THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VII. WILMINGTON, N. C., SATURDAY, JULY 21, 1883. NO. 173

The Daily Review has the largest circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

There are now 10,000 cigar makers in New York city on a strike.

F. B. Stanwood, the new editor of the Boston Advertiser, is a nephew of ex-Secretary Blaine.

The expenses of the recent coronation ceremonies at Moscow amounted to about $7,700,000, about £9,000,000 more than the estimates.

It is said that more beer is drunk per capita in Milwaukee than in any other city, and that the suicide rate there is double that of any other city.

Articles of incorporation of the Delmonico Company, having for its object the building and leasing of hotels in the United States, were filed in New York Tuesday.

Secretary of War Belknap leads a lonely, but correct, life at Washington. Mrs. Belknap spends much of her time in Europe, but when in this country lives in Philadelphia.

By recent assessments, the value of property, real and personal, in New York is found to be almost exactly ten times that in Washington. The increase in New York for the last year was about $45,000,000.

Pastor Powell, who supplies churches at Brooklyn and Sheephead Bay, found railroad fare expensive and bought a tricycle. With this, although a heavy man, he makes the five mile journey over a dirt road in about half an hour.

It appears that the total number of watches made in Besancon last year was only just short of half a million, or nearly 50,000 more than in 1881. Eighty-six per cent. of the watches sold in France last year were made at Besancon.

The American printing house for the blind, just dedicated at Louisville, is the first building ever erected in the world for that sole purpose. It stands in a large yard, surrounded with trees, and is of brick, three stories high with an ample basement.

And now the dress and cloak makers in thirteen of the thirty manufactories in New York are on a strike. The strikers say they will win to their side the employees of all the other firms. They say that in many shops only $1.50 is paid for making a cloak which sells for $100.

Gen. Tom Thumb's last appearance on earth took place on Thursday, at Bridgeport, Conn., where his remains were interred. His wife was present and faint at the grave. There were 10,000 people present, one fifth of whom were boys and girls. A report says: The face of the dead dwarf looked perfectly natural. The body was dressed in a broad-cloth suit. Blood stone studs ornamented the shirt front. On the left coat lapel glittered a gold badge engraved with the thirty-second Masonic degree. A white lace veil was spread over the face. On the lid rested the Knight Templar sash, and silver sword of the General. The scabbard was inlaid with chased silver and the hilt was of silver and ebony. The weapon was only twenty inches long. Beside the hat and sword rested a floral anchor and cross intertwined, sent by Mr. and Mrs. Phineas T. Barnum. At the foot lay a square and compass of white roses presented by Mr. William R. Higby, and a cross of flowers, the gift of the Hamilton Commandery of Knights Templar.

Capt. John T. Patrick, of Wadesboro, the State Immigration Agent, is endeavoring to have North Carolina well represented at the Boston Exposition which opens in the 5th of next September. Capt. Patrick says: "The question is, shall we be able to furnish those who shall be interested in the display the information asked for? 'Where is a description of your property that is offered for sale?' 'Where can I buy a water power sufficient to run one hundred looms?' 'In what county can I buy one thousand acres of heavily timbered land?' 'Where can I purchase a tract of land on which is iron ore?' 'Where can I buy a farm of fifty acres of cleared land?' Such specific information must be furnished to persons who desire to invest their money in our State. This information cannot be given unless it is first furnished to us, or some real estate dealer within North Carolina. If you have a real estate dealer in your county, one who is a thorough going man, who advertises the lands after they are placed in his charge, all you will have to do is to list your lands with him, and he will at once give such information as will enable us to place your property on the market at once. If such a dealer is not convenient to you, then give me a description of your property."

Applications for space and information regarding the International Agricultural Exhibition to be opened at Amsterdam July 28, can be obtained of the Department of State, at Washington City.

The President has designated Z. B. Vance, son of Senator Vance; Charles O. Clay, of Kentucky, a grandson of Henry Clay, and Harry J. Duval, of Pennsylvania, to appear before the board at Fortress Monroe on October 1, for examination for second lieutenants in the army.

Day's length 14 hours and 11 minutes.
Sunset to-morrow afternoon at 11 minutes past 7 o'clock.

Silver Plated Spoons and Forks, low prices, at JACOBI'S.

The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot, only 2 bales.

There was one interment—that of an adult—in Oakdale Cemetery this week.

There was only one interment—that of a child—in Bellevue Cemetery this week.

The hucksters to-day were demanding a dollar a dozen for the best cantaloupes.

The supply of vegetables in the market this morning was all that could be desired.

Capt. A. B. Mosley, of Scotts, Hill, was in the city to-day on one of his rare visits.

The Easterly winds of the past few days have interfered seriously with the supply of fish.

Col. H. B. Short, of the Princiapality of Waccamaw, was at the Purcell House to-day.

There were a number of flat loads of wood in the docks this morning, but there seemed to be no diminution in the price.

There were two interments in Pine Forest Cemetery this week, one of which was an adult and the other a child.

Last night was quite cool, the moon shone brightly, and we should think that every licenced dog in the city was barking at it.

The Register of Deeds issued form marriage licenses this week, three of which were for white and one for colored couples.

At half-past 9 o'clock this forenoon we counted 50 market carts in the vicinity of the New Market, between Dock and Orange streets.

Watermelons are coming in plentifully and they begin to look fit to eat. We saw some remarkably fine ones this morning and were tempted to invest, but—
The Duplin County Teachers' Institute has been in session this week at Warsaw, in that county, and from all reports, it has been an interesting and instructive occasion.

Capt. W. P. Oldham has had a wooden awning erected over the sidewalk in front of his office on Dock street, and the place will be much more comfortable for the improvement.

We are glad to announce that the wife of Rev. Dr. Wilson, who has been seriously sick for several weeks, has so far recovered as to be able to sit up, and is considered out of danger.

We understand that Germanis Lodge, No. 4, K. of P., will give another of their delightful excursions to Smithville and the Forts, on or about next Wednesday week, August 8th. They will be sure to make it, as usual, a delightful and a pleasant affair to all concerned.

A Snake Story.

A coachwhip snake, measuring six and a half feet in length, was killed by a colored man at the "Fairfield" plantation, 4 miles from the city, a few days since. Mr. J. O. Ormsby, who has charge of the plantation, informs us that this is the second of the coachwhip species which has been killed recently in that locality.

Death of an Estimable Lady.

We regret to announce the death of Miss Palmetto, daughter of Dr. Charles Duffy, which occurred at her father's residence, at Catherine Lake, Onslow county, on the 13th inst. The deceased was about 21 years of age, was possessed of a remarkably amiable disposition which made her beloved by a large circle of acquaintances. She was almost idolized by her parents and relatives, to whom we tender our sympathies in their bereavement.

City Court.

The following cases were disposed of by the Mayor this morning:
Ella Martin, colored, disorderly conduct, $5 or 30 days in the city prison. She went below.
Fanny McDonald, colored, disorderly conduct, $5 or 30 days. She also went below.
Joshua Hewett, colored, larceny, committed.

One case of disorderly conduct was continued until Monday morning.

Orton Plantation.

Mr. J. J. Gay, an old friend, and a good one, paid us a short visit this morning. He is now overseer of the rice plantation at Orton, belonging to the estate of the late Capt. D. R. Murchison, and we learn from him, that the prospects for a good crop this season are now very favorable. There are 235 acres there under cultivation and the yield will approximate, it is hoped, 15,000 bushels. The only danger to be apprehended now is a storm, and as no human prescience can foresee and no human efforts can overcome such a disaster all that the rice planters can do is to quietly await events and not to borrow trouble.

A Northern Excursion Coming.

Through the efforts of Capt. Patrick, the State Immigration Agent, an excursion of Pennsylvanians to North Carolina has been arranged, and the excursion will leave Harrisburg, Pa., on the 30th of July. The fare from Baltimore will be $12, which will take the excursionists as far as Shelby, through Norfolk, Portsmouth and Suffolk, Va., and Weldon, Raleigh, Hamlet, Wadesboro, Charlotte, to Shelby, and return by way of Wilmington. The excursionists will be accompanied over the State by Col. Montgomery, State Agent John T. Patrick and others. At Charlotte the party will be given a reception, and we suggest that the matter of entertaining them here be taken in hand at once.

The Strikers.

Information received at the Headquarters of the Brotherhood of Telegraphers in this city, from its officers in all parts of the country, is to the effect that there is no sign of a break among the members of their Order, and that they are prepared to hold their position until their just claims are recognized. The following will explain it self:
NEW YORK, July 19, via. Mail From Richmond, Va., July 20.
To the Brotherhood, Wilmington, N. C.:
It exceeds my most sanguine expectations. Don't believe any rumors. All are solid and will remain so. Great excitement here. Everything is at a stand-still. It is desired by the Executive Committee to impress on all strikers the necessity of remaining steadfast and not to adhere to the Associated Press dispatches, as they misrepresent us in every particular. We are solid here, and it only requires time for a complete victory. Signed
Member of Executive Committee.

Supposed to be Drowaed.

Mr. John Sneed, who is well known to most of our citizens as the young man who unfortunately lost one of his arms by the premature discharge of a cannon two years ago, and who has recently been employed as a watchman at the new turpentine distillery in the Southern portion of the city, is missing and fears are entertained that he has been drowaed. He was on duty last night as usual and was seen at the yard at a very early hour this morning, since which time he has been missing. His coat was found near the water on a log and his dog, who was his faithful and constant attendant, was howling on the wharf. But little was thought, however, of these circumstances until his mother, finding that he did not come home as usual to his breakfast, made enquiries concerning him. Since then search has been made for the missing man and men have dragged the river in the vicinity, but he has not been found, and there are grave reasons to fear that he was drowaed.

July 21, 1883

A circular has been issued notifying postmasters to prepare for the reduction in postage rates which takes effect October 1st.

There were a great many visitors at the Sound last night but not so many as on Thursday night, on which occasion it is said that one house fed 500 pigfish to its gue

Cotton.

The receipts of cotton at this port for the week ending with to-day foot up 57 bales, as against 123 bales for the corresponding week of last year, a decrease this week of 66 bales. The receipts of the crop year to date foot up 127,362 bales, as against 136,105 bales to same date last year, a decrease this year of 8,743 bales.

The King of the Rattlesnakes.

An enormous rattlesnake, which must measured at least twelve feet in length, was killed to-day at Northwest by Mr. S. C. McKay, C. C. R. R. operator at that point. It was dispatched after a desperate struggle and after it had killed one dog and two cows. F. W. C. is hereby notified that his word as to the fact would have been just as convincing as the odor from the box which contained the dead reptile.

The celebrated 'Fish Brand Gills' Twine is sold only at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

The Health of the City.

On more than one occasion we have spoken of the sanitary regulations of Wilmington and the manner in which they were enforced for the benefit of our people. We now speak of the blessings which have followed these necessary and wise precautions, and we confess to feelings of pride as we allude to them. Our city now contains nearly or quite 20,000 inhabitants, yet, this week, which has been very prostrating and oppressive, owing to the intense heat, there have been only four interments in our cemeteries, two of whom were whites and two colored, and the number equally divided between adults and children. We have always contended that Wilmington was one of the healthiest cities in the country and we shall be convinced only by the statistics that there is another city in the United States of the same number of inhabitants that can show so good a record. Something of this is due, undoubtedly, to a better knowledge of the laws which govern health and their due observance among individuals; much is due to frequent excursions to the seashore and Sounds, where the invigorating atmosphere of the ocean has enabled us to bear up against the heat and dust of the city, but much more is due to the wise forethought and active precaution taken by our city officials, who are entrusted with its health as well as its peace and quietude, in making use of every safeguard to protect the city from disease.
