. Since the death of her favorite servant, John Brown, she has been very much depressed, and finally it was necessary to remove her to Balmoral, where some of her happiest days were spent with the lover and husband of her youth.

'I am told that some very pathetic scenes took place at her last visit there. She seemed to feel the actual presence of her dead Prince, and talked as though he were by her side. This and other occurrences frightened and alarmed her daughter Beatrice very greatly, and she insisted that some of the other members of the family should come down at once. The life of Princess Beatrice must be something dreary beyond words.

The information was telegraphed from London by the ambassador of a great power to his sovereign on Wednesday last that the abdication of the Queen of England was impending, and would probably occur very soon.

"From any other than this most reliable source I should doubt it. The Queen has clung to the visible endowments of the throne with such tenacity that she must have greatly changed before the thought was bearable. But the break-down of her health has been followed by melancholia of the most pronounced type.

It seems not to be generally known that the trouble with the Queen's knee comes from a large ulcer of scrofulous and cankerous nature that has formed under the knee-joint, and in spite of all that can be done is eating its way through the muscle and nerve to the bone, and her condition is very serious indeed.

"The abdication of the Queen and succession of the Prince of Wales as Prince Regent would change the whole condition of English politics."

Sympathetic Insanity.

TROY, N. Y., June 10—A singular instance of periodical insanity is exhibited in the case of a well-known young lady of great beauty and belonging to a very respectable family in this city. Though permitted to go at large she is carefully watched, and will doubtless soon be sent to an asylum, where she may find rest from mental excitement and receive proper medical treatment.

The most singular feature of the poor girl's misfortune is that she suffers under the insane attacks only at periods when her brother is similarly suffering. He has been very violent at times and during those attacks his sister's mind became clouded as if in sympathy with him. At other times she shows no evidence of a disordered mind.

Iroquois Chiefs and the Princess.

MONTREAL, June 10.—A party of Iroquois chiefs from the Coughnawago reservation, on the St. Lawrence, seven miles from Montreal, were received at Rideau Hall last evening by the Marquis of Lorne and the Princess Louise. They had called to protest against encroachments by whites upon their lands, and spoke of their ancestors in colonial times. The Princess expressed indignation that privileges granted to the Indians by her forefather, George III., should be disregarded. Lord Lorne promised to look into the matter, and the chiefs went home.

Major Nickerson.

WASHINGTON, June 10—No one seems to know whether Major Nickerson is here or not. He is said to be in a dozen other places. Still, it is stated on trustworthy authority that Major Nickerson was seen here to-day and that he proposes to face his court-martial. There is very little reason why he should stay here. His pay has already been cut off. He will undoubtedly be court-martialed. The decision of the Philadelphia court places him in a very embarrassing position.

The President's Summer.

WASHINGTON, June 10—The President betook himself to the cottage at the Soldiers' Home yesterday. He will remain here until about the 10th of July, when he will go to Newport for a short stay. From there he will go on board the Despatch for a trip along the coast as far east as Mount Desert. This may occupy three weeks. He will try once more some of the good fishing in Canadian waters, such as he enjoyed last year. In August he hopes to be able to go to the Yosemite Valley.

A Guiteau Juror Insane.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—Michael Sheahan, one of the jurors in the Guiteau trial, is held at a police station house here awaiting commitment to an insane asylum. He has exhibited evidences of mental aberration since a time shortly after the trial of Guiteau. At an early hour this morning he was arrested on the street near his home for disorderly conduct. Under the impression that his wife was about to murder him, he had rushed out of his house and alarmed the neighborhood with his yells for help. A policeman arrested and took him to the station house, where it was found that he was insane.

Sheahan was employed as a porter at the Metropolitan Hotel, and it is supposed the excitement of the trial in which he served as a juryman unsettled his mind.

An Imperial Gift.

Moscow, June 10—Minister Hunt and Admiral Baldwin have received today the large gold medal commemorative of the coronation. Admiral Baldwin has received a gold snuffbox, with a portrait of the Czar set in brilliants, to mark the Czar's personal appreciation of the courtesy of the United States in sending a special naval mission to Moscow.

A Fenian Flag.

CORUNNA, June 10, 1883.—An English brig lying in the harbor here recently hoisted at her mainmast a Fenian flag. The flag was green, with a white cross in the centre. At the same time she was flying a small English flag at her foremast. The English Consul sent a messenger to order the captain to lower the green flag, but the messenger met with rough treatment on the vessel. The Consul then summoned the assistance of the Spanish Coast Guard, and eventually a party of armed sailors boarded the vessel and removed the objectionable flag. An inquiry has been instituted into the circumstances of the affair.

Bishop Laval's Canonization.

MONTREAL, June 10.—The preliminaries for the canonization of Bishop Laval, the first Bishop of Quebec and the founder of Laval University at Quebec, have been completed and the record has been forwarded to Rome. It is of great length, including more than 1,000 pages of foolscap, and includes the testimony taken by a commission appointed for the purpose by the Pope in May, 1880. A large number of witnesses, including some of the most eminent churchmen in the province, were examined. Twelve persons testified that they had obtained cure from sickness through the intercession of Bishop Laval.

Sullivan's Latest Achievement.

BOSTON, June. 10.-Since Friday evening last the police of Boston have been keeping a sharp lookout for the champion pugilist, the well-known J. Lawrence Sullivan. It seems that on Thursday last Mr. Sullivan imbibed too freely of hot-weather beverages, and got his head in such a condition that when he returned home late in the evening he was taken with a sudden inclination to break the furniture. When he had damaged his household goods to the extent of about $500 he felt himself in good fighting trim, and having no one to try his prowess upon except his wife, he proceeded to knock her out, disregarding entirely the Marquis of Queensberry rules. Mrs. Sullivan on Friday evening had a warrant issued for her husband's arrest. Since that time Mr. Sullivan has not been seen on the streets, nor has he frequented any of his usual resorts. It is asserted on pretty good authority that he is rusticating in a village a short distance outside of Providence, R. I., and waiting for the unpleasantness to blow over.

STATE NEWS.

Goldsboro Messenger: The total white vote of Goldsboro township is 488. ——The crops of all kind in Pitt county promise to be large. ——Mrs. Mary S. Shepard, who recently died at Newbern, left an estate valued at six hundred thousand dollars. ——We welcome Capt. Geo. Wait back to the passenger train on the N. C Railroad, in the place of Capt. Dobson, promoted. ——The annual ponny-penning at Morehead takes place June 15. Hundreds of people always attend these pennings. Between 800 and 1,000 wild ponies will be penned. ——The Goldsboro and Snow Hill telegraph line will soon be a reality. The poles are being placed on the line and in a few more weeks electric communication will be an established fact between the two points.

Asheville Citizen: A young mulatto who is known as Dick Flinner, aged about 15 years, is in jail charged with a henious crime on a colored child who is said to be less than nine years of age. We do not care to say more. The proof is positive and the punishment is death. ——Mr J C Duncan has fitted the great hotel at Warm Springs, N C, with an electric annunciator It took nearly two weeks to complete this improvement and over twenty-one miles of insulated wire were used in making the connections with all the rooms. This hotel is now one of the finest and best equipped hotels among all the summer resorts of the South. It is under the management of Mr H A Gudger, a popular gentleman, and he is prepared to accommodate a thousand guests this season.
