

The Daily Review.

JOSH. T. JAMES, Editor & Prop. WILMINGTON, N. C.

FRIDAY, JUNE 22 1883.

Entered at the Postoffice at Wilmington, N.C., as second-class matter.

The sanitary condition of New York is unusually good this season, and the death rate is much smaller than for years.

Miss Teresa Adams, an American girl, will make her debut in Italian opera next month.

The Chicago Railway Review says "the law fixing maximum passenger fares at three cents per mile has gone into effect in Kansas."

There are in Berlin fourteen cheap restaurants where working people can obtain a substantial meal for six cents.

An intimation has been given that the postmaster general was considering the advisability of a change in the uniform of letter carriers, and contemplated directing that they should wear knee-breeches.

The New York Tribune says one may see in Union Square or in Wall street a small, elderly man who carries, carefully wrapped and strapped, a long tin case containing a parchment, which he will display on the slightest provocation.

Mr. Blaine says that "there is no people in the Anglo-Saxon world among whom so small an amount of intoxicating liquor is consumed as among the 650,000 inhabitants of Maine."

The Keely Motor is supported, not by gulls and theoretical men, but by practical business men, as is demonstrated by the character of the president of the stock company, who is Mr. Edward Randall, of Brooklyn, an official of the Erie Railroad.

Since the coronation of the Czar the Nihilist Stepiak, author of "Underground Russia," is coming into unusual prominence by reason of a public letter of his in which he declares that the "almost complete silence of the Nihilists during the reign of Alexander III," and especially during the proceedings incident to his coronation, are due not to any real disheartening or disbanding of the revolutionists, but simply to a gradual change in the general character of their organization and the new aims they have in view.

A Westerner, who greatly admired the proficiency attained by the man in charge of the bat-room in a New York hotel, whereby more than 200 hats were handed to the different guests without a mistake, asked the man how he knew the hat just returned was his.

A lady, at her own expense, sent her servant to the class of a professional cook, and was delighted with her progress. At the end of the course she was surprised to learn that Bridget was engaged in looking for pastures new.

Mr. Hickey, editor of the Catholic Review, says it is true that the Pope has summoned all the Archbishops in America to Rome to a conference in regard to the proposed Plenary Council for this country to consider matters of church politics.

The ship-building trade on the Clyde continues to be brisk, although not so many vessels are on the stocks as formerly. Recent statistics show that for the month of May thirty-one vessels of 35,435 tons were launched, being an increase of 3,104 tons over the corresponding month of last year, but 279 tons under that of May, 1881.

Mr. Charles H. Jones, editor of the Jacksonville, (Fla.) Times-Union and one of the directors of the Florida Ship Canal Company, was interviewed in Nashville concerning the prospects of the canal enterprise.

Mr. R. P. Richardson, Reidsville, N. C., says: "Brown's Iron Bitters restored my wife's mother from feeble health to full strength."

A new English book is called "People I Have Met." A new American book might be called "Men I Have Been Out to See."

"I am truly thankful that I ever used Dr. Benson's Celery and Chamomile Pills, for they cured my periodical nervousness." Mrs. J. R. Piddison, Point Caswell, N. C. 50 cts. at druggists.

He: "Good-bye, Miss Smith, I'm sorry I have to leave so soon." She: "I'm very sorry, too; but still, parting is such sweet sorrow."—Harvard Lampoon.

Cured My Wife's Weakness. From Evansville, Ind., the home of our correspondent, Mr. Jno. R. Patterson, comes the following: "Serravallo's Nervine cured my wife of a case of female weakness." It's an extract from Mr. Patterson's letter. $1.50.

"Now is the time to subscribe," said the editor, as he led his wealthy bride to the marriage register and shoved a pen into her trembling hand.—New-York News.

Proof Everywhere. If any invalid or sick person has the power and efficacy of Hop Bitters to cure them, they can find cases exactly like their own, in their own neighborhood, with proof positive that they can be easily and permanently cured at a trifling cost—or ask your druggist or physician.

GREENWICH, Feb. 11, 1880. Hop Bitters Co.—SIRS—I was given up by the doctors to die of scrofula consumption. Two bottles of your Bitters cured me.

When Mrs. F. asked for a new bonnet, Foggy promptly refused. "A man and wife are one," he said, "and it is a duty to practice self-denial upon all possible occasions."

"Men must work and women weep, So runs the world away!" But they need not weep so much if they use Dr. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription," which cures all the painful maladies peculiar to women. Sold by druggists.

Restores an exhausted nursing mother to full strength and gives abundant sustenance for her child.

Strengthens the muscles and nerves, enriches the blood.

Overcomes weakness, wakefulness, and lack of energy. Keeps off all chills, fevers, and other malarial poison. Will infuse with new life the weakest invalid.

37 Walker St., Baltimore, Dec. 1881. For six years I have been a great sufferer from Blood Disease, Dyspepsia, and Constipation, and became so debilitated that I could not retain anything on my stomach, in fact, life had almost become a burden. Finally, when hope had almost left me, my husband secured BROWN'S IRON BITTERS advertised in the paper, inducing me to give it a trial. I am now taking the third bottle and have not felt so well in six years as I do at the present time. Mrs. L. F. GERRIN.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS will have a better tonic effect upon any one who needs "bracing up," than any medicine made.
