The Daily Review has the largest bona fide circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

General Ewing is at the point of death at his residence in Washington City.

The venerable Archbishop Wood, of Philadelphia, is said to be in a dying condition. He is a native of Philadelphia and is in his 70th year.

The gigantic floating fish cannery built at Victoria, B. C., went to sea on Sunday night. It will follow the runs of fish from river to river, and all the work will be done on board.

It is stated that twenty-one suits so far have been commenced against the trustees of the Brooklyn bridge by relatives of the victims of the disaster on Decoration Day. The damages claimed aggregate about $50,000.

Judge McCrary has decided in the case of the Philbrook heirs, who claim the land on which most of the city of Little Rock, Ark., is built, that the claimants have slept too long on their rights, and are without remedy.

At Plymouth, Mass., Monday, in the suit of George W. Humphreys against the Old Colony Railroad Company for $50,000 damages for injuries caused by the abrupt stoppage of a train, the jury awarded $10,500 to plaintiff.

The steamer Arabic, which arrived at San Francisco on Sunday, brought 700 cases of opium, valued at $500,000, and on which the duties amounted to $250,000. It is estimated that before July 1st there will be $3,000,000 worth of opium in San Francisco.

The correspondents of the Kansas Board of Agriculture report that although the acreage is short of last year, the yield per acre will be above the average for the past five years. The area of corn is greater than ever before, and although backward in some localities, the State has never had such a bright prospect for a big corn crop.

Where are you going on the Fourth?
Two weeks from yesterday to the Fourth.

Summer, as laid down by the almanacs, commences to-day.

At 3 o'clock this afternoon the thermometer in this office registered 91 degrees.

The wind has been Northwest nearly all day and yet it has been one of the warmest days of the season.

ly finished—prices reduced. LARDNER,

Knights and Ladies of Honor.
Regular meeting this (Thursday) evening. Full attendance desired. It Residents at the Eastern ends of Dock and Orange streets complain very bitterly of the boys with their sling shots in that neighborhood.

The longest days of the year were last Sunday and Monday, when the sun rose at 4:43 and set at 7:19. They are now slowly growing shorter.

We have heard it said that last night was the hottest of the season, and we are not disposed to dispute it. It is too hot to day to get into an argument.

There was an alarm of fire at a little after 11 o'clock last night from the Fourth Ward. The fire department turned out promptly, but there was no need for its services.

The excursion of the ladies of Fifth Street M. E. Church, to Smithville and the Forts, given on the Passport to-day was very largely attended. The boat having been almost crowded. It has been a delightful day for an excursion on the river.

The guessing contest closes Saturday evening; register at the Yates Gallery.

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VII.

WILMINGTON, N. C., THURSDAY, JUNE 21, 1883.

NO. 147

City Court.

Two trifling cases, one of a white woman, for disorderly conduct, and the other that of a colored man, found drunk and down, were all that engaged the Mayor's attention. They were each fined $5. We do not mention the names because we have been requested not to do so.

Last Night.

The moonlight excursion on the Passport last night was well attended.
The run was made to the Point and back under the clear light of a full June moon. There was plenty of moonlight and music and love and flowers all along the river last night, but the man in the moon was the only one who disgraced himself and his friends by getting full.

Yesterday.

The excursion given yesterday on the Passport by the St. Paul's E. L. Sunday School was largely attended and we believe thoroughly enjoyed by all who were present. The usual run was made to Smithville and the Forts. The management was all admirable and the occasion is looked upon by those who were present as having been one of the most delightful in their experience.

More Improvements.

Mr. Sol. Bear is to make some notable improvements to his three story store building on the South side of Market street, between Water and Front.
The building is to be made about three feet higher and an ornamented top is to be put on, with cornices for the windows. Some changes are also to be made in the interior, which is to be fitted with an elevator. The work is to be done at once and the improvement will be a very considerable one.

At the Sounds.

There were a great many persons at the Sounds last night and the shell road was alive with vehicles all of the afternoon and until midnight. The atmosphere there was delightful and the full round moon looked down upon many a happy group of old folks as well as young folks. It is a fact that every vehicle held for hire in the stables here—and they are not a few—was out on the Sounds last night and it is probable that there were but few private turnouts that were not likewise engaged.

Painful Accident.

We are sorry to hear of a painful accident which occurred to Mrs. Frederick Rhew, at her residence in this city, on Fifth street, between Queen and Wooster, on last Tuesday morning.
She was on a chair, endeavoring to reach something from the top of a wardrobe, when a part of the furniture, which was loose, gave way in her hands and she fell to the floor, breaking her left arm, near the shoulder. Surgical assistance was at once summoned and we are glad to hear that, at last accounts, the lady was getting along very comfortably.

Lippincott's Magazine.

Lippincott's for July is published as a midsummer number, and the table of contents is a highly attractive one, including many contributions that are not only seasonable but worthy of special attention. Thus, "Alpine Dairies," an illustrated paper, by S.
H. M. Byers, United States Consul at Zurich, besides a delightful picture of pastoral life in the grandest of mountain scenery, gives a full account of the methods and processes by which cheese-making has been brought to full perfection in Switzerland. Another article bearing specially on agricultural questions, is one on "British Land-Owners and American Competitors." In an interesting article on "New York Clubs," C. B. Todd sketches the history and characteristic features of the principal institutions of the kind. "My Asylum Life," by a Physician, is a curious revelation of the writer's experiences. Dr. J. C. J. Stille describes the condition of "Women in Ancient Greece and Rome" with reference to the much debated subject of female education. "Reminiscences of the Gettysburg Battle," by a company Officer, is one of those simple narratives, of which we have had too few, that give more vivid glimpses of the scenes and incidents of the civil war than it is possible to obtain from strategical descriptions and historical accounts. There are a number of other excellent articles and the editorial and gossip departments are as usual very entertaining.

To Builders and others—Go to JACO-B'S for Sash, Blinds and Doors, Glass, &c. You can get all sizes and at the lowest prices.

Exports Foreign.

German barque Unkel Bracsig, Capt.
Ohlf, cleared hence to-day for Pernambuco, with 207,384 feet lumber and 124 bbls rosin, valued at $4,044.55, shipped by Messrs. E. Kidder & Son. British schooner Hattie R., Capt. Cann, cleared for Nassau, with 61,318 feet lumber, 36,400 shingles, 9 bbls pitch and 3 bbls tar, valued at $921.18, shipped by Mr.
Herbert B. Goudey.

The Cut Off.

We publish elsewhere in these columns a report of the meeting of the Stockholders of the Wilmington & Weldon R. R., held to-day, called for the purpose of considering the matter of the construction of a branch of the road from Wilson to Florence. As the question was unanimously referred to the Board of Directors, it seems to us that the road will be constructed. The distance is a fraction less than 150 miles.

Magistrate's Court.

The following cases were heard today and disposed of as follows:

Before Justice Millis. Bettie Hargrave a white woman, was charged with assault and battery on Laura Blalock.
She was found guilty and judgment was suspended on payment of costs, in default of which she was committed.

Laura Blalock, white, charged with assault and battery on Bettie Hargrave, was found guilty, but judgment was suspended on payment of costs, which were paid up, and the defendant was discharged.

Before Justice Gardner, Ben Laven-der, colored, was found guilty of an assault on Sam Merrick and was fined one penny and costs, which was paid.

Before Justice Hill, Maggie Davis, colored, was arraigned on a peace warrant sued out by Hannah Fox. She was bound over in the sum of $50 to keep the peace for three months. The bond was given and she was discharged.

A Belligerent Meeting.

The Charlotte Journal-Observer publishes a highly sensational account of a belligerent interview between two young gentlemen near that city recently one of whom, our neighbor says, was of the name of Hoffman, from South Carolina, and the other was a Mr.
Meares, of Wilmington. They fought with fists and all about a young lady resident at King's Mountain. The fight was a bloody one and the young men fought until they were exhausted. The Wilmingtonian, the Journal-Observer says, had his nose broken. There must be some mistake, however, as to the name of this latter gentleman as we have interviewed members of the family in this city and can't find any broken noses in the lot. They have been all accounted for and it doesn't seem likely that any one of them could have been at the locality at the date mentioned—but if any one of them was there for a fight there is no doubt that his antagonist was amply accommodated.

Stockholders' Meeting.

Pursuant to published notice of the Secretary, a special meeting of the Stockholders of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad Company was held at the office of the Company in this city to-day, Hon. R. R. Bridges, the President of the Company, presiding, and Mr. J. W. Thompson acting as Secretary.

A committee to verify proxies was appointed, who reported that 17,122 shares of the capital stock of the company was duly represented in the meeting by person and proxy.

Thereupon, the President laid before the meeting a report of the Chief Engineer, Col. Fleming Gardner, in reference to the continuance of the route in contemplation from "Contentnea Creek by way of Selma, Smithfield and Fayetteville, to Florence, S. C.," together with an estimate of the cost of the same with proper gradings, trestle works, steel rails, &c.; and at the request of the meeting, he made a statement of the advantages to be derived by the Company from its construction. After a full and free discussion of the subject, it was, on motion, unanimously Resolved, That the whole matter be referred to the Board of Directors of the Company, and that full power and authority be conferred upon them to provide for the construction of and to construct, said line of road, if in their judgment the interests of the Company require it.

The meeting then adjourned.

Messrs. A. & I. SHRIER have received, per express, a large lot of Children's Blouse Suits made up very handsomely in different shades, which they will sell at astonishingly low prices. Call early and procure a suit for the boys.

A washing machine may be bought cheap at Cronly & Morris' salesrooms to-morrow morning.

Literary and Musical.

The exercises at Misses Burr and James' School last evening consisted in the reading of compositions by pupils of the first, second and third classes, and instrumental and vocal music, accompanied by motions peculiar to the kindergarten system of teaching and training. The compositions, dissertations and essays were such as usually engage the attention of young ladies upon such occasions, and while some were better than others, all possessed points of real merit. We were informed by one of the teachers that none of the literary efforts of the evening had been reviewed for correction, a fact which speaks well for both teachers and pupils, for the former, inasmuch as it shows that great care has been used in the training of those young minds, and for the latter as displaying a mental activity capable of being so thoroughly taught. The vocal and instrumental exercises were delightful, and were highly enjoyed by all present. The teachers and pupils have our thanks for an hour of really pleasant and agreeable entertainment.

Early Risers.

There are comparatively few business men in this city who know the pleasures of early rising. This is the period of the year to enjoy a surprise by getting up in time to see the sun rise and turn his genial face beaming toward the just and the unjust. An early morning stroll in our beautifully shaded streets gives a rare appetite for breakfast and a taste of fresh air that is a tonic to the mind and the body. Our population is addicted to late hours. It takes half lot the night for the city to get settled for a little rest, before the next day's work begins. Early hours for retiring would transform the average individual into a well-braced, spirited, healthy human being. The mind is clearer in the early morning hours, the muscle is firmer and the nerve is stronger, and that is why the world remembers Poor Richard's "Early to bed and early to rise."

The badge thief is the latest. He steals the dogs and cuts the collars from them and makes off with the badges.
As the dogs are all registered when the badges are sold there will probably be an interesting case for the Mayor or the Coroner before long.
