Assistant Agent.

Mr. D. W. Zeisse, of Alexandria, Va., has been assigned by Mr. Robert Portner as Assistant'Agent of his Tivoli Beer Depot in this city. Mr. Julius Liens will remain in charge of the office, as agent. This increase in the force here has been regarded necessa ry, we are informed, by the large increase in the business in this section.

Sound Travel.

The travel to the Sound was never greater at this season of the year than it is now. There is almost a continuous evening going and returning from this favorite resort of our pleasure and health seeking citizens. The horses at the different livery stables have become acquainted with the road, but we lear that could they speak, they would remonstrate with some of the drivers for their cruel way of driving during the excessively hot weather.

Money Orders.

On July 2nd, the postal law in regard to money orders was changed so that an order may be issued for any amount from one cent to one hundred dollars, and the fees are graduated from eight cents to forty-five cents. This change does not apply to International to the public.

Health Resorts.

Tall Grass.

Mr. R. C. Orrell has crab grass in his garden, on the corner of Red Cross and Third streets, that is four feet high. It has been said by some that this climate is unsuited to the profitable culti vation of grasses, but with a little care and attention they could be made to grow luxuriantly, and our people have the satisfaction of raising their from abroad.

The State Guard.

All officers of the Guard under the oath. Some points may be of use to officers. The title "orderly sergeant" no longer exists. The title now is by worn by any non-commissioned ficers below the grade of Brigadier General. Shoulder knots, not epaulets, are prescribed by law for all commissioned officers below the rank of Brigadier General.

The Fruit Fair.

The Greensboro Patriot seems favorable to the proposal to hold the next fruit fair in Wilmington. It says "It is by no means certain, if indeed might just as well leave the " 1" out of probable, that the exhibition will be held in Greensboro. We know of no efforts being made in that direction. Wilmington is suggested and some effort is being made in that behalf. A visit to Wilmington by our fruit growers might be profitable, and certainly enjoyable. Lundgren, cleared for London with 1,866 barrels rosin, valued at $5,916, shipped also by Messrs Paterson, Dowing & Co.

A Lively Race.

Quite an excitement was created at about 11 o'clock this forenoon at the treight warehouse of the W. & Railroad, in consequence of a lot of boys who were in swimming there being chased by the special policeman on day duty in that vicinity. When they saw him coming they jumped out of the water, caught up their clothing and ran in every direction, but he took after one who ran a considerabe distance when he stopped and said to the policeman, "You can whip me, but can't run any further." He was not harmed, only by his fright.

Latest by Telegraph.

The stockholders of the Wilmington, Clinton & Warsaw Telegraph Company held a meeting at Clinton yesterday at which the stock of the company was fully represented. A contract was entered into for the construction of the line which is to be completed and in working order by the 20th of August next. The rules and by laws of the Western Union Telegraph Company were adopted, with the proviso that they may be modified or changed by the Board of Directors, if, in their judgment, it should become necessary .-That the prospect appears flattering may be gathered from the fact that 10 per cent premium was offered for the stock, but there were none who wished to sell. The Board of Directors consists of Messrs W. A. Johnson and Marion Ferrell, Clinton; R. W. Hicks and W. B. McKoy, Wilmington, and T. B Pierce, Warsaw. The adminis-
