The Daily Review has the largest bona fide circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

A woman, sixty years of age, living near Cleveland, Ohio, has had nine husbands.

General Bradley T. Johnson has just finished writing a work on the early history of Maryland.

Mahone says a party's name matters nothing, and yet he hesitates to call himself a Republican.

The Savannah Echo, a colored Republican organ, warns the white bosses of the party in Georgia that their negro allies will desert them.

Of the 180,000 persons in the District of Columbia 60,000 are negroes. Because of those 60,000 a Republican Congress smote down suffrage in the District.

Proctor Knott and Colonel Morrow, Democratic and Republican nominees for Governor of Kentucky, are having an old-fashioned joint discussion in the most good-natured style.

Mrs. V. A. O'Connor of Fort Gaines, Ga., can play on the piano with her hands one tune, sing another, beat the drum with one foot and carry on a conversation at the same time.

Wyoming, next to Texas, is probably the greatest stock growing region in the United States. It is said that about 1,000,000 cattle are now feeding on the plains, the estimated value of which is about $30,000,000.

Alexander Sullivan, president of the Irish National League of America, said recently in Chicago that "there was no truth in the report that that body proposed to espouse the cause of protective tariff in American politics."

The romance of Lotta's life is said to be that ten years ago she fell in love with a wild dissipated Philadelphia who managed to get away with $13,000 of her money at the gambling table.
She lost confidence in him and in masculine human nature. He died soon after.

The Detroit Free Press very truly says that although there is only one Napoleon post-office in the country, there are twenty named Hatton, and by the end of Arthur's term there will probably be 2,000. This however, is only a fair proportion, for there must be for one Napoleon at least 2,000 Hattons.

William Beach Laurence bought a farm at Orchard Point, Newport, forty years ago, for $13,000, which, having been cut up into building lots and sold, has netted the Laurence family $500,000.
The $7,000 farm of James Lennox, in what was once the suburb of New York, netted him about $1,500,000 fifty years afterward.

The New York Times insists that "with the exception of First Assistant Postmaster General Hatton and Second Assistant Postmaster General Elmer, the entire Administration seems to be sincerely and earnestly bent on getting the Star Route men into the penitentiary." Glad to hear it, but the fact seems not to have been generally known heretofore as it has evidently been confined exclusively to the Times office.

The Republicans may as well look upon Chester A. Arthur as their possible candidate for President in 1884.
The 106 votes of the Southern States are certain as a "solid South" for Arthur. There is no opposition by which they can be taken away from him, and as 306 was the number of the gallant stalwart guards at Chicago, there is a sort of poetic justice in leaving the figure unbroken for Arthur. Thus say the New York Times.

A London clerk in a retail store is worked from 80 to 90 hours a week, and the average pay is about $6 per week for men and $3 for women. Rev. S.
G. Scott declares that 1,000 young men and women are annually killed in London by the long hours and over-work of her retail stores, and 4,000 a year returned to the provinces from which they had migrated, attracted by the "lights of London," broken down in health, utterly unable to stand the pressure that had been placed upon them.
The revelation of these facts brought about the early closing movement in the metropolis.

Day's length 14 hours and 34 minutes.

Last night was quite cool and comfortable

Sunset to-morrow afternoon at 10 minutes past 7 o'clock.

The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up only 3 bales.

There was only one interment—that of an adult—in Oakdale Cemetery this week.

There will be no service at St. John's to-morrow. Neither will there be any Sunday School.

Mr. Thos. D. Meares, of this city, has been reappointed a notary public by Governor Jarvis.

The wind to-day has been from the North and Northeast and yet it has been very warm, notwithstanding.

The Register of Deeds issued three marriage licenses this week, all of which were for colored couples.

There was but one interment in Bellevue Cemetery, which was that of an adult brought here from abroad.

The beans will be counted this evening at half past seven. Those interested are invited to call at the Yates Gallery.

Steamboatmen report the river is getting quite low again, although boats yet pass over the shoals without difficulty.

The rush for tax listing, although not so great as it was in the beginning, still continues, and the listers have but little idle time.

There were five interments in Pine Forest Cemetery this week, one of which was an adult and four were children.

Mr. J. E. Barden, postmaster at Clinton, is in the city. He reports that the crop this year of Sampson blues is altogether unprecedented.

One man was before the Mayor this morning charged with disorderly conduct and was fined $5 which he paid.
We suppress his name by request.

What are we to do on the 4th of July? Are we to have a regatta on the Sound? Is there to be any special fun in the city? Will some one answer?

See advertisement of "Wet Nurse Wanted" in another column. It is a good opportunity for a competent person to obtain a situation in a nice family.

We understand that Harmony Council, I. O. Rechabites, of this city, propose giving an excursion to Smithville and the Forts at an early date, to be announced hereafter.

Mr. Peter M. Wilson, of Raleigh, is in the city as the representative of the Agricultural Department at Raleigh for the collection of specimens of native woods to be displayed in the exhibition to be held in Boston.

Muttering thunder and almost incessant flashes of lightning last night indicated that there were heavy showers, to the South and West of us. We were threatened with them, but there were only a few drops of rain fell.

From all sections in this vicinity the farmers report that the crops are growing rapidly. Nearly all the grass and weeds have been killed by sturdy and continued applications of the hoe, and the work will be somewhat lighter from now until the crops are laid by.

From a glance at the list of engagements already booked for the Opera House, the next theatrical season promises to be unusually brilliant. We notice some of the old favorites in the list and also the names of Modjeska and Rhea. Besides these there are several other names prominent in the profession who are corresponding with the management here with a view to an engagement.

Cotton.

The receipts of cotton at this port for the week ending with to-day foot up 108 bales, as against 4 bales for the corresponding week of last year, an increase this week of 104 bales. The receipts of the crop year to date foot up 137,126 bales, as against 135,871 bales to same date last year, a decrease this year of 8,745 bales.

St. John's Day in Wilson

Eugene S. Martin, Esq., of this city, has accepted an invitation to deliver a memorial address on St. John's Day, (Monday next), in the Opera House at Wilson, on which occasion the newly elected officers of the Lodge in Wilson will be installed by P. G. M., H. H.
Munson, Esq., of this city. On the next day, Tuesday, there will be a picnic at Barefoot's Mill.

The Bean Guessers.

The jar of beans at Mr. Yates' photograph gallery will be counted out tonight and the prizes duly awarded to the successful guessers. There are nearly 150 names on the list and the guesses range from 1,200 to 20,000. The counting out will take place at 7:30 o'clock by a committee of three gentlemen and it is extended that the job will require from two to three hours to get through with.

A Handsome Thing.

Thanks to Col. A. Pope, General Passenger and Ticket Agent of the Virginia, Tennessee and Georgia Air Line, for a copy of a very handsome publication gotten out by him descriptive of the scenic attractions and summer resorts along the railways embraced in his line. The work is accompanied by two handsome maps and is profusely and beautifully illustrated and evidences a vast amount of care and painstaking in its preparation.

Duplicate Photos from Mr. Orr's Negatives printed at low rates. Yates' Gallery.

Mad Dog.

A man from the country came into the city this morning accompanied by a small dog, of no particular breed. Having occasion to transact some business and not wishing to lose the dog, the owner took him to the corner of the building on the Southeast corner of Chestnut and Water streets (formerly occupied by the REVIEW office) and placed a box over him. In a short time the animal began to howl dismally and when some one took the box away, he was lying on his side and evidently in great distress. Sergeant Capps, of the police force, who was near by, was called upon and he to relieve the dog of suffering and also in fear that the brute had run mad, put him out of his misery and the people out of danger by a few well applied blows on his head with a club.

A Wilmingtonian in Alabama.

The Birmingham (Ala.) Age contains the following item relative to a valuable coalfield property, one of the owners of which is Mr. Geo. C. Kelley, son of Mr. Geo. H. Kelley, of this city, a young Wilmingtonian who, a few years since, removed to Birmingham and engaged in business there. It will be read with interest by his friends in this city:

We were shown yesterday, by Mr.
George C. Kelley, a sample of coal from the celebrated Coosa coalfields, which for quality surpasses anything in the way of coal yet dug out of Alabama soil. The field from which this coal was taken embraces 5,000 acres, and lies directly between the Georgia Pacific and the East and West Alabama railroads, and we learn, is owned by Col. F. M. Thompson, of St. Clair Springs, A. H. Clisby and George C.
Kelley, of this city. We understand that negotiations are now pending for the early development of this splendid coal property, which, if done, will open up for Atlanta, Augusta, Savannah, Charleston, Richmond, Wilmington, Mobile, New Orleans and other large cities, a vast and rich coal deposit ahead of anything in this section of the country.

The owners of this fine property are now busy at work, sinking shafts and making openings to show up the quality and quantity of coal, which consists of the rare Peacock variety, only one other vein having been found in the United States, which is said to lie in the coal regions of Pennsylvania, and is justly famed for its superior domestic, and steam making qualities and where it ranks first of all. The field is also rich in diamond cannel, and a specimen indicates the nearest approximation to anthracite that has been discovered in the South. In fact, it is the only coal in the South that iron can be made from without coking.

We are reliably informed that the openings made fully prove that the entire field is one mass of coal. The veins already cut through show a thickness varying from two to seven feet, and can be mined at a less cost than any coal heretofore discovered, either south or north. From a careful analysis it is pronounced free of slate or any condemning properties and will no doubt prove a big bonanza to those interested in its development.

Messrs. A. & I. SHIRER have received, per express, a large lot of Children's Blouse Suits made up very handsomely in different shades, which they will sell at astonishingly low prices. Call early and procure a suit for the boys.

The Banquet Last Night.

Wilmington, in the olden days, was justly noted for its frank, generous and cordial hospitality and that the present generation are not only proud of the traditions of the past but are disposed to maintain the reputation of our city in this respect, was well illustrated in the banquet at the Purcell House last night, given by some of our most prominent citizens to Capt. Eric Gabrielson, late commander of the Revenue Cutter Colfax, but now ordered to the command of the Dexter, at Newport, R. I.
It was a symposium long to be remembered by all the participants and one which must be highly gratifying to Capt. Gabrielson, in whose honor it was given.

The party was composed of ladies and gentlemen residents of the city, and the officers of the Colfax with their wives, making in all a group of about fifty persons. The table was in the shape of a "T," and there was room enough for all the guests to be comfortably seated. Col. F. W. Kerchner, as presiding officer, had the head of the table, with Capt. Gabrielson on his left and Mrs. Gabrielson on his right. The table was bountifully and beautifully decorated with flowers and the menu was excellent—possibly the best ever gotten up in this city. The wines were of the choicest and were indulged in temperately. The Harpers furnished delightful musical entertainment while the guests were at the table.

During the evening Mr. W. R.
French, in an appropriate and felicitous ten minutes' speech, presented to Mrs.
Gabrielson a large floral anchor of a beautiful design, it being a combined cross and anchor. This elegant floral emblem was to-day photographed by Mr. C. M. VanOrsdell, who obtained an excellent negative.

Capt. Gabrielson also was presented with a handsome gold-headed cane, Mr. J. H. Currie, of the firm of Woody & Currie, doing the presentation honors in a neat and appropriate speech. The cane is inscribed with the legend:

June 21st, 1883.

To
CAPT. ERIC GABRIELSON.

From his Friends

WILMINGTON, N. C.

Capt. Gabrielson responded to the presentation speech in a very happy and graceful manner.

The first toast, "The City of Wilmington," was responded to by Mayor Hall in words well considered and eloquently uttered.

The second toast—"The Commerce of Wilmington"—was responded to by Mr. C. H. Robinson, in his usual happy and pleasant vein.

The third toast—"The Resources of North Carolina"—was responded to by Mr. Peter M. Wilson, of the State Agricultural Department, who is here on business connected with the interests of the State at the Manufacturers' and Mechanics' Fair, to be held at Boston, next September, and was an invited guest.

The fourth toast—"Rice Culture"— was responded to by Mr. George W.
Kiddier, who also presented Mrs. Gabrielson, in a nice little speech, with a beautiful sheaf of rice, bound together with blue ribbon.

The fifth toast—"The Milling and Lumber Interests"—was appropriately responded to by Mr. George Chadbourn.

We omitted to mention, in the proper place, that Capt. Stodder, the successor of Capt. Gabrielson in the command of the Colfax, was also present as an invited and welcome guest.

The banquet, in all its particulars, was a grand success, and shows that the mantle of the sires of Wilmington has fallen upon the shoulders of worthy sons, and that the prestige of former days has lost none of its brightness through the events of war or the lapse of years.

Personal.

Rev. F. W. E. Peschke, pastor of St.
Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church, left here last night for Newberry, S. C., where he is to deliver an address on Sunday evening next, the 24th inst., before the students of Newberry College.
Rev. Dr. Bernheim, formerly of this city, delivering the sermon before the same body in the forenoon.

The Charlotte Journal-Observer, commenting on Dr. Bernheim's call to New Jersey, says:

Rev. G. D. Bernheim, D. D., of this city, a clergyman who is well known throughout the State, has received a call to Grace Church, of Phillipsburg, N. J., and will leave with Mrs. Bern-heim for that place next week. He has not formally accepted the call, but it is understood that he will do so. His daughter, Miss Lisette Bernheim, who so successfully edits At Home and Abroad, will remain here, at least for a time, we are glad to learn.

Dr. Carmichael.

Rev. Dr. Carmichael, the new Rector of St. John's church, has not yet arrived although it was expected that he would be in time to officiate last Sunday. A telegram was received from him very recently which stated that he had been unavoidably detained and that he expected to arrive in Wilmington on Tuesday next. In that case his first service will be held to-morrow week, July 1st.
