The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 6 bales.

Another fine shower of rain in this locality early this morning.

Mr. Wm. L. Smith, Jr., of this city, has been reappointed a Notary Public by Gov. Jarvis.

Another warm day, although the wind has continued to come from the Northwest.

Sol. Haas, Esq., General Traffic Agent of the Associated Railways, was in the city yesterday.

Steamboatmen report the Cape Fear as falling off gradually, although there is yet water enough for good boating purposes.

The supply of vegetables in the market this morning was very good, through in some varieties the prices ruled rather high for the season.

Clarendon Council, No. 67, A. L. of Honor, will meet to-night. An important meeting and all members are urged to attend.

Mr. R. S. Murray brought to market this morning a beet raised by him this year which was 17 inches in circumference in its largest part. This is a beet that will be hard to beat.

Germania Lodge No. 4, K. of P., will give an excursion to Smithville and the Forts on the Passport, on Thursday next the 28th inst. Messrs. H. C. Prempert, John G. Oldenbittel, H. Bremers, H. Wenzensen, W. Genaust, John Gerdtts and W. Descher form the committee of arrangements.

It may be of interest to the colored teachers in this section to know that the Normal School at Newbern will be opened on the 25th of the present month. It will be under the control of teachers from Lincoln and Shaw Universities. This school promises to do a good work for the colored race, and as many as can should avail themselves of the advantages to be derived therefrom.

The Fourth in Pender.

We are requested to state that in consequence of the fact that the corner-stone of the new court house is to be laid at Burgaw on the Fourth, and in order to aid and encourage as much as possible the attendance on that occasion, the citizens of Point Caswell have very generously postponed the celebration which they had intended for that day.

The guessing contest closes Saturday evening; register at the Yates Gallery. 3t.

Tax Listing.

The question, "When does the time expire for listing taxes?" has been asked by a number of our subscribers, and we answer, on Tuesday, the 3d day of July. Tax listing began on Monday, the 11th inst., and continues until 20 working days have expired, which will at the time mentioned above. Take due notice and govern yourself accordingly.

City Court.

There were but two cases for the Mayor's consideration this morning as follows:
Sam Carver, colored, charged with throwing a brickbat in the street, was discharged.
Alice Hall, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was required to pay a fine of $5 or be confined 30 days in the city prison. She went below.

Yesterday's Excursion.

The Passport was thronged with excursionists yesterday, and notwithstanding the intense and almost suffocating heat, the day passed very pleasantly. We have never seen a larger number at any one time on the boat than there was yesterday, but owing to the care and attention of the management, the absence of any disorderly persons, and a general good will to make everything pleasant and agreeable, there was no disturbance, confusion or complaint. But it was hot.

A Delightful Entertainment.

The closing exercises of the Misses Burr and James' School were held in the school room last night, and were witnessed by a large, delighted and interested audience of ladies and gentlemen. The programme was quite extensive, and was carried out in a manner that caused agreeable astonishment to the listeners. The recitations were given with much grace and elegance and the musical portion of the programme was really charming, and that it was highly appreciated the frequent storms of vociferous applause by the enraptured audience bore abundant testimony. It would be difficult, where all was so good, to state which was the best, but we may say that the song, "Twinkle, twinkle, little Star," by Miss Fannie Van Amringe, was a perfect little gem and was rendered with exquisite taste. The "Songs of the Seven" were also peculiarly sweet and their rendition was excellent. In speaking thus of these we do not intend to detract from the excellence of the other pieces, for they were all skillfully and artistically rendered, showing that the musical training of the pupils had been thorough and under the tutelage of an entirely competent teacher. This department of the school has been under the direction of Mrs. M. S. Cushing, whose skill as a musician and teacher is too well known and appreciated to need words of commendation from us. The musical efforts of last night not only did credit to her skill, but it showed that she was pains-taking and conscientious in the discharge of her duty.

Among the literary efforts we would mention that the "Salutatory" was by Miss Annie VonGlahn, and was happily conceived and rendered with much grace. The "Hebrew Tale," by Miss Isabella Heinsberger, was a very fine elocutionary effort and was rendered with real dramatic effect. The "Valedictory" was pronounced by Miss Belle Anderson, who graduated at this session with high honor and received her diploma, after a most thorough and rigid examination in each department of the course prescribed.

The motto of the School is "Excelsior," and the "Excelsior Medal" is for the highest order of merit. The prizes were awarded by His Honor, Mayor Hall, with brief appropriate remarks. The above named prize was awarded to Master George D. Crow, of the 7th class. The rule of the school is to give a prize to the pupil in each class whose entire record is the best and to the pupil who stands second in the same class a prize in the shape of a certificate of merit is given. These were awarded to the following persons in the order named.

First class, first prize, Miss Mary VanOrsdell; first class, second prize, Miss Augusta Moore; second class, first prize, Miss Maggie Moore; second class, second prize, Miss Maggie Moore; third class, first prize, Miss Mary Bridgers; fourth class, first prize, Miss Maggie Moore; fourth class, second prize, Miss Katie Walker; fifth class, first prize, Miss Lula Garrell; second prize, Master Henry VonGlahn; sixth class, first prize, Miss Sophie McPherson; second prize, Miss Ruth Harris; seventh class, first prize, Master George D. Crow, who having (as stated above) the largest number of "golden merits," was awarded the "Excelsior medal." Seventh class, second prize, Miss Clara Springer; eighth class, first prize, Master Charlie VonGlahn; second prize, Master Johnnie Plummer.

Master George Peschau, of the fifth class, received a prize for the largest number of lesson merits, and Miss Clara Springer, of the seventh class, for deportment.

In compositions in the first class, there was a tie between Misses Annie Meares and Mary VanOrsdell. Both received prizes. In the second class Miss Annie Ward received, and in the third class Miss Maggie Moore received the prize.

We exceedingly regret that want of space prevents our giving the entertainment more in detail, for there was not a feature of the evening unworthy of commendation and praise. The pupils, as well as the lady principals, have just cause to be proud and are to be congratulated; the first for the proficiency made in their studies and the latter for the success which has attended their unceasing efforts in the arduous but noble and glorious cause of education.

By Moonlight.

The moonlight excursion given on the Passport last night, by a number of young gentlemen complimentary to the ladies, was well attended, and was thoroughly enjoyed. The boat stopped at the Point about an hour, and a stroll was enjoyed on the beach. There was a band of good music on board and the young folks danced almost incessantly.

Cape Fear Academy.

The Cape Fear Academy closed its Tenth Session this morning with exercises in declamation by the pupils, after which the report of the examination was read, and the Principal, Prof. Washington Catlett, delivered a short address to the pupils, giving them wholesome advice for the future, and an exhortation to make use of the mistakes of the past in the guidance of their actions in similar cases in the future.

The pupils have shown satisfactory progress in their studies during the past year.

The following list comprises the names in their order of those who made the highest attainments in the examinations:

Second Class — M. C. Heyer, Jr. H. P. Munson.

Third Class — H. N. Parsley, A. J. Howell, Jr. Jno. D. Bellamy, Louis Weil, H. L. Bowdoin, J. N. Jacobi, Dudley Cowan, Jno. Haar, Joseph Hanby, Edgar Turlington.

Fourth Class — Winston Smith, Charlie Blomme, Jas. L. DeRosset, George Howell, Russell Bellamy, Louis Liebman, Willie Korlander.

Introductory Class — Charlie Grainger, Jno. R. Turrentine, Jr.

Isaac Bear and Nathan Rosenthal, though absent from examinations, have led their classes during the whole session.

S. S. Woody, of the second class, though not at the examinations, had never been late, nor absent, nor had he received a demerit during the entire session.

This institution has had an attendance during the past session of 67 pupils, the most successful one of its existence. The prospects for the coming session are already very favorable.

The Young Pugilists.

The Charlotte Journal-Observer publishes more in regard to the fight between the two young men, about a young lady, which took place near that city a few days ago. It says:
A spectator of the duel at Harrisburg a few few days ago, which was mentioned in these columns yesterday, sends us a few additional particulars in regard to the affair. He says that the pugilists took their stand six feet apart, when the time was called and knocking began. In the first round, lasting four minutes, Mr. Meares was knocked down but was not hurt. Their seconds raised them to their posts and in the second round Mr. Hoffman was knocked down and bruised to some extent. In the third and fourth rounds neither was knocked down or seriously damaged. Their seconds called time for the fifth round, when Mr. Hoffman was unable to come to the mark. Mr. Meares was at his post ready for the fifth round, when Mr. Hoffman cried out: "I am done and will give it up." They then shook hands and parted friendly.

It will be seen by this that there was no broken nose, as at first reported, and, further, that our remark yesterday relative to "accommodation" has been borne out. As near as we can ascertain, the Mr. Meares referred to must be Mr. Joseph Meares, youngest son of Dr. W. B. Meares, formerly of Wilmington, but now of Salisbury.

Farewell Banquet.

A banquet is to be given this evening, at the Purcell House, by a number of gentlemen in this city, to Capt. Eric Gabrielson, late Commander of the Revenue Cutter Colfax, who has been transferred to the Cutter Dexter, at Newport, R. I. To the committee, Messrs. John A. Duncan, John H. Daniel and W. R. French, we tender thanks for an invitation to be present on the occasion.
