

The Daily Review.

JOSH. T. JAMES, Editor & Prop. WILMINGTON, N. C.

SATURDAY, JUNE 30 1883.

Entered at the Postoffice at Wilmington, N. C., as second-class matter.

Vermont was at first called New Connecticut, and took its present name in 1791, when it was admitted into the Union.

Georgia has 2,846 factories, working 17,871 hands, with a capital invested of $18,930,020, paying in wages $4,844,508, yielding annually in products $31,196,125.

Harper's Weekly says the star route "vordict is a sorry conclusion for the interests of justice and public honesty, for the country and for the Republican party."

"Long John" Wentworth of Illinois, says he would like to live long enough to see both parties run by the decent majority of each. A great many people share Mr. Wentworth's desire.

The name of Prince Albert Victor, the eldest son of the Prince of Wales, has been entered on the books of Trinity College, Cambridge, where he will commence residence next October.

The law of Virginia requires that every person elected or appointed to any post or office under the laws of the Commonwealth shall, before he acts in such office, take the anti-dwelling oath. No exceptions are made.

Some 2,000,000 children are being taught in the Japanese public schools on the American and English systems. Besides the schools under governmental control there are a great many private educational enterprises scattered about the country.

A compulsory education bill was passed by the Illinois Legislature and has been signed by the Governor. It provides that every child in the State between the ages of 8 and 14 years shall attend school not less than twelve weeks in each year.

Hon. Abram S. Hewitt suggests, through the New York Tribune, that a home should be established in that city for poor people over 60 years of age who have lived virtuous lives, but who find themselves without friends when they are old. One or two such institutions of this kind already exist in New York, but they are full.

Mr. Beecher was seventy years old last Sunday. "I am well" he said to a reporter on Saturday. "I don't know that there is an organ ailing in my body. In other words, so far as I know my brain is sound, my heart is sound, my stomach and digestion are sound; I am not weakened with the old man's trouble of bladder or kidneys; I am as regular as clock work and all right in every physical respect, but—I weigh 220 pounds, as against 150 twenty years ago."

The bamboo is successfully cultivated in California. A number of groves in Alameda county have attained a height of thirty to forty feet. It proves to be very hardy about the bay counties.—The uses to which bamboo is put are numerous. The Chinese make paper from it, use the leaves for lining tea chests, use the stalk for water pipes, and split into strips, it is woven into mats, baskets, window blinds and sails of boats. In Bengal it is used largely for building purposes, agricultural implements, and in a variety of other ways.

There was a disgraceful orgy and loot of the tables prepared at Boston for the New Orleans visiting military on a grand steambot excursion down Boston harbor. The councilmen had provided their "friends" the ward bumpers, with tickets to the feast at the city's expense, and as a consequence these fellows literally poured down costly wines and brandy and filled their pockets with cigars. Even the police were overcome by the reckless crowd, and the riot, as described by the Boston press, was more disgraceful than anything that had ever been enacted in that city before. The Boston liquor bill alone was about $4,000, and the Southern visitors hardly got a taste of any thing to drink.

As to what constitutes a good sales man in the grocery business, F. B. Thurbar is quoted by a correspondent as saying: "Firstly, he should be a better judge of quality than are his customers, and he should use this knowledge honestly. He should always recommend goods that he knows to be of full value, and yet not overpraise them. Above all, if he is in the whole sale trade, he should not urge upon his customers more than convenient stock. Drummers on the road are apt to make that mistake, and thereby tempt the retailer to buy more than he will be able to pay for. A clerk in a retail store has an advantage if he possesses some knowledge of cookery, so that he can tell how articles may be best prepared for the table. Hints of this kind are valuable even to experienced housekeepers, especially as to new goods. Such a man acquires influence. But he mustn't be impertinent or obtrusive with his advice. Polite attention is the one thing needful in a salesman, and young men shouldn't forget it if they mean to succeed behind the counter."

PERSONAL.

Gen. Sheridan's new Washington residence cost his friends $42,000. It is a gift.

George B. Keniston, of Boothbay, Me., possesses the shackles worn by John Brown at Harper's Ferry.

Judge Hoady is a nephew of Dr. Woolsey of Yale, and was born in New Haven, although he now heads the Democratic party in Ohio as candidate for the Governorship.

Rev. Samuel H. Kellogg, D. D., an evangelical clergyman, believes that the Old Testament promise to the Jews of a return to Palestine will be literally carried out.

Mt. Courtney, Financial Secretary to the English Treasury, has been offered the position of Finance Minister of India, with an income of £10,000, but he prefers to remain where he is with a salary of £2,500.

Alfonso, King of Spain, wants the 1892 celebration of Columbus' first landing on this side of the world held in Spain, which country sent him to sea, and not in Italy, where he happened to be born, or in America.

It is as much as most men can do to take care of their personal finances, to say nothing of the finances of the nation and this condition of the community has been sadly demonstrated by the lunacy of an Indiana man named Milton Jennings, who has been made insane by his endeavors to comprehend and regulate the country's pecuniary affairs on the basis of the greenback theory.

Mr. William Henry Hurlbert, lately editor of the World, who sailed for Europe last week, has made no arrangements, as has been reported, for corresponding with American newspapers while abroad, and is, as he expresses it, out of professional harness for the present.

GASTRONOMY.

A vegetarian diet is recommended during hot weather by those who have tried it.

Horse-flesh pie is a well-known dish in Paris. Those who partake of it say it is a palatable dish.

Cold meats with mayonnaise dressing are delicious for breakfast, according to a Philadelphia paper.

The Prince of Wales recently gave a fish dinner, at which soles, mullets, salmon, perch, pie, crabs and whitebait were served.

Champagne cake is something new and is said to have been invented for the watering place season. No one knows of what it is made, but the taste of champagne is unmistakable.

They tell of a Brooklyn statesman who, ordering Charlotte Russe, blew the froth off the top of it, and then, when asked to explain why he did so, said he thought it a new kind of beer.

At the dinner of the graduating class of West Point cadets at Delmonico's the other evening the ornamental pieces were typical of war and its uses and illustrative of camp scenes in the life of a cadet.

Hot-house grapes at a private dinner party a few evenings ago alone cost $30, and the mutton came from England expressly for the feast. The host admitted that his little entertainment to eight people cost $500.

MOONSHINE.

"Did that lady take umbrage?" said the proprietor of a Harlem store to his clerk who had just had a wordy dispute with a customer. "Oh, no. She took ten yards of turkey red calico, and wanted buttons to match."—Newark Register.

"Mr. Jones, I think I will have to raise your board," said a 129th street boarding house keeper to a gentleman whose appetite seemed to increase every day. "Ah, I thank you very much for your kindness in raising my board. I have been unable to raise it myself for some time."

"Strange," remarked Mrs. Brown, "I have rung at Mrs. Smith's door three times this week and didn't succeed in raising anyone. I guess the family is out of town." "Possibly," replied Mrs. Jones, "but Mrs. Smith was telling me just now that she could tell your ring among a thousand."—Newark Register.

Oh, yes; put the steel traps on your fire escapes to head off burglars. When you're going down 'em barefooted on a false alarm of fire, you'll be mighty glad you did it, and if the alarm be real, it's much nicer to be held up in a trap on a fire escape and roasted than to burn up in your room, where folks can't see the faces you make.—Boston Post.

At a certain party a gentleman, in the midst of an angry dispute, threw a bottle at his opponent's head by the way of emphasizing his argument. Fogg, who was present, immediately picked the missile up and laid it on the table, saying: "Friends, if you pass the bottle as quickly as that, you won't be able to stand out the evening." A young man handed a spring poem to an editor the other day while he was very busy and requested him to read it. The editor politely looked it over, told the foreman to put it on the editorial page and double lead it, gave the young man an order on the counting-room for $1,000, and then invited him out to dinner. Modesty forbids our mentioning any names.—Rochester Post-Express. "I think it is perfectly disgraceful!" exclaimed Mrs. Fogg. "Flanders's wife has been dead just six weeks, and he's going to be married next Sunday. Only think!" "I don't see anything to make a fuss about," grunted Fogg; "he couldn't very well have married again before his first wife died. To be sure, he's lost six weeks of happiness, but I don't see anything disgraceful in that."—Boston Transcript.

Wells' "Rough on Corns." Ask for Wells' "Rough on Corns." 15c. Quick, complete, permanent cure. Corns, warts, bunions.

Mrs. H. C. Edwards, Newbern, N. C., says: "I am glad to testify to having been benefited by Brown's Iron Bitters."

Friendship is the medicine for all misfortunes, but ingratitude dries up the fountain of all goodness.

What's Saved is Gained.

Workingmen will economize by employing Dr. Pierce's Medicines. His "Pleasant Purgative Pellets" and "Golden Medical Discovery" cleanse the blood and system thus preventing fevers and other serious diseases, and curing all scrofulous and other humors. Sold by druggists.

Make no more vows to perform this or that; it shows no great strength, and makes that ride behind thyself.

Cured Six Years Ago.

"It has been 6 years since I was cured of fits," says Mr. W. Ford, of Wirt, Jefferson Co., Ind. "Samaritan Nervine did it." And it always will, reader. $1.50, at druggists.

We judge ourselves by what we feel capable of doing, while others judge us by what we have already done.

Dr. Benson's Skin Cure consists of internal and external treatment at same time and it makes the skin white, soft and smooth. It contains no poisonous drugs. $1 at druggists.

Mankind descended from a pair; unanking's troubles from an apple.

"I wouldn't be without Dr. Benson's Celery and Chamomile pills if they cost $1 a pill. They cured me of neuralgia, of 9 years standing." Joseph Snyder, Paxions, Pa. 50 cts. per box, at druggists.

The disease which most Washington politicians have is the "influenza."

SCIPIO, N. Y., Dec. 1, 1879.

I am the Pastor of the Baptist Church here, and an educated physician. I am not in practice, but am sole family physician, and advise in many chronic cases. Over a year ago I recommended your Hop Bitters to my invalid wife, who has been under medical treatment of Albany's best physicians several years. She has become thoroughly cured of her various complicated diseases by their use. We both recommend them to our friends, many of whom have also been cured of their various ailments by them.

REV. E. R. WARREN.

As strange as it may seem the rarest flowers are sometimes found in waist places.

What Seven Could not do. NASHVILLE, Tenn., April 6, 1881. H. H. WALKER & Co., Sirs—Seven physicians could not do for me what your Safe Kidney and Liver Cure accomplished. Hopelessly sick with kidney diseases, it restored me to perfect health. JACOB MYERS.

One oyster does not make a stew, says the New York Com. Adv. It does at a church fair.

MISCELLANEOUS.

During the war I was injured in the stomach by a piece of a shell, and have suffered from it ever since. About four years ago it brought on paralysis, which kept me in bed six months, and the best doctors in the city said I could not live. I suffered fearfully from indigestion, and for over two years could not eat solid food and for a large portion of the time was unable to retain even liquid nourishment. I tried Brown's Iron Bitters and now after taking two bottles I am able to get up and go around and am rapidly improving.

to vigorously push a business, strength to study a profession, strength to regulate a household, strength to do a day's labor without physical pain. All this represents what is wanted, in the often heard expression, "Oh! I wish I had the strength!" If you are broken down, have not energy, or feel as if life was hardly worth living, you can be relieved and restored to robust health and strength by taking BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, which is a true tonic—a medicine universally recommended for all wasting diseases.

About four years ago it brought on paralysis, which kept me in bed six months, and the best doctors in the city said I could not live. I suffered fearfully from indigestion, and for over two years could not eat solid food and for a large portion of the time was unable to retain even liquid nourishment. I tried Brown's Iron Bitters and now after taking two bottles I am able to get up and go around and am rapidly improving.

During the war I was injured in the stomach by a piece of a shell, and have suffered from it ever since.
