THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VII. WILMINGTON, N. C., THURSDAY, JUNE 14, 1883. NO. 141

The corn crop of the county promises to be immense.
New Orleans is to have an "L" road. The place for its principal station is now under discussion.
The English Bishops have decided that the church shall no longer countenance the Salvation Army.
Half a million of people left New York for the country or seaside last Sunday. It was a hot day, and they did not forget it.
If Mrs. Myra Clark Gaines only lives long enough she may get that money out of New Orleans yet. The city is now under bonds in the suit for $2,500,000.

Next to Texas, Wyoming is probably the greatest stock-growing region in the United States. It is said that about 1,000,000 cattle are now feeding on its plains, the estimated value of which is about $30,000,000.
Last year over 253,000 pounds of ostrich feathers were sent to England from Capitan, the value of the feathers being over $5,400,000. It is said that the total is seven-fold what the total was ten years ago.

There has been two much whiskey drinking among the star route jury and one of them had a fit yesterday in the court room, which was superinduced by excessive indulgence in intoxicating beverages. At least, that was the opinion of Judge Wylie.
The Bank of France employs 160 female clerks, who receive 60 cents a day to begin with, and after a year or two an annual salary of $360. They sit in rooms apart from the men, are superintended by officials of their own sex, and their work is of the best quality.

The Washington Critic states that when Gen. Sheridan assumes the command of the army he will be only a ranking Major-General, as the rank of General expires with the retracy of General Sherman, and the title of Lieutenant General, which Sheridan now holds, goes by the board at the same time.
Mme. Theo has returned to Paris very jubilant over her success in this country, and is resolved to come back next spring. She tells a story how an American followed her everywhere, was present at all her performances, and declared he would shoot himself. Finally he consoled himself by running off with her maid.

The New York World wants the ticket of 1876 amended by the substitution of Judge Joremiiah S. Black in place of Samuel J. Tilden. Thomas J. Hendrick, that paper would advise as the candidate for Vice President. Black and Hendricks might make a good run and there is no doubt that Tom and Jerry would prove the most hilarious ticket ever known in this country.
The oyster growers on the coasts of France and England, having discovered that oyster shells thrown back into the sea produce thirty or forty fold in two years, will next summer dump into the ocean a few million shells with some live oysters atop. The theory is that the young oysters attach themselves to the old shells in preference to any other object on the bed of the sea.

A report having been circulated that John L. Sullivan, the prize fighter, got on a spree a few days since and broke up the furniture of his house and beat his wife, and then cleared out to evade the consequences, that woman comes out in a card and denounces the story as a gross fabrication, and states that, instead of ever doing her personal harm, he has always been a tender and devoted husband.
Lawyer Dukes, of Uniontown, Pa., who wrote letters to Capt. Nutt, of the same place, charging the daughter of the latter with acts which it true would make her an outcast, and then shot the father in cold blood and brother of the traduced sister. Dukes was tried for the murder and the fact of the killing was fully proven, but he was acquitted by the jury. If some one would now kill the jury so that they may never again have an opportunity to prevent justice, there would be very little cause for complaint.

Congressman Sparks, of Illinois, says McDonald will be the Democratic presidential candidate next year. Ex-Senator McDonald has fewer enemies, in or out of his party, than almost any other gentlemen named for the position.
Sixteen Democratic members of the next Congress have responded to the New York Herald's inquiries as to who would be their favorite for the next Speaker of the House. Of this number ten are in favor of Carlisle, and only three are in favor of Randall.

Judge White, of Dallas, Texas, thinks that the great electric storms are due to the vast amount of exposed iron. There are 100,000 miles of railway and 200,000 miles of telegraph wire in the United States—quite enough, he urges, to influence natural electricity.

The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 6 bales.
We regret to learn that ex-Judge Rodman is seriously ill.
There was nothing to call for the attention of the City Court this morning.
The Illuminated Vignette Portrait all the rage. Made at the Yates Gallery.
We received no News and Observer yesterday, but we got two to-day to make up for it.
Steamboatmen report that there has been about a 14 foot rise in the Cape Fear within the last few days.
Silver Plated Spoons and Forks, low prices, at JACOBI'S.

We hope all our young friends will remember the entertainment at Odd Fellows Hall to-night, to be given by Prof. Phillippe, the magician.
There was a large and happy hearted throng on board the Passport this morning bound down the river to Smithville and the Forts for a day of recreation and pleasure.
The foundations of Messrs. Brown & Roddick's new store have all been laid and workmen are engaged in putting in the timbers upon which the superstructure is to be built.
There was quite a gale of wind blowing last night and until early this morning, when a heavy, pouring shower of rain set in which seemed to mollify the angry breezes, and this morning was decidedly clear, calm, and refreshing.

We have been shown by Mr. G. W. Atkinson some very fine peaches of the Early Hale variety, grown at Apex, in this vicinity. This is early for North Carolina. Who can beat Apex—News and Observer.
Why, bless you, we have had peaches here in Wilmington, raised within 8 miles of the city, on the Sound, for two or three weeks. They are so plentiful with us that we are getting tired of them. Give us a watermelon.
Change of Weather.
We had copious and refreshing showers during the forenoon, but afterwards the wind hauled around to the East ward, and it became quite cool, and making it decidedly unpleasant and disagreeable for the excursionists who went down the river this morning.

Magistrate's Court.
Elias Halsey, colored, was brought before Justice Millis to-day, charged by Betty Adams, also colored, with the abduction of her daughter Rachel Adams. It is rather a mixed up family mess which will probably be unraveled on Saturday next, to which time the hearing of the case was postponed.
Look at Your Tickets.
The following numbers drew the principle prizes in the Louisiana State Lottery on Tuesday last: 23,131; 75,008; 31,903; 20,683; 30,001; 7,109; 16,159; 47,013; 72,457. If any of our readers have either of the above numbers or fractional parts thereof, they will be entitled to quite a nice little sum.
We learn that one-fifth of the capital prize of $150,000, was drawn in Raleigh.
Dr. H. V. Dunston, Bertie, Co., N. C., wrote of Dr. Worthington's Cholera and Diarrhoea Medicine: "It has been used for many years and always with success."

Death of Aged Man.
Rev. Dr. James B. Taylor has been called to Baltimore on account of the death of his wife's father, which occurred on the night of Tuesday, the 12th inst. Mrs. Taylor accompanied him. The deceased was about 80 years of age. This family bereavement prevented Dr. Taylor from attending Wake Forest College Commencement.
Perfectly pleasing photographic portraits Lardner Photographer. Yates Gallery.

Was it a Thief?
Mr. James Smith, who lives in the house of Mrs. McDonald, on Chestnut between Eighth and Ninth streets, awoke this morning to find quite a number of strange tracks in his yard and upon the front and rear piazzas of the house. He imagines that they were made by some one who was prowling about in search of plunder, but has not missed anything, from about his premises. It was probably some thief whose courage was not equal to his propensity for stealing.
Will not be Idle.
Capt. D. Sherman, who retires from the command of the steamer John Dawson, does not propose to be idle, but will devote his entire time, in the future, to mercantile pursuits in which he has been for some years largely engaged. He has a general store at Point Caswell and another about 3 miles distant from that place, and they require and will receive his closest attention. He is one of the most extensive dealers in naval stores in that section, and he will continue that business in the future as in the past.

Vital Statistics.
Persons giving in their taxes are now required to answer the following questions, in accordance with chapter 73, laws of 1881, for the information of the State Board of Health:
Are you married? Unmarried? Widowed? or widower?
Give the number of deaths in the family for the past year, naming the disease which caused death, if known.
Have any cases of small-pox, scarlet fever, diphtheria, yellow fever or cholera occurred in your family in the past twelve months?
The requisite forms are prepared and furnished to the various counties by the State Board of Health.

Moonlight and Salt Air.
The moonlight excursion on the Passport to Federal Point, Tuesday night next, under the management of Capt. John W. Harper and Mr. Geo. N. Harriss promises to be a very enjoyable affair. The gentlemen in charge have made every arrangement which will add to the comfort and pleasure of those who attend. Those of our friends who indulge in the dance will have an opportunity to do so and at the same time can have the benefits of the invigorating sea breezes at Federal Point. This will be a favorable opportunity for those whose daily business prevents their leaving town to enjoy a whiff of salt air and be benefited thereby. The Passport will leave promptly at 8 o'clock and return punctually at 12 o'clock.
A fine assortment of Guns and Pistols at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

Reminiscences of North Carolina.
We have received from the publisher, Joseph Shellington, Washington, D. C., part first of "Reminiscences and Memories of North Carolina and Eminent North Carolinians," by Mr. John H. Wheeler, who will be well known to the most of our readers as the historian of North Carolina. The plan of the present work is to embody "Reminiscences" of the principal historic events and of the leading minds with whom those events were associated from the earliest settlement of the State until the present time. It will be issued in monthly numbers, each number containing valuable matter, a large amount of which has never before been published. The number before us contains the history of events and persons of Alamance, Anson, Beaufort, Bertie, Bladen, Brunswick, Buncombe, Burke, Cabarrus, Caldwell and Camden counties, and constitute a valuable addition to the history and literature of the State. Mr. Wheeler has performed a very important work in a thorough, pains-taking and conscientious manner, and we wish that a copy might reach every family in the State. The price is $1 per number.
The celebrated 'Fish Brand Gills' Twine is sold only at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

Superior Court.
This tribunal has been engaged during the day upon the following case:
J. I. Metts vs. P. Cumming; which was not concluded when our report closed.

Exports Foreign.
Nor. barque Libra, Capt. Nielsen, cleared to-day for Stettin, Germany, with 3,580 barrels rosin, valued at $5,120.56, shipped by Messrs Paterson, Downing & Co.
Good Morning.
Don't forget to say "good morning." Say it to your parents, brothers and sisters, your schoolmates, your teachers—and say it cheerfully, and with a smile it will do you good, and do your friends good. There's a kind aspiration in every "good morning," heartily spoken, that helps to make hope fresher and work lighter. It seems really to make the morning good and morning, it is true of kind, heartsome, greetings—they cheer the discouraged rest the tired one and somehow make the wheel of life run more smoothly. Be liberal with them then, and let no morning pass, however gloomy it may be, that you do not help at least to brighten by your smiles and cheerful words.

Death of Mr. VonGlahn.
We regret to announce the death of Mr. John D. VonGlahn, which took place at about 10 o'clock this forenoon. He had been an intense sufferer for a long time, a victim to that insidious disease, consumption, and had been confined to the house for nearly or quite two months. His condition has been such for several weeks that his death might be looked for at almost any moment, yet, when it did come to relieve him of his pain and distress, it caused a shock of sadness to think he should be thus taken away in his young manhood when there were so many pleasant surroundings to make life desirable. He was about 25 years of age and leaves a wife, but no children.—His life was insured in the Legion of Honor to the amount of $5,000.
Old pictures correctly copied prices low. Yates Gallery.

Death of an Old Citizen.
Col. John McRae, who has been sick for several days, died at about 10 o'clock this forenoon at the residence of Mr. J. W. Taylor, on the corner of North Front and Walnut streets. He was born in the year 1806, in Cumberland county, near Fayetteville, and was consequently about 77 years of age at the time of his death. Col. McRae came to this city about the year 1826, and was for many years actively engaged in mercantile pursuits, from which he finally retired soon after the close of the war. Since then his farm has engaged the principal portion of his attention, until the infirmities incident to advanced age prevented him from engaging in the active affairs of life. He lost his wife several years ago, and never married again. He leaves several daughters, all of whom, we believe, are married, but no sons.
In his social relations, Col. McRae was very quiet and unobtrusive in his manner, kindly and courteous in his demeanor to others, benevolent without ostentation, and in his business affairs a man of the strictest integrity in all his dealings. In fact, a good man in all the relations of life.
