THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VII. WILMINGTON, N. C., SATURDAY, JUNE 30, 1883. NO. 155

PLEASE NOTICE We will be glad to receive communications from our friends on any and all subjects of general interest but the name of the writer must always be furnished to the Editor. Communications must be written on one side of the paper. Personalities must be avoided. And it is especially and particularly understood that the Editor does not always endorse the views of correspondents unless so stated in the editorial columns.

The Daily Review has the largest bona fide circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

Senator Pendleton has bought a $65,000 Summer residence near Cincinnati. The English lifeboats saved nearly 900 lives last year. There are now 273 lifeboats stationed along the coast. The Internal Revenue Districts in Virginia have been consolidated to suit Mahone and with an eye to coming elections there.

"Blue Jeans" Williams is to have a monument at his old home at Wheatland, Ind. The monument will be unveiled on July 4.

Ex-President Davis, who was sometime ago prostrated by a dangerous illness, has entirely recovered and is now in excellent health.

Ex-Governor Hendricks of Indiana, is said to be about to follow the example of Mr. Blaine and write a book, dealing with political history.

Judges Hoadly and Foraker, the rival candidates for Governor of Ohio, are said to be intimate friends, and reside in the same ward in Cincinnati.

Robert Burns' shoes, worn by him when a boy, are on exhibition in Portland, Maine. The shoes are about six inches in length, and have wooden soles shod with iron. The tippers are tacked on to the soles.

During 1882 there were consumed in the department of the Seine, which includes Paris, 10,366 horses, 24 mules and 240 asses, forming a total of 1,092, 810 kilogrammes, of which two-thirds were converted into sausages.

George Bliss, who has been getting $100 a day for prosecuting the star route cases for many months past, says he did not earn as much as he would have earned at his regular practice in New York, and that he would rather attend to his regular practice even at half pay.

South Carolina and Connecticut have so harmonized lately that, as a Hartford correspondent of the Springfield Republican expresses it: "You could not shake a palmetto tree to-day anywhere in the county without bringing down a hatful of wooden nutmegs."

Everything in connection with the Southern Exposition is done on a generous scale. For instance, 27,500 colored lithographed pictures of the building are now being distributed through the country. Shortly 250,000 "folders," corresponding somewhat to the railroad timetables, will be sent to all the different States, together with 80,000 posters.

On the first day of December, 1882, there was in the sinking fund of Pennsylvania $2,017,000 cash. This money was deposited in some sixty favored banks, which should have brought the State, at four per cent., $80,800 per annum. On June 1st there was in the sinking fund $2,793,000 cash, which must now be invested in State or United States bonds.

The dueling affair between the two Virginia editors has called attention to the fact that there is an "anti-dueling oath" on the statute books in Virginia which disqualifies for office all who have been concerned in a so-called "affair of honor." It is as follows: The acts of Assembly 1881-'82, provides that "every person elected or appointed to any post or office under the laws of this Commonwealth, including members of the General Assembly shall before he acts in such office," take what is commonly known as the "anti-dueling oath," which is as follows: "I swear (or affirm) that I have not, since the first day of May, eighteen hundred and eighty two, fought a duel, the issue of which was, or probably might have been, the death of either party; nor have I been knowingly the bearer of any challenge or acceptance to fight a duel actually fought; nor have I been otherwise engaged or concerned, directly or indirectly, in a duel actually fought since the said time; nor will I, during my continuance in office, be so engaged, directly or indirectly. So help me God."

LOCAL NEWS.

INDEX TO NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. YATES—Check Books FOR SALE—Show Case HEINSBERGER—Check Books E. W. MANNING—Pine Grove. C. H. CAPPS—Attention, Red Men Jos. E. SAMPTON—Schedule B Tax MUNDY BROS.—Not Liked by Some J. G. BURR, Tax Lister—Final Notice. COOL BEER—No. 6, South Front Street W. H. GREENS—Soda Water—Mineral Water J. C. LUMSDEN—Best Ice Cream in the World Days length 14 hours and 31 minutes. June bids us good-bye to-day. June this was the last day of June, 1882.

Sunset to-morrow afternoon at 19 minutes past 7 o'clock. The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up only 6 bales. At this time last year watermelons were plentiful in this market. There were two interments—both adults—in Oakdale Cemetery this week. Last night was cool and comfortable, the wind having gotten around to the Northwest.

Photos made from Mr. Orr's Negatives at low rates. LARDNER, Photo. Yates' Gallery. Parties in need of ice cream for to-morrow can send in their orders to Mr. Lumsden to-night. Rev. Dr. Carmichael will preach in St. John's Church to-morrow morning and to-morrow night. A case of disorderly conduct was before the Mayor this morning for which a fine of $10 was imposed.

There were two interments in Bellevue Cemetery this week, one of whom was an adult and one was a child. There were ten interments in Pine Forest Cemetery this week, five of whom were adults and five were children. The Register of Deeds issued three marriage licences this week, one of which was for a white couple and two for colored couples.

We have frequently had occasion to speak of the display of vegetables at the new market, but we must say that the exhibition of that class of articles there this morning was the finest we have ever seen in Wilmington.

Pleasure parties photographed instantaneously. Prices moderate. LARDNER, Photo., Yates Gallery. The first new sweet potatoes of the season were brought in to us this afternoon, raised by Mr. Hezekiah Bonham at his plantation, about three miles east of the city. They are of the red yam variety and are unusually large for early potatoes. They sold in market for 75 cents a peck.

The Petersburg Index-Appal shows great commendable enterprise in its issue of yesterday's date, wherein it publishes a full report of the proceedings at Lexington at the unveiling of the statue of ROBERT E. LEE, including the addresses made on that occasion. The report is accompanied by cuts showing the University Chapel and Lee Mausoleum and the recumbent figure of Gen. Lee.

Unmailables. The following is a list of the unmailable postal matter remaining in the Postoffice in this city: Postal beginning "Dear Friend" and signed J. A. H.: Washington Filyaw (cop), Columbus, Co.; Postal beginning "My Dear children," and bearing no address, No. 8, Lombard St.

Fine Fishing. A couple of gentlemen from this city, went out to the Blackfish grounds yesterday on the steamer Italian, and with the crew succeeded in catching over 800 fine fish in the space of two hours. This is what we call good luck. We are told that the fish never bit better than they do now at the grounds.

Change of Base. The Revenue Cutter Colfax moved this morning to her new berth opposite the Custom House, which is the place where she will in the future make fast. This change has been in contemplation for some time, but for some cause it was not effected until to-day. Her new position will be much more convenient to all concerned than was the one she formerly occupied in the South-ern portion of the city.

THE DUELISTS.

Two Shots Exchanged—Elam Hit and Biene Satisfied. (Special to DAILY REVIEW.) RICHMOND, June 30, 1883.

Messrs Biene and Elam met at six o'clock this morning, near Waynesboro, Augusta county, Va. At the first fire neither was hurt but at the second, fire Elam was shot in the right thigh.—Biene then expressed himself as satisfied and the parties separated. J.

Front Street M. E. Church. The work of making alterations and repairs upon the Front Street M. E. Church was commenced on Tuesday last, under the supervision of Mr. G. M. Altaffer, of this city. The changes contemplated are extensive and will effect the entire building, adding much to its appearance as well as to the comfort and convenience of those who worship there. It is expected that the work will not be completed until about the 20th of August next. During the intermediate time services will be held in the basement of the church.

Fine Photographs. A day or two since Mr. J. F. Lardner, the photographer, took photographs of the steam yacht Minnehaha, as she now appears on the marine railway in the Southern portion of the city. He was entirely successful, having obtained two perfect pictures, by what is known as the "instantaneous process," one of which was taken with her bows towards you as she lies in her chocks, and with all the machinery and other appliances for drawing the vessel from the water distinctly delineated. The other gives a profile view, which was taken by the same process, and is in such perfection that even the name on her wheel house is plainly visible. They are certainly very fine pieces of workmanship, and show to advantage the wonderful progress which has been made in photographic art.

This is the time to have your house photographed with the family on the porch. LARDNER, the Photographer, can do it.

Improvements. Extensive additions, alterations and repairs are about to be made on the Masonic Hall building, which, when completed, will make it one of the finest and most imposing structures in the city and will be a most decided improvement to the appearance of Market street. The stores on the lower floor are to be given a higher pitch, the building is to be extended back 60 feet, the roof is to be raised so as to give a better ventilation and the structure is to be adorned with an iron front. These changes, we understand, are determined upon and other changes will probably be made, but as the specifications are not all prepared, we are unable to give further details at present.

Fruit Exhibition. It is very desirable that the next exhibition of the Fruit Growers' Association of North Carolina shall be held in Wilmington. It was held in August last year at Greensboro and was a decided success, being attended by a large concourse of people interested in fruit culture from different sections of the State, among whom much interest was developed. Capt R. P. Paddison, the president of the Association, desires that the next exhibition shall be held here, and has thought that if our citizens would come forward with subscriptions of money enough to offer generous premiums to exhibitors there would be no difficulty in accomplishing that purpose. He laid the project before Mayor Hall who promptly took the matter in hand, giving it his heartiest endorsement and most efficient service, by starting with a subscription paper to see what amount could be raised for the purpose designated. It was thought that if the sum of $500 could be secured, there would be no doubt that Wilmington would be the place for the next exhibition. This amount was subscribed in less than six hours working time, and we are assured that, if necessary, it could be very materially increased. The prospect of having the exhibition here is very flattering, and with the matter in the hands of such men as Mayor Hall and Capt. Paddison success is almost a foregone conclusion.

Messrs. A. & I. SHREK have received, per express, a large lot of Children's Blouse Suits made up very handsomely in different shades, which they will sell at astonishingly low prices. Call early and procure a suit for the boys.

For Pocket Knives or Table Cutlery, go to JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

Having Crazy.

William Miller, the colored man sent to the Insane Department of the County Poor House a few weeks ago, is violently insane and seems bent upon the destruction of everything he can lay his hands upon. He breaks up every utensil left in his cell and frequently tears the clothing from his body. Efforts have been made by the proper authorities to have him taken to the Insane Asylum for colored people at Goldsboro, but the building is not yet in condition to receive additional patients, although it probably will be in a short time. A new wing has been added to the building, but it is not yet furnished.
