The Daily Review has the largest home file circulation, of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

Promenading on the Brooklyn bridge has fallen to the normal point, the numbered crossing on foot being 25,000 to 30,000 daily.

One thousand houses, costing from $50,000 down to $1,000 each, have been finished or put under way in Atlanta in five months.

The new license bill which the Illinois House has passed after a prolonged struggle makes the license to sell whiskey, etc., $500, and to sell beer $150.

A young lady in Pennsylvania has by her recent marriage become the mother-in-law of her brother, her daughter-in-law being older than herself.

Blanche K. Bruce, a nephew and namesake of the colored ex Senator, won the first prize at the commencement of the Kansas University at Lawrence a few days ago.

According to a report at Minneapolis, ex-Senator John J. Patterson has been turned out of two hotels in that city in consequence of his suspicious behavior with a young lady whom he represented to be his niece.

Beatrice de Roschilde, whose marriage took place last week, is nineteen years old and one of the most beautiful brunettes in Paris, bearing a striking resemblance to her mother, who was famed for her beauty.

Secretary Chandler is about to advertise and sell thirty of the forty-four war vessels condemned as useless and worthless. This, says the New York World, will be a magnificent opportunity for dealers in old junk, but the day that the sale takes place will be memorable as marking the first triumph in the American Navy in something like twenty years. It will be a splendid victory to get rid of thirty expensive old hulks all in a heap.

Yesterday was voted a very hot day.
The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 119 bales.

The New Illuminated picture is most pleasing, made at the Yates Gallery.

Caesar Smith, colored, of this city, claims that he is 119 years old. Henry Hall, also colored, claims that he is 99 years old.

The rush at the City Hall to list taxes seems to continue unabated. There was a crowd there this morning for that purpose, and they have been coming and going all day.

Oakdale Cemetery never had a more lovely appearance than it presents now.
A stroll through its many avenues shows that the dead are remembered with tender affection.

The clouds in the northern heavens last night were angry and threatening with every appearance of a high wind, but we had only a brisk breeze in this vicinity as an accompaniment to a refreshing shower.

Quite a number of neat residences are in course of erection in different portions of the city. In fact there has been quite a "boom" in building for the last six months and it seems to continue without diminution.

The machine shop at the railroad is fast approaching completion, the slating of the roof being now in progress.
Some few portions of the machinery have been placed in position, and the remainder will be as rapidly as circumstances will permit.

Messrs. H. M. Bowden and R. P. Mc-Dougall have purchased the stock and fixtures of Mr. H. H. Gerhardt, on North Front street, where those gentlemen will establish a large saddlery and harness and carriage making business.
Mr. Bowden's stock, on Market street, was to-day removed to the new stand.

VOL. VII.

WILMINGTON, N. C., MONDAY, JUNE 18, 1883.

NO. 144

"Celestial Concert."

We owe no apology to any one for publishing herewith entire a report which we find in the Tarboro' Guide of an entertainment given in that town last Thursday night for the benefit of St. Barnabas' Guild. There were so many Wilmingtonians engaged in it that it is almost like a report of a concert in the Opera House in our own city. The Guide, which calls it a "celestial concert" reports as follows:

When Shakespeare put it that Orpheus' lute was strung with poet's sinews whose golden touch could soften steel and stones, he must have been looking through the vista of cycles to Willis' Opera House on Thursday night.

Every seat was occupied by Tarboro's brightest and best, to enjoy the Concert given by Misses Ida Lee Bryan and M.
Rawls, Mrs. E. D. Barnes, Mrs. M. A.
Curtis, and Messrs. S. S. Nash, T. P.
Cheshire, M. A. Curtis and Dr. I. N.
Carr, with the kind assistance of Mrs. D.
Kahnweiler, Soprano, Miss Mamie De Rosset, Pianist, and N. Mayer, Tenor, for the benefit of St. Barnabas' Guild.
M. A. Curtis was Musical Director and Henry K. Nash, Jr., Business Manager.

The bill of musical fare was rich, rare, and recherché, and the intensely ecstatic enjoyment of the audience was exhibited in prolonged plaudits. When the curtain fell on the final piece, the assembly arose, with hearts full of thanks to our Wilmington friends, and pride of our town talent and enterprise.

On Wednesday an expectant crowd of friends and admirers, proceeded in carriages to the Tarboro Branch Depot.
When the 6 o'clock train arrived, their vision was greeted with the sight of our distinguished Wilmington visitors.

Mrs. D. Kahnweiler, easily the nightingale of North Carolina, and Mr. Nash, an Mayor, the superb tenor singer, came to take part in the Concert. They were conveyed by Hon. S. H. Fish-plate, ex-Mayor of Wilmington, Mr. D.
Kahnweiler and Misses Ella Fish-plate, Minnie Wells, Lottie Myr, and Miriam Greenwald, radiant beauties of our "sister city by the sea." They had come for the double purpose of hearing their warbles and seeing their many friends.

When the curtain rose, Miss M. De-Rosset, charmingly robed in a pink silk skirt with white Spanish lace overdress and pearl ornaments and hair most becomingly arranged, sat at the Grand Square Upright Krabe Piano.
She has one of those lovely faces in which new beauties arise the longer you gaze upon it. Hers was the herculean task to play all the accompaniments, and perfectly did she perform it. The opening chorus was by the male quartette, Messrs. Nash, Curtis, Cheshire and Carr, who showed good drilling and understanding in their respective parts. Then followed "Watching," a solo, superbly sung by Mr. Nathan Mayer, in his full, round, sonorous, flexible voice.

Loud applause greeted the singer, and he was encore'd. The management and admirers, as a mark of appreciation, presented him with a handsome bouquet. "Rondeau Brillant," a piano solo, by Miss DeRosset, was as brilliant in execution as name.

"Take me Jammie, Dear," was charmingly sung by Miss Mamie Rawls, who received a handsome bou-quet.

"Knickerbocker Boat Song," a solo, by Dr. Carr, Mr. Cheshire alternating, and chorus by the quartette, received generous applause.

The chief attraction of the evening was a solo, by Mrs. Kahnweiler, "Polka D'Amore." She was most bewitching ly arrayed in white satin slippers, pink satin skirt with rich garnet velvet overdress. She displayed magnificent diadems, ear rings, necklace, brooch and rings. Her voice is lute-like, sweet beyond expression, exquisitely modulated and trained and capable of the fullest volume. Better still, it is easy, natural, clear as a silver bell—taking in the highest notes without any seeming exertion.

The ears of the audience were entranced as they sat, still as death, with eyes fixed on the graceful figure, and when the spell was broken by the cessation, the house fairly rang with rapturous plaudits and encores. A splendid heart of flowers, 18 inches in diameter, and several smaller bouquets were presented to her on silver waiters. The cheering continued until the lady came back and rendered "Sing, Sweet Birds," as only she can. Tarboro never had anything approaching it.

A base solo, "Song of Hybras, the Cretan," one of the most difficult and best pieces of the evening, was rendered in an admirable manner by S. S.
Nash.

Then came "Gloria," &c., from Mozart, by the quartette.

Part 2nd opened with the "Alpine Flower," by Mrs. Kahnweiler, enjoyed to the full.

"International Fantasia," a piano duet by Misses DeRosset and Rawls, was au fait.

"Gobble, Gobble," from Mascot, a duet, was sung by Mrs. Kahnweiler and Mr. Mayer in a perfect manner, and was, as everything emanating from these artists, enthusiastically encore'd.

The "Flower Girl," by Misses Bryan and Rawls, evoked long greeting.

A solo, "Where the Lindens Bloom," by Mr. Mayer, was encore'd long and loud.

"Mabel's song," in "Pirates of Penzance," by Mrs. Kahnweiler, was greatly enjoyed.

good taste, and Mrs. Barnes and Miss Rawls displayed considerable histrionic talent.

The singing by Dr. Carr and Mr.
Cheshire showed well cultivated, good voices.

The affair was one of the big successes of the city.

Nor. baaque Nordenkjold, Capt.
Abrahamsen, arrived at Hamburg last Friday.

Pender Superior Court, Judge A. A.
McKoy, presiding, convened at Burgaw this morning.

At 4 o'clock this afternoon the thermometer in the office of Messrs. E. G.
Barker & Co., on North Water street, stood at 96 degrees.

Mr. J. M. Hartfield, son of Mr. A.
A. Hartfield, of this city, who has been at the University of Virginia, returned home last Saturday night.

We hear it stated that there is some scarcity of lime in the city, as some difficulty is experienced by the health officers in securing a supply sufficient to meet the demands for sanitary purposes.

The crops are growing finely in the country, and so is the grass. And the latter causes the trouble. It has rained so much that farmers could not hoe out their corn and the grass, keeping pace in growth with the former, has made the work of the hoeing and weeding a tough job.

We yield much of our limited space in this issue to the publication of a pretty full report of the Commencement Exercises last week, as extracted from the News and Observer. This should, by fair rights, have appeared on Saturday, but it was impossible to publish it then, owing to a pressure of matter arranged for publication before the Commencement report came to hand.

Knights of Honor.

Carolina Lodge No. 434. Regular meeting this evening at 8 o'clock. Full attendance desired.

For Waccamaw.

The managers have made ample accommodations for all who wish to go on the excursion given by the Sunday School of the Second Presbyterian Church to-morrow, so that every one can be comfortably seated. The time for starting is 7 o'clock, sharp, so be on hand in good season, and get your ticket and seat before the grand rush commences.

Old pictures copied carefully at low prices. Lardner, Photographer, Yates Gallery.

A Hint.

No, my young friend, it is not in good taste to take a lady by the arm when promenading. It is an undignified familiarity which you ought never to permit yourself to be guilty of. You are presumed to be her escort and protector, and it is very proper for her to take your arm when walking in a crowded thoroughfare in the day time or when escorting her at night, but to take her arm ought never to be permitted.

City Court.

Amos Devane, colored, was brought before the Mayor this morning charged with disorderly conduct. The charge was substantiated and he was required to pay a fine of $5, which he "forked over," and was discharged.

Thomas Dudley, also colored, for a like offense, though much more aggravated, was fined $10, which was paid.
Nicholas Dudley, also colored, and also disorderly, was fined $5. This ended the matinee. Not a bad day's work, with $30 added to the city treasury.

Considerable Coolness.

Messrs. W. E. Davis & Son have received two cargoes of ice from Maine within the past few days, and there is no fear now of an ice famine this Summer. One of these, the schooner Mary E. Fernerick, from Richmond, has been already discharged, and on the other, the C. W. Lewis, from Kennebeck, the hatches were removed this noon and the first block was taken out at 12:30 o'clock, and Mr. Davis says that he will take out the last block by 12:30 o'clock to-morrow, working all night to accomplish this. She has 450 tons and the Fernerick brought out 320 tons, making 770 tons in all.

Dr. O. B. Savage,

Gatesville, N. C., wrote that he had used Dr. Worthington's Cholera and Diarrhoea Medicine for many years in his practice, and found it the best before the American people.

DROWNED IN BEER.

CONCERNING THIS POPULAR BEVERAGE TWO

MEN EXPRESS THEIR MINDS.

"The fact is, sir, and you may stick a pin there, that the people of this country are like ly to be drowned in a flood of lager beer," shouted an enthusiastic teetotaler the other day into the ear of your cornered correspondent. That German drink has struck us hard.

It is the second deluge."

"Yes, and the worst of this beer-drinking business is that it gets up kidney troubles, as a heavy wind raises the waves," added a city physician, who had a knowledge of the times and a tendency to metaphor. "The midnight 'schooner' leaves behind it a wake of furred temples, headaches, torpid livers, nausea, and longues, headaches, torpid livers, nausea, and all that and lays the foundation of Bright's Disease."

This melancholy fact accounts in part for the increasing sales of BENSON'S CAFFEINE

POWDER PLASTER, which at once mitigates these symptoms. Price 25 cents. Ask your physician about it.
