VOL. VII. WILMINGTON, N. C., MONDAY, JUNE 25, 1883. NO. 150

LOCAL NEWS.

INDEX TO NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. YATES-Check Books. E. G. BLAIR-Meal-Flour.

The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 31 bales.

The fresh meat famine in this market gets no better nightly fast.

For Pocket Knives or Table Cutlery, go to JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

Cucumbers are at last becoming plentiful, prices ranging from 10 to 15 cents per dozen.

Mr. C. E. Jevens has sent us some real Japanese candy, manufactured by him, which is, we think, delightful.

Last night a big owl flew into the city and alighted in a tree at the corner of Dock and Fifth streets, where he was shot.

Mr. Orr's negatives are well cared for. Duplicate pictures finished at low rates. Lardner, Photo., Yates Gallery.

The situation of wet nurse has been filled, and none others need apply now. One advertisement in the REVIEW was sufficient.

Rather slim congregations in the churches yesterday, owing to the fact that so many of our people are out of the city.

To-day (June 25th) is St. John's Day, but there has been no public observance of the day by the Masonic fraternity of this city.

Roasting ears are coming in freely to market now but they are mostly small and too young to pull. They sell for from 25 to 40 cents a dozen.

Steamboatmen report that the water in the Cape Fear is altogether too low on the shoals. They are compelled to use lighters now in crossing them.

One of our good-looking dry goods salesmen went down to the "Rocks" a day or two ago on a fishing frolic, and among his other prizes, he caught a sheephead which weighed 20 pounds.

Mr. M. London, of this city, has gone to Baltimore for professional advice in regard to his eyes, which, we are sorry to learn, have been giving him much trouble and anxiety of late. We trust that he may return fully relieved.

Quarterly meeting of Cornelius Harnett Council No. 231, R. A. takes place to-night at 8 o'clock. Assessment No. 47 expires to-night. Do the members intend having no more meetings and surrender their charter?

The News and Observer says: The Wilmington and Weldon is one of the best equipped, best managed and most prosperous railroads in the South.

Railroading. We learn from Capt R. P. Paddison that the work on the Clinton and Point Caswell Railroad is progressing as favorably as circumstances with permit.

Barking Dogs. There seems to be any number of dogs in the Eastern section of the city, and from what we can learn they give a grand free concert every night.

Driven to Death. We learn that a horse belonging to Messrs Hollingsworth & Walker was driven so mercilessly yesterday that he died from the effects. He had been hired for a trip to the Sound, and it is alleged that he had been cruelly driven as was evidenced by the innumerable marks of the whip which were distinctly manifest.

Silver Plated Spoons and Forks, low prices, at JACOBI'S.

A Jar of Beans.

Much interest was excited in the "bean contest" at the Yates Gallery last Saturday night. After a careful count there was found to be 7,231 beans in the jar.

City Court. A party, charged with disorderly conduct, was brought before the Mayor this morning, who imposed a fine of $3 for the offence.

The next case was that of Peter Curtis and Jane Fullford, both colored, for disorderly conduct on McRae street yesterday morning. The mayor imposed a fine of $5 on each, with the alternative of 20 days in the city prison.

Slight Fire. There was a slight fire this morning on the second floor of the building on the North side of Dock, between Front and Water streets, occupied by colored people.

Personal. Mr. M. M. Katz, after an absence of about a week on a trip to the North, returned last night. He reports that he had an excellent time during his absence, and that he has been benefited by the journey.

Don't Kill the Birds. We hear complaints about a lot of bad boys who assemble near the corner of Seventh and Dock streets and amuse themselves by the brutal sport of shooting at birds' nests, with sling shots, and knocking them from the trees.

Artistic work at low rates for the summer months. LARDNER, PHOTO., Yates Gallery.

The Wilmington Girls. We do not believe that there is a city in the country, North, South, East or West, not even Baltimore excepted, that can show as handsome an array of beautiful girls and beautiful women, as through our streets any bright afternoon.

A Fearful Peril. On Friday evening last three children living with their parents in the eastern section of the city, ate of some sardines and soon after were taken seriously sick.

City and Country Merchants. I AM SELLING-Prime New York Butter, Kirkman's Celebrated Beans, Virginia Water Ground Meal, North Carolina Family Flour, and N. C. Patent Family Flour.

A fine assortment of Guns and Pistols at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

To the People of Pender Co.
